HEARD MISSIONARY AT BISHOP'S MILLS

Gave a Pleasing Sketch of His Work in Far-off India.

Bishop's Mills, July 27 .- An interesting meeting, under the auspices of the Foreign Missionary Society, was held in the United Church on Wednesday evening, and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Anderson, a returned missionary, who has spent twenty-four years in Rutland, Central India, and is home on a furlough, was the speaker of the evening. He gave a most interesting talk on some of his experiences in India, and told how the natives wor ship their different idols, and the the Christian work. Yet the result of the mission work is the furtherance of the gospel, and many earnest Christian believers are numbered among its converts, in that foreign land. The speaker emphasized the fact that it is necessary that our missionaries go to all lands and peoples, and everywhere the gospel of Christ proves itself the salvation of men.

barriers they place in the way of

At the beginning of the meeting the ministration of baptism, to infant daughter of Rev. and Mrs. McAvoy was performed by Rev. Mr. Anderson, and the name, Gloria Alice May Rose, given to their only daughter. Mrs. Millar of New Mexico, who is visiting here, sang a solo very sweetly.

The regular meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the summer home of Mrs. Joseph Keegan. "Fairview Cottage," on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Atkinson presided .. After singing the Institute carol, the minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. L. Robinson and adopted. The question of establishing a public library, in the village, was discussed and further inquiries will be made as to the rules and regulations, and other requirements. It was decided to send a donation of preserved fruit to the this year. Mrs. H. Rowe, a teacher in the Percy street school, Ottawa, who is spending her vacation here, read a very interesting paper, on "Our Familiar Birds," and lovers of bird lore, enjoyed a real treat. A humorous reading was contributed by Miss E. Powell. Before the meeting was closed three new members, and one renewal were added to the list of members. The next meeting will be the grandmothers' meeting, and will be held at the home of Mrs. G. Atkinson. Mr. and Mrs. T. Bellew, Watertown, N.Y., Mrs. J. McGinley, Prescott, motored here on Thursday and were visitors at S. Buker's.

The seating capacity of the United Church was taxed to the limit, on Sunday evening, to accommodate the large crowd, attending the evening service, all wishing to hear the continuation of the interesting and inspiring sermons on "Moral Philosophy" delivered by Rev. J. McAvoy. Mrs. Millar, New Mexico, rendered a solo, which was highly appreciated, Miss Helen Bu-Wellbrock Offices, 159 Wellington St. | ker acting as accompanist. The choir also contributed a bright musical anthem, before the conclusion of the church service. On Friday evening the members of the Tennis Club motored to Oxford Station, and played a friendly game with the tennis players of that vicinity. The winning score was in favor of Bishop's Mills. At the conclusion of the game, the visitors were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. S. Black.

Miss Dora Craig, Oxford Mills, is the guest of Miss Viola Green Misses Lillie Murphy, and Connie Bowden, Montreal, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Crowder, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, Oxford Mills, were visitors at the homes of Messrs. Fred and Charles Sherrard, this week. Mr. Brace, of the Salvation Army, Smith's Falls, was a visitor here on Friday last.
