Dog License Cases.
Three cases in which citizens are charged with neglecting to secure a dog license, will come before Magistrate Farrell on Friday.

Placed Carriage On Tracks.
A tug of the Donnelly Wrecking Company placed the boat carriage on the tracks at the Kingston Yacht Club Thursday morning.

Took High Standing.
The many friends of Gordon Hanley, 11 Main street, will be glad to know that he was successful in passing his final examinations at Detroit, Mich., where he has been attending college. Mr. Hanley passed with high standing.

Called on Old Friends.
Mayor and Mrs. Balharrie of Ottawa called on Canon and Mrs. W. F. Fitzgerald, Brock street, on their return from a motor trip on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Balharrie was a member of the Anglican church in Quyon, Que., when Canon Fitzgerald was rector there.

Was a Queen's Graduate.
Rev. J. A. Omond, who had charge of St. Andrew's United Church, Sudbury, for the past few months during the illness of the minister went to New Liskeard where he will be inducted to the ministry of the United Church. Rev. Mr. Omond was formerly of Prescott and is a Queen's graduate.

Take a Hand In the Work.
Old Home week is drawing near. Are you going to help make it a success? Of course you are. The reception committee is anxious that all old citizens sacrifice a little of their time during Old Home Week, and to help to give the old-timers a warm welcome and a generally good time.

Cars Collide.
Three cars figured in a collision on Princess street Wednesday afternoon. A car, which was parked on the right side of Princess street, going up, turned out and was struck by a car proceeding up Princess street, the impact throwing it against another car that was parked in front of it. Very little damage was done.

Returned From England.
Rev. Dr. E. Hooper, Brockville, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church, Kingston, has returned after spending ten weeks visiting chiefly in London, England, and along the south coast of the Old Land. He visited his nine brothers and sisters in their own homes in England and enjoyed the trip very much.

Kerr-Morris Nuptials.
On Wednesday evening, at St. Luke's Church, the marriage took place of Lillie Belle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morris, Athens, and Mr. George Douglas Kerr, Mallorytown. Rev. J. de Pencier Wright officiated. The bride was given away by her brother, Dr. S. O. Morris, Lyndhurst. Mr. and Mrs. Kerr will reside in Mallorytown.

Among The Islands.
Saturday, Sunday, Monday, 2 p.m. fast time. Down the Canadian channel and home by the American channel. One hour at Alexandria Bay and an opportunity to see all the islands. Visitors to our city should not go home without seeing the beautiful Thousand Islands. Str. Brockville from Ferry dock. Adults, 75 cents; children, 50 cents.

Concert at Mowat Hospital.
The patients at the Mowat Sanatorium are very grateful to the members of the P.W.O. Regiment band for a concert they tendered the hospital on Tuesday evening. Twenty members of the organization went out and contributed a long programme of music on the lawn that lasted till 9.30 p.m. The patients appreciated the entertainment very much and hope the band will come back again soon.

Fine Library Lawns.
G. Hyland is receiving many compliments on the appearance of the lawns about the new Douglas Library. The grass was not started till this spring, but it has been looking fine for several weeks past. Sparrows eating the seed and young sprouts gave much trouble, especially on the terraced parts, but they were outwitted with sheets of sack and fine chicken wire in several layers.

G.W.V.A. Decoration Day.
Sunday will be Decoration Day for the members of the Great War Veterans Association. The ex-soldiers plan to gather at their headquarters at ten a.m. and go out by quarters at Cataract and St. Mary's cemeteries to visit the graves of fellow-veterans and leave flowers on the plots. The Association is also planning to be well represented in the parades of Old Home Week, a float and a large banner being nearly ready.

Running into the path of an automobile. Jack Sutherland, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sutherland, Smith's Falls, received serious injuries. He is in hospital in a serious condition. At an Orange picnic, at Rochester, N.Y., Mrs. Ruby Horton, formerly of Smith's Falls, won a prize for the largest family, eleven children and thirteen grandchildren. J. J. Wilson is held at Alexandria Bay, N.Y., and is in possession of a rowboat, supposed to belong to Dr. W. P. Clark, Fernbank, Brockville.
