NEWSPAPER FUN

By Maxson Foxhall Judell

The Crop That Never Falls.
When we retire from business scenes. We'll buy a farm and raise string beans; Hotels and boarding houses too Use tons of 'em, we'll say they do!

'Attaboy!
Ted: "I told my girl just what I thought of her after the prom."
Felix: "What did she say?"
Ted: "I love you . . . ."

Well Supplied.
Bert (as auto slips on wet street): "Gosh, I wish I could get a set of chains around here!"
Hermine (pointing to grocery store): "Why don't you try that place?"

Bert (disgustedly): "Aw, that's a grocery."
Hermine: "I know, but it's a chain store."
—Raymond Hubbard.

Prospects.
Father: "So you want to marry my daughter? Have you a good job?"
Suitor: "Well, I don't get good wages just now, but we're going on a strike next week."
—John Flanagan.

Attention!
Clerk: "You say you want a flash light, sir?"
Customer: "No, I want to buy a flash light, so I can find it in the dark."
—G. J. B.

Helpful.
Gilbert: "Don't you know, dear, that I simply cannot afford to buy you such clothes?"
Mrs. Gilbert: "But Jack, darling, I want to look beautiful and inspire you to work harder."
—Harvey Haggerty.

LEARNING.
The Editor that's on the dot And reads the things that down we jot. If they be true, or if they're not, That editor must learn a lot.
—Blanche M. Wright.

But think of this, my dear Miss Wright:
The poor guy sits up every night To read the stuff that folks indite. Oh, pity him and his sad plight!

At Least He Was Cooked.
Tough Customer: "Come on and bring me my order! Think I'm going to wait all day? I'm hard-boiled, I am."

Jessie (the waitress): "Can dat line of chatter! Hard-boiled me eye! Yer stewed, dat's de trouble wid you."
—H. R.

Pro And Con.
Peace Advocate: "Nevertheless, Captain, don't you think peace is best?"
Navy Captain: "Oh sure. You see that gives us a chance to engage in war time manoeuvres."
—Mrs. H. L. Shimska.

Rheumatic Pains Go Swollen Joints Vanish

Twisted, swollen, unsteady joints rapidly freed from pain and brought back to normal with Rheuma. Lame people walk without aid; sleep comes to those who have been unable to lie in bed; hands that were helpless because of terrible rheumatism are now able to do their share for the support of the family. Rheuma is a wonderful remedy for rheumatism, gout, neuritis, lumbago and neuralgia. It is a wonder-worker; it never fails, never gives up until every vestige of poison is expelled from the body. Rheuma acts on stomach, liver, kidneys and bladder all at once and quickly brings long prayed for comfort to distressed sufferers. Jas. B. McLeod and all good druggists sell it with guarantee of money back if it isn't satisfactory.

Railway Employee Fifty-Two Years Is the Record of John Sullivan

Veteran Montreal Street Resident Is Now Night Clerk in the C.N.R. Freight Office—He Is Also a Baseball Player at Age of Seventy.

Fifty-two years in the employment of the Grand Trunk Railway and still doing his six nights a week! That is the record of John Sullivan, 155 Montreal street, night clerk at the C. N. R. freight office here.

It was great to see Mr. Sullivan play first-base last Saturday. The office staff, twenty in number, held a picnic at Collin's Lake that day, and the biggest event was the ballgame between the office staff and the freight clerks. In spite of his seventy years Mr. Sullivan made a "rep" that day for stealing bases. Along with the rest, he got a soaking in the rain on the way home, for the tarpaulin they tried to hide under did not always cover everybody, but he was not a "hap" the worse for it.

Mr. Sullivan is a great baseball fan. He has only missed one game this season, and that time he was sure Kingston would win. His son, "Mart" is a sport lover too and until he lost an arm in a railway accident he was a crack hockey player. Music is another hobby of Mr. Sullivan's. There are not many men who have learned to play the violin or even the mouth organ after they had passed sixty years.

The veteran clerk left the farm to enter the railway's employment back in 1873, when he was eighteen, and his first job was as a section hand. That was at Pickering. After two years he became switchman for four years, and then he learned telegraphy. He spent two years at Newcastle in this work and then was promoted to be agent and operator at Darlington, where he remained eleven years. Then he went to Port Union for seven years.

In 1899 he was glad to hear that he was being moved to Kingston as he would have an opportunity here to educate his children. For eight years he was baggage man at the Kingston Junction and since that time night clerk at the local freight office.

No Desire to Retire.
The last fifteen years of his service with the railroad has been night work and until four years ago, it was every night. Yet he is the picture of health and vigor and has drawn only nine dollars sick insurance. Five years ago he was eligible for pension, but in his report to headquarters every year he answers the question: "Do you wish to remain in the service?" with a decided "Yes." He passes his annual medical examinations with flying colors. The company has honored him and his wife with many complimentary passes and recently a long service pass, signed by Sir Henry Thornton himself, which will take him and Mrs. Sullivan on any train on any part of the road, was presented to him. Passes of this type are very rare on the C. N. R.

Mr. Sullivan has seen many of his fellow employees "put on the shelf." The regulations allow a man to retire at sixty-five, if he has been employed for twenty years. Just recently, two conductors whom he used to greet at the Outer Station as they passed through on the main line, have been pensioned. They are Rastus Smith, of the Brockville-Toronto run, and "Bob" MacConachie on the Montreal-Toronto run.

Mrs. Sullivan is also in the best of health and both are making big plans for a reunion during Old Home Week of their four children, Mart, of North Bay, Minnie, of Detroit, who has already come home, Eva, at home, and John E., of the W. N. Linton firm.

GANANOQUE

July 31.—W. T. Sampson and O. D. Cowan were the fortunate winners of the very fine Clubs presented by Mr. Maxson of Montreal for Wednesday's match at the links. L. S. Barr and Dr. Barker were second, winning three golf balls and F. W. Bell and George Webb third for two golf balls, and Ted Taylor and Dr. White fourth for one golf ball each. T. D. O'Connor and Billy Edwards, Jr., won the consolation prizes. F. A. McDonald, Montreal, presented the golf ball prizes. Mrs. E. S. Byers and Mrs. Edward Westcott were the hostesses in the afternoon and the royal prize for bridge was won by Miss Agnes Johnston, 2nd prize by Mrs. T. E. Sharp.

At Hale's Island, Admiralty Group on Wednesday the 29th July, a daughter was born to Dr. and Mrs. William Hale.

Miss Genevieve Doherty, Brooklyn, N.Y., is expected to arrive to-day to spend the next few weeks at The Inn.

The picnic under the auspices of St. Brendan's Church, Rockport, on Wednesday last attracted a very large crowd from Gananoque, and no one was sorry for going. Father Scott and his congregation are to be congratulated on the success of this event, which was beyond the most sanguine hopes. The picnic was held on Cornwall's lawn, an ideal spot, and it is estimated that over a thousand people were on the grounds. Although advertised as a chicken supper there was everything good to eat that could be imagined, and lots of it. This is Father Scott's first venture of this kind and the success scored on Wednesday last will no doubt establish it as an annual affair. Among the Gananoqueans present were Rev. A. J. Hanley, the Misses Hanley, and their guests Mrs. Newport and Miss Newport, Mrs. Welsh, Mrs. Rough and Misses Edna and Grace Rough, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Shortall and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Deir and family, Mrs. W. J. Wing, Miss Dot Heffernan, Miss Zeta Pelow (Kingston), Misses Margaret Brennan, Rebecca Calow, Maynie Smith, Mrs. LaQue, Mr. and Mrs. Oale Ledger, Miss Genevieve Ledger, Kathleen Kirke, Lenna Kirke, Rose Funnell, Kathleen Kidd, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Flood, Miss Rita Flood, Justin Flood, Mr. and Mrs. William Latimer, Mrs. Joseph Crowley, Mike O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis (Syracuse), Miss Corey, Maynie McDonald, Mrs. Kehoe and Miss Christine (Kingston), Mr. and Mrs. Frank Littlejohn, Leonard Littlejohn, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gordon and the Misses Gordon and several others.

Misses Birdie and Marie Kane, Kingston, who have been enjoying a delightful holiday at the Rockport hotel are returning home to-day of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lewis and little Joy have left to spend the remainder of the season at Arden. Miss Helen McDonald, Montreal, is spending the week-end here with her mother Mrs. Randall McDonald. Mr. and Mrs. J. Laidlaw, Kingston, have taken the Petch cottage on Tremont for the balance of this season.

Ralph B. Britton, who has spent the past few weeks here with his family at "Mudlanta" returns tomorrow to New Britain, Conn.

Mrs. Albert Briggs and her mother Mrs. John L. Heaslip, Watertown, N.Y., are spending a few days in town with friends.

R. J. Bushell the genial managing director of Kingston's big Industrial Exhibition, was among the important visitors in town for the civic holiday events.

NAPANEE

Napanee, July 31.—A pavement dance will take place on Dundas street tonight, in the business section, and the young folks are hoping for favorable weather. The dance is under the auspices of the Citizens' Band, which organization has been purchasing some fine new instruments.

Miss Minnie Smith is in town as the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Lester Boyes, Thomas street.

The Kelly grocery has moved into its new store in the Rennie block.

A. McMaster, who conducted a grocery store on John street for a short time, died a few days ago at Havelock.

W. A. Templeton has returned home from Portland, Maine, accompanied by Mrs. Templeton and their two sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Richardson, of Belleville, were visiting friends in town yesterday. Mr. Richardson is looking well and seems to have quite recovered from his late illness.

playgrounds in Victoria and Frontenac parks. Only the heavy showers can stop the scores of swings and the tireless processions that ascend and descend the slides from 9.30 in the forenoon till the apparatus is locked up at five o'clock.

A schedule of softball, both for boys and girls, is now well under way, some five games having been played in the girls' series. The games are generally played in the evening when it is cooler.

Frontenac Park has the advantage of a tennis court that is very popular. Excavation for a drain is cutting through the play-grounds at Victoria Park. But nothing can interrupt the competition for the swings and slides, nor take the charm away from the sand-piles which are plentifully scattered under the trees.

To Make Enquiries.
The Renfrew Mercury suggests that it might be well for federal authorities to make some enquiries as to the fare provided for the hundreds of men confined in Portsmouth penitentiary, some of them doomed to remain there until they die. "Prison pallor" does not arise wholly from a minimum of sunlight.

England and Wales are closing many prisons on account of a decrease in crime, while United States prisons are overflowing.

Liquor worth $250,000 was delivered in New York harbor by vessel which eluded coast guards.
