ONE MAN IN HOSPITAL AND ANOTHER IN JAIL

As the Result of Bloody Fight in Glamorgan Township, Near Lindsay.

Lindsay, Aug. 5.—William Stohart, a lumberman living in the township of Glamorgan, about ten miles south of Haliburton, in the Gooderham direction, lies in the Ross Memorial Hospital badly beaten up and in a serious condition, as a result of an assault committed by Sidney Fairfield, a farmer, living in the same neighborhood. Fairfield is at present in the Lindsay county jail, having been remanded for eight days. The Crown advised incarceration until the condition of Stohart is fully shown.

Constable Porter states that the scene of the attack presented a sorry spectacle, considerable blood having been spattered in all directions. The wonder is how Stohart, who is a man about fifty-seven years old, had strength enough to row across the river and ride five miles to his brother's home.

PROGRESSIVE LEADER MAKES A PROMISE

That Progressive Party Will Support Progressive Measures of Any Party.

Regina, Sask., Aug. 5.—When the Government introduces progressive measures they will be given Progressive support," declared Robert Forke, M.P., leader of the Progressives in the Federal house, who addressed a largely-attended public meeting here last night.

"I am prepared," continued Mr. Forke, "to say the same thing to the Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, when he introduces progressive measures he will get Progressive support."

SIX ARE INJURED ON A CROSSING

One Woman Has Fractured Skull and Others Broken Bones.

Peterboro, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Cronk Sulphide, is in Belleville General Hospital suffering from a fractured skull and several others are in the same hospital with broken arms or ribs and severe cuts and bruises as the result of an accident at a crossing three-miles east of Tweed.

A sedan, owned by Mr. Myatt, of Picton, and driven by his son, of the same town, was struck by a west-bound C.P.R. freight train. The car was completely wrecked and all of the occupants sustained more or less severe injuries, five having broken bones.

The occupants were Mr. and Mrs. Myatt, senior, Picton, the owners of the car, their son and grand-daughter, Mrs. Cronk and her daughter, both of Sulphide, and Mr. and Mrs. Fuleford, Trenton.

The Third Water Battle.

There was another huge crowd on the market square at noon on Wednesday to see the third water battle. The firemen were not so careful with their hoses and there was more fun than ever. Those taking part were Firemen Saunders and Patterson versus Firemen Shepherd and Cameron, while Chief Armstrong and Capt. Reid refereed. The demonstration of the motor pump included directing three lines of hose through one nozzle, producing a spray that shot sixty or seventy feet into the sky, and could reach from King street to the treasurer's office.

Presentation to Rev. Mr. Smart.

The Tweed High School Board met in the Huyck House, when Fred Houston, vice-chairman of the board, in the absence from town of Wilbur Gordon, on behalf of members of the Board, presented Rev. Mr. Smart with a beautiful motor rug. Kind words of appreciation were expressed by those present. The ladies of St. James church did not forget Mrs. Smart and children, for two addresses were presented to that estimable lady, accompanied by a case of silver knives and forks, while the two children were the recipients of fountain pens.

Watertown Band Here.

The Watertown band, twenty-two strong, in neat dark blue uniforms, reached the city about 1.30 on Wednesday. They paraded up the main streets, two young ladies representing Liberty and Canada in the lead, and with them Mayor Angrove, Dr. Sands and other members of the reception committee, and Bandmaster Christmas.

The Enquiry Widened.

Crazed Montrealer was arrested after driving his family into the street and threatening suicide.

LETTERS To The Editor

RECALLS OLD DAYS IN KINGSTON.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 2.—(To the Editor): I am one of the "old boys" who finds it inconvenient to visit the old Limestone City this year, but hope to have the pleasure of reading the enclosed poem in the columns of the weekly edition of your valued paper which is one of the permanent institutions Kingston boasts of. I left the old home town in 1892, but there remains still in my heart a tender spot for Kingston.

Sincerely yours,
—WILLIAM STANLEY,

"The Round House Gang."

(By William Stanley, Detroit.)

I am lonesome tonight for the days of yore
When the shouts of my old pals rang.
Need I be ashamed of the tear in my eye
As I think of the "round-house gang?"

You may have known my old home town,
And stood on its streets so fair;
Then, friend, I'm hungry to hear you talk
And give me news from there.

Does Kingston remain the same old place
That it was in my boyhood days?
Are its streets as shady, the sun as bright,
Does each face reflect its rays?

Is the stranger welcomed with a smile
As he was in the days gone by?
Does he know the heart by the same hand shake,
And the twinkle in the eye?

Do you happen to know the policemen's names?
Are they dressed as they used to be?
Tell something about the old home town.
It will all be news to me.

For more than thirty years have passed
Since we wrestled, played and sang;
Yet my heart returns to the good old days
When they called us the "round-house gang."
