YOU'LL SOON GET A FLAVOR THE OTTAWA MIDGETS DEFEAT PETERBORO

But the Peterboro Bantams Just Walked Away From the Ottawa Bantams.

The Ottawa Midgets defeated the Peterboro Midgets by a score of 4-3, in a sudden death, semi-final game, the first of a double header at the Fair Grounds Monday afternoon.

Very good ball was served up by the boys, with Ottawa having the edge on the Petes. The star of the game was Ottawa's young pitcher, Galarneau.

This young lad had eighteen strikeouts to his credit and allowed but ten hits, a fine record. His pitching was steady and he received splendid support.

When Peterboro came to bat in the eighth inning with the score 6-1 against them, it looked as if they were going to make a rally. The first man struck out but the next four contributed a nice single each, two men scoring.

Galarneau came to the front again and struck out the next two batters. This was the only time Ottawa were in danger.

The teams were: Ottawa—Lynch, cf.; Benoff, lf.; Galarneau, p.; Hammell, rf.; Dowd, ss.; Gardner, 3b.; Ralph, 2b.; Purdy, 1b.; MacL, c.

Peterboro—Hope, ss.; Beaver, rf.; Hollingsworth, 2b.; Hatton, c.; Reynolds, 1b.; Gamble, lf.; Spry, cf.; Wilson, 3b.; Goodson, p.

Walkover for Peterboro. In the second game, the Peterboro Bantams walked away with the Ottawa Bantams, winning by a score of 31-1.

The game was a one-sided affair and was merely a batting practice for the Petes. They collected 33 hits, one being for a homer and three of them triples.

Ottawa were very weak in the pitching line, and coupled with this, the twirlers were given ragged support.

On the other hand, Cray tried fine ball for the Petes and was given six-light support. The Peterboro batters were too heavy for Ottawa and the youngsters did not have a chance.

The teams were: Peterboro—Morey, 2b.; Cray, p.; McDonald, 1b.; Dormer, 3b.; Holland, ss.; Cuffe, lf.; Howden, cf.; Starr, c.; Cuthbertson, rf.

Ottawa—Lauruk, lf.; March, c.; Purdy, 2b.; Blondin, p.; Dean, rf.; Tapp, ss.; Culuk, 1b.; Gilliard, cf.; Hynes, 3b.

The Ottawa Midgets and the Peterboro Bantams will meet the Toronto Bantams and Midgets for the championship.

Leonard Denes Report. New York, Aug. 25.—Benny Leonard, retired lightweight champion, will not re-enter the ring again, he declared in denying reports credited to his manager, Billy Gibson, that he intended to try a comeback and fight Jimmy Goodrich, newly-recognized champion, for the title.

BASEBALL Simplified by Billy Evans

Explain why a batter is out if a fielder juggles a ball but finally retains possession of it and a baserunner is not out on a touch play in which the ball is juggled?

Up until the fall of 1919, when the rules were given a general revision, the ruling on the two plays, the juggling of a fly ball and the juggling of the ball after a touch play were the same, the batsman was out.

At that time the experts revising the playing code decided that on a touch play the ball must be securely held, not juggled, to complete the out.

Thus, if a runner sliding into second is touched with the ball while still three feet from the base, only to have the fielder juggle the ball after the touch, the runner is not out if he can reach the base while the ball is still in the air.

It matters not if the fielder finally retains possession of the ball on a touch play. The moment he juggles the ball after the touch, it renders the same void. In order to retire the runner it is necessary that he again secure a firm hold on the ball and once more touch the runner before he reaches his objective.

If a runner after being touched, and the ball is juggled, the play is rendered void and he can be declared safe by reaching the base before the fielder again touches him with the ball.

While it is apparent the rules discriminate between two plays, that on the surface seem much the same, the juggling of a ball that is finally retained before touching the ground, there is perhaps some merit to the attitude taken on a touch play, making it necessary to firmly hold the ball to complete the out.

COBB'S RECORD. Cobb, in 20 years as a big leaguer, has made 3,666 base hits for an average of .368. Only once has Cobb fallen below .300. That was in his debut as a big leaguer.

Hornaby has been a big leaguer just half as long as Cobb. In 10 years he has made 1,713 hits for an average of .359. Twice he has been below the .300 mark.

So, while Hornaby has had a most remarkable career, figures show that Cobb over twice the period has performed even a trifle more brilliantly.

Hornaby, despite the fact that he is an infielder, therefore much more liable to injury, hopes to put in 10 more years and feels that at the finish his general record will vie with that of Cobb's for all-round excellence.

Certainly no other player has a better opportunity to equal the valourous deeds that have been performed by Cobb.

It's nice to be lifted from the battle field in your hour of triumph and carried on the shoulders of the howling mob, but you can never tell just where they are going to carry you to and into what debris can they intend to toss you.

TIMELY COMMENTS

FROM THE OUTSIDE LOOKING IN

The Belleville Ontario says that Latchford had it all over Tetro behind the bat. Well, everyone has his own opinion, and the Kingston fans think that Tetro was every bit as good, and failed to see the "glaring errors" he was supposed to have.

The Fair Grounds should be a merry old place when Peterboro and Kingston clash to-morrow evening. "Shiner" Johnston's crew are determined to trim Kingston on their own grounds to-morrow evening, and, although Kingston fans think they have not much of a chance, one never can tell.

Kingston's best wishes went with the Circle-Six to-day. Although the majority do not think they have much of a chance in Belleville, they may spring a surprise, despite Belleville's much-heralded pitcher, Gerow.

MACFARLANE'S CADDIE PUTS OVER HOT ONE

YOU KNOW—YOU DONT USE THAT CLUB BAD AT ALL!!

WILLIE MACFARLANE'S GRIP—FRONT VIEW

By AL DEMAREE Willie MacFarlane, the American open champion, tells a good caddie story:

"Throughout the practice, qualifying and tournament rounds of the Canadian open tournament," says Willie, "I had been getting a lot of twos on the short holes. Every time I reckoned the eighth during the practice round, and on almost every occasion I played it during the qualifying and tournament rounds, I got a two. All week I used the same caddie, a solemn-faced Canadian youth with a strong dash of Scotch blood in him.

He watched me laying my shots dead to the pin, unmoved. Apparently, it was ordinary stuff in his view—unworthy of comment.

"Well, the last time around, having come to the seventh hole, I felt the need of indulging in a little joshing. After a good shot off the tee, I still had 120 yards to the green. It seemed to me that it was about time to get under my caddie's hide. Carefully studying my shot, I selected a mashie-niblick and, turning to the youth, said:

"Now listen, I came all the way from Tuckahoe to show you this shot."

"He looked at me blankly. But when I put my ball eighteen inches from the hole for a certain birdie three, a judicial gleam came into his eyes and he actually spoke.

"You know," he said, "you don't use that club bad at all!"

Entries Close Thursday. Entries for the Eastern Canadian tennis championships close at the Toronto Lawn Tennis Club on Thursday evening next when the draw will be made for the various events.

There will be no handicap events in this tournament, but two new events will replace them, viz., junior men's singles and junior ladies' singles. Players will be eligible for the junior events who were under 18 years on the first January last.

The tournament will open on Monday next, August 31st, and the Oxford-Cambridge team who will be playing in the Inter-collegiate matches on Saturday afternoon next will play through in the men's singles and doubles and mixed doubles.

Stribling Wins Another. Phoenix, Ariz., Aug. 25.—Young Stribling, Georgia schoolboy, won a technical knockout over Jack Lynch, Prescott, Ariz., light-heavyweight, in the ninth round of a scheduled ten-round bout here Saturday night.

Stribling weighed 173 pounds and Lynch 165.

So the tennis galleries have begun to boo little Helen Wills, eh? . . . And a year ago she was the darling of sportdom! . . . Well the distribution of raspberries for Napoleon during the long walk back from Moscow was said to be quite abundant, if not entirely adequate.

When the merry villagers saw Battling Siki walking down the street preceded by two lions they merely called him a nut. . . . We don't know what they'd call a heavyweight champion who went strolling with a pair of fatty lap hounds.

The news dispatches reveal the Dempsey mansion is guarded by two ferocious chow dogs. . . . We expect to read any day now that the champion is using a powder puff on his new bezer.

MAKE YOUR BACKSWING A LITTLE SHORT, RATHER THAN TOO LONG.

It is a fact that the average golfer invariably swings the club back farther than he really intends to—always. That is, if he wants to take what to him means a full swing he will invariably take a swing and a half.

Galt Boy Wins. Finishing with a fine burst of speed, Cliff Bricker, Galt's sturdy young runner and present holder of the Ontario five and ten mile championships, captured the twelve mile modified marathon held under the auspices of the Lakeview Marathon Association on Saturday from a field of twenty runners, beating the record for the course by almost four minutes, his time being 1 hour 10 minutes 30 seconds.

Assuming the lead at the four mile post he set a fine clip which also carried the next five runners in under the old mark. About 150 yards behind Bricker came Reynolds, also from Galt, while C. Snell, of the Gladstone A.C., and C. White, of the Monarch A.C., were third and fourth.

Monarch Athletic Club furnished the next two men home in Percy Wyer and Grant Hackley. The order of finish was: 1, C. Bricker, Galt; 2, W. Reynolds, Galt; 3, C. Snell, Gladstone; 4, C. White, Monarch; 5, P. Wyer, Monarch; 6, G. Hackley, Monarch; 7, O. Garbutt, Gladstone; 8, A.

Roberts, Gladstone; 9, J. Dellow, Gladstone; 10, Bob May, Monarch. At times a good measure may have the support of a bad man.
