ATHENS BUDGET OF INTERESTING NEWS

A Camp Meeting at Lake Elolida—Building Permits Were Issued.

Athens, Aug. 26.—The cup donated by the Brockville Fair Association to the successful baseball team was won by Athens, and the beautiful trophy may be seen on exhibition in the window of Mr. Churchley, jeweler.

Three building permits have been issued recently; one for the Dack grocery, one for the Kavanagh building, and one for the Stevens bakery. While George W. Lee has been holidaying at his new camp at Charleston, his place in the Max Ain store has been taken by Miss McEvoy. George Robinson has exchanged his Elgin street property for the John Topping farm, Sheldon's Corners. John Eaton and family are again occupying their Victoria street residence following an absence of several months while Mr. Eaton was employed in Brockville on construction work.

A fine new gasoline lantern at the front of the Farmers' Co-operative Club is proving a decided improvement, and will be more and more appreciated as the dark evenings of autumn approach. The Judson grocery is again opened for business, the proprietor and family having returned to town from Camp Lookout, Charleston Lake, where they spent the summer.

Mr. Hagan, the baker formerly employed by W. Coon, is leaving with his family this week to reside elsewhere. Dr. Beamont S. Cornell, Brockville, was here on Friday of last week and performed three tonsil operations at the office of Dr. C. M. Bracken. A professional nurse accompanied the surgeon. Mrs. Maria Hamblin, Delta, a former Athenian, was here one day last week on a visit at the home of Mahlon Yates. Mrs. Hamblin met with an unfortunate accident about a year ago, whereby she fractured her hip, but, although now eighty-eight years of age, she manages to get about remarkably well.

S. Ducolon, Wiltse street, was in Brockville last week, calling at the General Hospital to see his young granddaughter, the only child of his youngest daughter, Mrs. J. B. Horton, New Dublin, who left home as a bride seventeen years ago. N. D. McVeigh, proprietor of the "Armstrong House," was called to Brockville recently owing to the sudden passing away of his brother, Lester, who had, but a short time previously, been his guest at Camp Mac, Charleston Lake.

Mrs. J. H. McLaughlin was hurriedly summoned to Napanee a few days ago, owing to the illness of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. (Dr.) Ross McLaughlin.

Mrs. (Dr.) J. Harold Wiltse and son, Jack, Windsor, are guests at I. Wiltse's. Miss Mabel Slack, Montreal, is holidaying at her Athenian home, "Green Gables." Hubert Davy, Brockville, is a guest of his grandmother, Mrs. M. McLaughlin. Rev. Glenn Sherman and Mrs. Sherman, Lanark, are guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hanna, N.Y., are guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Cynthia Yates. Members and friends of the Baptist Sunday school enjoyed an outing at Warren's Bay, Charleston, on Saturday last.

Owing to a typographical error, credit was given Mrs. H. E. Cornell in Saturday's paper, instead of to Mrs. R. E. Cornell for furnishing flowers on the Sunday previous. For many years Mrs. Richard E. Cornell has been most successful in horticulture, and hundreds of bouquets from her garden have been placed in the Methodist church, during the year, to gladden the "places of worship." At the close of the evening service, when their mission in the sanctuary is over, the flowers are sent to the sick and shut-ins, thus many a weak and weary sufferer has been cheered by the kindly ministry of flowers cultivated by Mrs. Cornell.

Rev. Mr. Scott, Prescott, came up from Charleston where he is holidaying, and preached a helpful sermon, Sunday evening, in the United Church, speaking from Hebrews 13:8, "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, to-day and forever." He said in effect, "The element of change is everywhere apparent, in earth, in sky, in sea, friends, health, prosperity, all change—He is the one exception. He is unchanged in His representation of God, in His sacrifice for sin, His character, His sympathy, His understanding of human need, His companionship unto and even beyond death."

The annual camp-meeting of the Standard church opened at Lake Elolida on Sunday with a goodly number in attendance. Rev. Mr. Dack, local pastor, and several other Athenians will remain during the entire week of its duration. For the Sunday services many came from round about the country-side as well as from our town to be present for the services. Rev. Mr. Monaghan, head of the denomination, being the preacher.

It is announced that next Sabbath is "Field Day" in Leeds county for the Ontario Prohibition Union and a representative is expected to speak in the morning in the United church on that department of social service. Dr. W. W. Giles, East Orange, N.J.,

NEW SCHOOL YEAR OPENS WITH GREAT ADVANCEMENT IN THRIFT

By S. W. Straus, President American Society for Thrift

WE are on the threshold of another school year and it is worthy of note that in all parts of the country thrift is becoming a part of the curriculum, both in the public and parochial schools. It has been just ten years since the first organized effort was made to introduce thrift teachings in our educational institutions. In August 1915 the First International Congress for Thrift in the history of the world was held in Festival Hall on the Grounds of the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco.

Among the recommendations of this congress was that thrift should be taught in the schools. A committee was appointed and the co-operation of the National Council of Education, affiliated with the National Education Association, was secured through the appointment of a National Committee on Thrift Education. This committee under the chairmanship of Arthur H. Chamberlain of San Francisco, has been in existence since that time, working along the lines of investigation and recommendation. It is well at this time, when another school year lies before us, to give thought to the importance of instructing our boys and girls in the priceless advantages of thrift. One is never too old to learn, and the most thriftless person can become thrifty. But efforts to encourage thrift will be most productive of good when expended on the young. This work is now going forward with such momentum that it is bound to be eminently successful. More and more schools are taking up the idea. School savings banks deposits are gaining by leaps and bounds. Thrift in the schools is now an accomplished fact.
