WEDDINGS.

Finley-Williamson

On Wednesday morning, August 26th, Trinity Church, Oak Leaf, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Ida Amelia, eldest daughter of the late John Williamson and Mrs. Williamson, Oak Leaf, was united in marriage to Percy Arthur Finley, the son of the late Richard Finley and Mrs. Finley, Charleston. The Rev. V. O. Boyle, M.A., B.D., rector of Lansdowne Rear, officiating. The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Karl, looked charming in a gown of sandalwood canton crepe with hat to match and was attended by her sister, Nellie, who was gowned in whirlpool blue canton crepe with hat to match. The groom was supported by Robert McLean, Mrs. V. O. Boyle played the wedding march from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace, to the bridesmaid a gold bar-pin and to the groomsmen a pair of gold cuff links. After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served at the home of the bride. The happy couple left for Ottawa.

ANSWERS TO INQUIRIES

Distracted Bride: "How are men's soft collars washed? I can't get them white."

Answer: Pour one pint of boiling water over one cup of shaved soap and then stir three tablespoons of ammonia into this mixture. Cool it. It will form a jelly. Put the soft collars into one cup of this jelly mixed with one quart of water. Open the collars and place them flat in the soap-solution, leaving them to soak over night. In the morning the dirt can be easily removed. But if this is not the case, boil the collars. When they are clean, rinse well, then dip them in a thin, raw (un-boiled) starch, made by dissolving one tablespoon of the dry starch-powder in about one quart of cold water. Roll the collars in a turkish towel and leave two hours before ironing.

Mrs. G. G.: "Do you know of a recipe for a delicacy called 'Taglachs'?" A Jewish friend of mine once served it to me, long ago.

Answer: Yes, and it is a delicious sweet. Taglachs: Beat two eggs and add to them a pinch of salt and enough flour to make a medium-stiff dough (I regret that I have not the exact amount recorded). Have syrup cooking, made of one pound of sugar and one pint of honey. Cut the dough up in small pieces and roll like bread sticks, then cut these sticks again into one-inch pieces and drop carefully into the simmering syrup. Do not stir, but merely let them cook slowly till the syrup is gone, then cool a little and roll in shredded cocoanut. Store in a jar in a cool place till used.

Always-Interested Reader: "Have you a recipe for Orange Cream Pie?"

Answer: Orange Cream Pie: Separate yolks from whites of three eggs and beat the yolks with one-half cup of granulated sugar. Into a saucepan put one cup of sweet cold milk and let heat till almost boiling, then thicken with two and one-half tablespoons of cornstarch powder mixed to a paste with one-half cup of additional cold sweet milk. Now add the egg-yolks mixed with the sugar and stir well. Flavor with the grated rind of two oranges and the juice of one and cool. Turn the mixture into a baked under crust and on top of the pie spread a meringue made of the three egg-whites beaten stiff with two tablespoons of extra sugar. Slip the pie into a modern oven for about eight minutes, or till deliberately browned on top.

That some girls from the Elgin Junior W. I. will go to Toronto for the Household Science competition in connection with the Women's Institute exhibition in the Women's Building at the Canadian National Exhibition. A handsome trophy, given by the C. N. E. is to be competed for annually but each girl on the winning team will receive a miniature which she may keep. The C. N. E. is also giving ten prizes ranging in value from one dollar to ten dollars and as no girl can take more than one prize the rewards will be well distributed.

That the one more week of daylight saving will be taken advantage of by those who want to enjoy picnics and long afternoons on the water or in a car. It is felt by many people that the greatest advantage of the summer time is to be had in August and September when the extra hour at the end of the day is most enjoyable and we have got used to the change of time.

That once more a gleam of scarlet in the distance will tell us that the gentlemen cadets have come back to the Royal Military College. We give them a hearty welcome back to Kingston and the large class of recruits is included in our greetings.

That scarfs continue to be worn with practically every costume. One reason is that these accessories give the little individual a touch of personality which every costume needs. The large handkerchiefs are being used for this purpose with excellent effect since they may be tied in countless ways.

WOMAN'S INSTITUTE.

ATHENS

The August meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Saturday 29th inst., the secretary-treasurer's report showing a neat sum derived from the sale of bouquets to the summer colony at Charleston Lake, and gratifying results from the cafeteria conducted on Sports Day. A solo, entitled, "O, How I Miss You To-night," a pathetic little song about mother, was sweetly rendered by Miss Marion Robinson, with Miss Georgia Robinson as accompanist. These talented girls are always so generous with their music, that they are of great assistance on various occasions. A helpful paper on "What is the best age of women," prepared by Mrs. W. J. Ball, Kenora, was read by Mrs. B. H. Brown, and proved that the best age is the present age. Mrs. Sankey, Waskada, Man., brought greetings from the "Prairie Province" and told of their work maintaining a Rest Room, providing a tonsil clinic, and beautifying the cemetery. The Dominion president of Women's Institutes lives at Birtle, Man., near her home town.
