EVENT AT PERTH ROAD.

Harvest Dinner Was Most Enjoyable Event. The annual harvest dinner, under the auspices of the Perth Road United Church, was held on Tuesday, Sept. 1st, in Mr. Harris' grove. As in former years, the crowd was large, and composed of visitors from nearby places. During the afternoon, a good programme of sports was put on. Two ladies' softball games were played. The first one between Latimer and Perth Road resulted in a win for the home team, score 24 to 19. At the conclusion of this game, speeches were given by Revs. Puttenham, Carleton, Adamson and Mc-Math. Hon. Dr. J. W. Edwards made a very efficient chairman.

After the addresses, a programme of races were run off. The following is a list of the races and prize win-Boys under 12 years Ennis Orser.

M. A. G.: "Ice Box Cake with Nuts: Line a mold with waxed paper. Then line the form with lady fingers. Put one-half pound of sweet butter into a mixing bowl and cream into it two cups of powdered sugar, the juice and rind of one lemon, the yolks of four eggs and one and onehalf cups of ground pecan nuts. Now fold in the stiffly-beaten whites of the four eggs and spread half of this mixture on top of the first layer of lady fingers. Add another ladyfinger, then the remainder of the uncooked egg-sugar-nut mixture, and top with a final layer of lady fingers. Place on ice for several hours to mold, then turn out onto a serving plate, remove waxed paper and serve with whipped cream."

A. S.: "Lemon-Orange Ice Box Cake: Cream one-half pound of sweet butter with one and one-half cups of granulated sugar for 20 minutes; then add four eggs (yolks and whites unseparated) and the grated rind and juice of two lemons and two oranges. Split three dozen lady fingers and line a mold with them. Put in some of the uncooked egg-sugar mixture, add another lady finger layer, and alternate these two layers till the egg mixture is used, having the cake layer come last. Let stand 24 hours in your ice box before serving, turned out of mold, with whipped cream."
