Appointed Caretaker.
William White has been appointed caretaker of the new arts building at Queen's university.

Resume Regular Services.
Next Sunday the churches which joined during July and August will resume their regular services.

May Accept Call.
Rev. W. T. Prettie, B.A., Copper Cliff, Ont., a Queen's graduate, is likely to accept a call to Chateaugay, Que., United Church.

Kingston Bank Clearings.
The figures of the Kingston Bankers' Clearing House for week ending Sept. 3rd, 1925, are $773,085; corresponding week, 1924, $571,793.

To Preach At Re-opening.
Provincial Dyde will preach on Sunday at the re-opening of John Street United Church, Belleville. The building has been renovated and greatly improved.

Keep Cattle off Highway.
Pasturing stock on the Provincial Highway is against the law. This week a Gananoque resident was fined $15 for having ten cattle on the Kingston-Smith's Falls road, on information laid by H. T. D. Dowles.

Returned to Kingston.
Messrs. Edwin and Henry F. Moores have returned from a trip to Belleville, Oshawa and Toronto with Mayor J. P. Batharrie and other Ottawa gentlemen. They attended the Municipal Association convention in Toronto.

To Preach Here Sunday.
Rev. T. J. Glover, D.D., Cambridge, Eng., University, is renewing acquaintances here. He will be the preacher in the First Baptist Church at 11 a.m. Sunday, and should attract a large audience because of his meritorious services in church work.

Millinery Opening.
Miss Marion Wheeler, 229 Princess street, has just returned from Toronto with a complete range of new fall hats, featuring both large and small head sizes, at moderate prices. First showing on Saturday, Sept. 5th. She will be pleased to have you call.

For Mr. Nickle's O.K.
The application for clemency in the case of Charles Matthews, now in penitentiary, has been received in Ottawa. It will be referred to the attorney-general of Ontario for his opinion.

No Cheese Board Meeting.
The Frontenac Cheese Board is apparently a thing of the past as far as this season is concerned. No cheese has been boarded for three weeks now and this week no one appeared at the regular meeting hour.

This Great Sale Ends Sept. 12th.
Be sure and get a suit before this sale ends, as it positively means a saving of dollars to you.
—The Lion Clothing Co.

Work of Paving.
Good progress is being made on the work of resurfacing the pavement on Clergy street west. The men had reached the corner of Clergy and Division streets at Friday forenoon.

Everybody Would Hear Him.
The Peterboro Examiner notes Mayor Angrove's announcement that he will run for a fourth term and adds: "And if he made the announcement in the same voice he uses at ball games nobody in Kingston has failed to hear it."

Brother and Sister Won.
Emmaline Henderson and Burt Henderson, children of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Henderson, Oso Station, were the winners of the individual prizes at the school fair. Burt Henderson is ten years of age and his sister thirteen. The two children have been exhibitors in the fair for some time.

Installing Return Pipes.
For some time now plumbers have been working in the new medical building at Queen's installing return pipes in the heating system. This is hoped to both make the building warmer and to void the cracking sounds in the pipes which were wont to disturb the lectures.

No Delivery Monday.
There will be no mail delivery on Monday (Labor Day). The post office lobby will be open all day for the benefit of boxholders, and the general delivery and registry office will be open from 8 a.m. till 10 a.m. There will be two collections made of the street boxes, one in the morning and another in the evening.

Among the Islands.
Saturday—Alexandria Bay. Stop one hour.

Sunday—Alexandria Bay. Stop one hour.

Monday (Labor Day)—Clayton. Stop off at Clayton for three hours to see the big celebration, or one hour at Alexandria Bay. Steamer Brockville from Ferry dock 2 p.m. city time. Fare, adults 75c., children 50c.

Love of the Water.
Rev. R. Bruce Taylor, principal of Queen's University, takes his love of the water from his venerated father, who, along the Scottish coast, was known as an expert sailor. In Principal Taylor's house is a splendid picture of his father at eighty-four, handling the tiller of a large dory. Principal Taylor says his father was extremely fond of sailing and that many a joyous trip he had with him on the sea.

Detours Lifted.
The detour between Maitland and the Blue church road on the provincial highway between Brockville and Prescott, has been lifted, with the practical completion of the new road surface. A detour is necessary from the Blue church road into Prescott for the laying of a pavement, but the distance is only about five and a half miles as compared to the ten miles of detour necessary, heretofore.

A Valuable Contribution.
Queen's library authorities are very much indebted to Dr. Lorne Pierce, Toronto, for a valuable contribution of old documents pertaining to the early history of Canada, and particularly to this province. He has evidently secured some old treasures, one lot being obtained at Niagara, where the folios have remained for many years in a garret of a farm house. These precious documents have all been tabulated by Dr. Pierce, and in passing them over to Queen's University, he has done honor to his Alma Mater.

An Eminent Figure.
Toronto Globe: "Dr. Daniel Miner Gordon was an eminent figure among eminent men in the long record of Queen's University. During his term as Principal the university passed from the Presbyterian Church to national standing, and now occupies a high place among the Dominion's seats of learning. As The Kingston Whig says, 'he filled the post of Queen's Principal with great tact and dignity, and he retired, owing to infirmities of age, with the deep regret of official bodies, graduates and students.'"
