GENERAL HOSPITAL STRIKE IS SETTLED Non-Union Painters to Be Taken Off Job and Away From City.

The strike at the clinic building of the General Hospital has been settled.

On Wednesday the Roberts Company, which has the painting contract, agreed to take all the non-union painters off the job and away from Kingston.

The local unions responded by offering to send the carpenters, electricians and plumbers who left the job, back again and complete the work.

The non-union men are expected to leave Saturday noon and the local men will start on Monday morning.

An official of the local Building Trades Council states that they are actuated in the matter by a desire to help the hospital authorities get the building finished as soon as possible.
