DR. MCPADYEN'S ADDRESS.
On "Rambles With a Missionary in Central India."

"Rambles with a Missionary in Central India" was the title of a very enlightening illustrated address by Dr. J. F. McPadayen at the regular meeting of Chalmers Women's Missionary Society Wednesday night.

The dense population of India shows great extremes of wealth and poverty, that often borders on starvation, as the speaker showed. A cotton mill was described where men got twelve cents, and women six cents a day.

The Next Courts. The next local court will be non-jury sittings of the County Court, opening on October 5th.
