CITY AND DISTRICT

Bank Changes Made.
H. T. Ross, Royal Bank, Napanee, has been transferred to Belleville, O. M. Wager going from Belleville to Norwood.

A Tall Corn Stalk.
John Magee, Sillsville, in the county of Lennox and Addington, shows a cornstalk eleven feet nine inches high.

Bank Clearings.
The following are the figures of the Kingston Bankers' Clearing House: For week ending Sept. 17th, 1925, $807,283; corresponding week, 1924, $794,328.

To Meet At Peterboro.
It has been decided to hold the Bay of Quinte United Church conference in Peterboro on October 13. The Kingston Presbytery is in this conference.

Four-legged Duck.
An interesting curiosity to be seen at the Fair is a four-legged duck, which is on exhibition in the poultry building. It was raised by William Foley, Howe Island.

Glenvale and Wilton.
Presbyterian Church service, Glenvale, 10.45 a.m.; Wilton, 7.30 p.m. Harvest thanksgiving service. Everybody welcome. A. D. Sutherland, minister.

Kiwanis Programme.
A special programme is being arranged for the meeting of the Kiwanis Club at the Frontenac Hotel, Monday noon. It is to consist largely of musical numbers. Murdock Johnston, the vice-president, will be in the chair.

Death of Clarence Lloyd.
At the Weston Hospital, Toronto, Clarence Lloyd, son of the late W. A. Lloyd, Belleville, passed away Monday. Deceased was twenty-three years of age and had lived here all his life. He had been in failing health for some time.

Wolfe Island Fair Postponed.
On account of Kingston Fair being extended two days, Wolfe Island Fair will be held Wednesday, Sept. 23rd, instead of Tuesday, Sept. 22nd. Games of ball and trials of speed. Boat leaves foot of Brock street, 9 and 11.30 a.m., 1.45 and 3 p.m.; returning at 5.15 and 6.30. There will be a dance held in C.M.B.A. Hall Fair night.

Stewart-Perceval Wedding.
A pretty wedding was solemnized in Trinity church, Addison, on Sept. 12th, when Rev. A. E. Smart, united in marriage Geraldine Marguerite, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Watson Percival, Glen Buell, and Allen Roy Stewart, son of John W. Stewart, North Star Farm, Lyn. The church was prettily decorated. The bride was gowned in white crepe and carried a bouquet of roses. Her attendants were Miss Gladys Latimer, Lyn, bridesmaid, and Helen Scott and Anna Latimer were flower girls. The bridegroom was supported by Gerald Percival, Glen Buell.

Thurlow's School Fair.
At the Prince of Wales public school, Thurlow township, the annual school fair was held Wednesday attracting a large number of spectators. The display of fruits, vegetables and in fact every kind of exhibit for which prizes were donated, exceeded other offerings of preceding seasons.

Children Get Holiday.
The school children of the city were given their holiday to attend the fair Friday afternoon. Many, on waking up in the morning and finding it raining, made gloomy predictions, but the sunshine later made the kiddies happier.

Tourist Traffic Decreasing.
The tourist traffic through the city is steadily decreasing as the weather is becoming cool and the nights long, making it unpleasant for driving. It is stated that there have been more tourists passed through Kingston this season than any other year.

Building New Church.
The laying of the corner-stone of the new United Church at Morewood is expected to take place towards the close of the present month, rapid progress being made upon construction. Rev. Dr. George C. Pidgeon will officiate at the laying of the corner-stone.

Making a Good Showing.
Harold McLaren, Montreal, son of Mrs. W. A. McLaren, Perth, is upholding the reputation of the McLaren family as excellent athletes. At the recent annual field day of the Canadian National Recreation Club at Lachine, he was second with eighteen points for the Decathlon Trophy, just two points behind the winner.

Grounds in Fair Shape.
The Fair Grounds were in a fairly dry condition Thursday evening and the race track was just beginning to round into shape. The constables had quite a time keeping the crowds back during the rodeo, as there was a liability of someone being injured by the horses. One man used his stick quite freely on the youngsters, who did not like it at all.

A Delightful Sail.
Come and enjoy a delightful sail to Cape Vincent, N.Y., Saturday and Sunday, leaving Kingston 7 a.m. and 1.15 p.m. Passengers taking 7 a.m. boat and returning on evening boat will have an opportunity to spend three hours in Watertown. The Sunday 1.15 p.m. boat makes a trip through the Islands, and to Cape Vincent. Fare round trip to Cape Vincent, returning same day, 75c. Phone 2195.

Was Born in Kingston.
After a valiant fight of more than two years during which he had been confined to the House of the Good Samaritan, Watertown, N.Y., with a broken back, George Randall, Glen Park died on Sept. 11th. Randall met his injury Aug. 23rd, 1923, when he was buried in a cave-in at the M. G. Fitzgerald farm, Cape Vincent, N.Y. Mr. Randall was born in Kingston, Ont., Oct. 19th, 1905, son of the late Herbert and Elsie Randall and moved with his parents to Watertown, N.Y. He lived with his parents until their death in January, 1919 during the influenza epidemic which swept over the city at that time.

District Scoutmaster.
The Provincial Council for Ontario of The Boy Scouts Association announces that Mr. Harry Babcock, Scoutmaster of the 1st Napanee Troop, has accepted appointment as District Scoutmaster for a district comprising the southern sections of Frontenac and Lennox and Addington Counties. This appointment has been made in order to form a closer bond between the Toronto Headquarters of the Provincial Council and the various local units of the Scout Movement. The new District Scoutmaster will do all he can to assist the scoutmasters of existing troops with their work and with the solution of any problems they may have, and will also be glad to co-operate with persons in the district who may be interested in securing the formation of troops in communities where Scouting is not now organized.

Mrs. F. Bresse, Lyndhurst, is progressing favorably since her operation for appendicitis in the Kingston General Hospital. See our special prices for Fair Week at James Reid's.
