Children Lose Balloons.
A number of gas balloons escaped from the hands of some children at the fair on Friday and soon drifted up into the clouds and out of sight. Some children were wise and tied the string around their wrists.

Death of Lord Sydenham.
Eighty-four years ago, Sept. 19th, 1841, the death of Lord Sydenham, first Governor-General of United Canada occurred in Kingston. His remains lie buried in St. George's cathedral.

Additional Pony Prizes.
Miss Irene Eves, of this city, was the winner of first prizes offered for the best unregistered pony in harness, driven by the owner, and for the best unregistered pony under saddle.

To Preach in St. George's.
The Ven. Archdeacon Heathcote, Vancouver, B.C., deputy prolocutor of the General Synod of Canada, will be the special speaker at the morning service in St. George's Cathedral on Sunday.

Returns From General Synod.
The Very Rev. Dean Starr returned from the General Synod on Friday. The Ven. Archdeacon Heathcote, of Vancouver, B.C., deputy prolocutor of the General Synod of Canada, is his guest.

To Act At Shannonville.
R. B. Orser of Gannock, one of the departmental judges, who has been in the stand here all week, will not officiate on Saturday as he is leaving to act as judge of horses and official starter at Shannonville.

Egg Laying Contest.
The following is the result of the egg laying contest at Kingston fair up until Friday evening: Mrs. Gardner, 14; H. L. Kiell, 13; G. F. Holland, 7; J. White, 11; C. L. Hicks, 6; C. L. Hicks, 11.

Resignation of Minister.
In a circular issued to members, Rev. Dr. A. H. Scott, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Perth, since 1888, has signified his intention of placing his resignation in the hands of the congregation, at the New Year annual meeting.

Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Frego, Brockville, announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Marie, to Jason George Pridmore, Detroit, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pridmore, Brockville. The marriage will take place the end of the month.

Kiddies Enjoy Fair.
Judging by the number of children at the Fair Grounds Friday afternoon, nearly every youngster in the city took advantage of the holiday given them and visited the exhibition. They had the time of their young lives collecting free samples and souvenirs.

Talk on Kingston Hospital.
A public meeting of the Hospital Aid will be held in the Historical Hall, Napanee, Sept. 25th. Mr. Armstrong, superintendent of the hospital, and Miss Ballie, superintendent of nurses of the Kingston General hospital, will give a talk on the needs and work of the hospital.

Wish to Be Kiwanians.
The following have made application for membership in the Kingston Kiwanis Club: R. Arthey, optician; F. W. Grinham, stationer; N. R. Grimm, confectioner; J. L. Jerome, music dealer; A. G. Mordy, banker, and Col. D. S. Tamblin, veterinary surgeon.

Man Kicked By Cow.
John Burnham, a well-known farmer near Clayton, N.Y., was painfully injured when kicked from a milk stool by a cow while milking recently. The cow became frightened at the family dog and Mr. Burnham was thrown into the gutter on a cement floor, fracturing his collar bone.

Champion Fisherman.
At Galbraith's Grove, Varty Lake, Rev. E. Farnsworth was as usual the "camp fisherman," having caught forty-eight pike this season, although the honors for capturing the big fish, go to Rev. R. H. Bunt, B. A. This one weighed five and one-half pounds, and measured thirty-one inches.

Race Horse Ill.
After the horse races at the Fair Grounds Thursday afternoon, it was discovered that George Lennox's horse, Eelo, was suffering through sickness, but despite this handicap, it ran a very good race, taking fourth place. The condition of the horse is improved and it will race again Monday.

H. J. Knight Recovers.
H. J. Knight, the well-known undertaker at Sydenham, who has been in the Kingston General Hospital since August 26th, expects to leave the hospital for his home on Monday. He underwent a serious operation but it was entirely successful and he has completely recovered.

Police Court Brevities.
A young girl made her first appearance in the police court on Saturday morning, when she was arraigned before Magistrate Farrell, on a charge of stealing a gold watch. She pleaded guilty, but as it was her first offence, the magistrate allowed her to go on suspended sentence. A drunk was fined $10 and costs.

Wolfe Island Fair Postponed.
On account of Kingston Fair being extended two days, Wolfe Island Fair will be held Wednesday, Sept. 23rd, instead of Tuesday, Sept. 22nd. Games of ball and trials of speed. Boat leaves foot of Brock street, 9 and 11.30 a.m., 1.45 and 3 p.m.; returning at 5.15 and 6.30. There will be a dance held in C.M.B.A. Hall Fair night.

The Special Acts.
The special acts were again given in front of the grand stand on Friday. The clown, with his funny acts, provoked laughter from the children, who were in their delight watching the antics of him. The Riding Establishment of the Royal Military College repeated their act and the crowds marveled at the splendid horsemanship shown by the riders.

A Delightful Sail.
Come and enjoy a delightful sail to Cape Vincent, N.Y., Saturday and Sunday, leaving Kingston 7 a.m. and 1.15 p.m.. Passengers taking 7 a.m. boat and returning on evening boat will have an opportunity to spend three hours in Watertown. The Sunday 1.15 p.m. boat makes a trip through the Islands, and to Cape Vincent. Fare round trip to Cape Vincent, returning same day, 75c. 'Phone 2195.

Kennedy-Brennan Wedding.
A wedding of interest to Kingston people took place recently of Miss Rita Margaret Brennan, of Ottawa, to Dr. O. E. Kennedy, M.R.C.S., of Biggar, Sask., at St. Paul's church. Rev. James McCaffrey, O.M.I., of related, Mr. Martin Kennedy, of Castor, Alta., brother of the groom, was present. Dr. Kennedy is a former Queen's University rugby player and has a distinguished war record. Dr. and Mrs. Kennedy will reside at Biggar, Sask.

Passed Away at Detroit.
The death occurred in Detroit, Mich., recently of David L. Moorehouse, a former resident of Brockville. He was forty-one years of age. He left sixteen years ago, and on taking up residence in Detroit went into the real estate business. His wife, who died seven years ago, was, before her marriage, Miss Alice Rowsome, Brockville. He is survived by two children, Miss Gladys Moorehouse and David Moorehouse, both of Detroit. The late Mr. Moorehouse took a prominent part in Masonic circles.

To Help in the Work.
Mr. R. Douglas, Cochrane, Ont., has joined the staff of the Smith's Falls United church. He is studying for the ministry. His principal duties will be among the young people as director of religious education. He will assist the pastor in all branches of the church's work as well. The congregation of the United Church is an extra large one necessitating an assistant, and is made up of the former Methodist congregation and the Unionist minority of the Continuing Presbyterian Church there. There are 600 families on the membership roll.

To Admit the Pupils.
Smith's Falls Board of Education agreed that the town pupils numbering about fourteen, who applied for admission to the Collegiate Institute, after the four hundred and twenty-five limit of students had been enrolled, will be admitted. Principal G. E. Evans has been instructed to make what provision he can for the Smith's Falls pupils now on the waiting list. In order to prevent congestion in the school, the Board, some weeks ago, ruled that only four hundred and twenty-five students would be accepted for tuition this term.

Added Rider to Verdict.
The coroner's jury investigating the death of George Turland, Brockville, aged eighteen, an assistant electrician at the Eugene Phillips Electrical Works, returned a verdict of accidental death from electrocution, to which was added a rider recommending that no new worker should be permitted near heavily-charged wires unless accompanied by an experienced man. Evidence showed that Turland apparently fell from the ladder upon which he was working and came into contact with a charge of 44,000 volts, being instantly killed.
