KINGSTON DISTRICT BOYS QUALIFIED

In the Semi-Final of the Ontario Athletic Meet in Toronto.

Toronto, Sept. 30.—In fine but cool weather, 360 boys, the pick of Ontario's schools, from public to collegiate, took part today in the Ontario boys' track and field meet, sponsored by the Ontario Athletic Commission. Forty-five boys from Thunder Bay District, forty-six from Ottawa Valley, thirty from Western Ontario, forty-one from Owen Sound District, thirty-six from North Bay territory, thirty-six from Central Ontario, fifty-six from Hamilton and Toronto district and forty-three from Kingston district contested the sixty-five events. During the morning contestants were reduced to four in each of the field events and jumps, while in the sprints and hurdles two qualified in each heat. Hon. G. H. Ferguson, Hon. Dr. Forbes Godfrey and T. A. Murphy, chairman of the Ontario Athletic Commission, were honorary referees, with Dr. Merchant and Dr. Colquhoun. The chief inspectors were Harry Price and Harvey Putford of the Ontario Athletic Commission, and T. A. McGinnis, of Kingston, also a member of the O.A.C.

Among those who qualified on their performance this morning were G. Weeks of Kingston district in the running high jump; R. Johnston, Kingston district, in the running broad jump, and T. Cook, Kingston district, in the running broad jump.

EIGHTY-TWO YEARS YOUNG.

Mr. J. E. Clark Is Very Active Considering His Years. Wellington, Sept. 29.—The Picton fair was a success financially, although the crowds were not as great as that of last year but the exhibits were well up in the different classes. Mr. and Mrs. C. Burk, Adria, also Mr. and Mrs. C. Monteith of Smith's Falls were callers on friends Sunday. Harry Waller, who was visiting friends and relatives here, returned to his home in Toronto last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Collins, former residents of Wellington, moved to Toronto, Miss Hart, Carrying Place, were recent visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Ptope's. Percy Archer is agent of the C.N.R. at Bancroft. Miss E. A. Hunter, general secretary of the Kingston General Hospital, with her brother, W. J. Hunter, Newmark, N.J., spent a day last week with their aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stevenson.

The Reilly Bros., Toronto, are visiting in Wellington. Mr. Thompson, who purchased the former residence of W. W. Fitzgerald, Concession street, is making decided improvements on the premises. Mrs. Kathleen (nee Annie Burley) has returned to her home in the northwest. J. E. Clark, who has nearly reached his eighty-second year, is still hale and hearty and few, who are much younger, are as active and as young looking. Mr. Clark was always a great lover of horses and dogs, and owned some very fine animals, which among them was a horse, that he educated that could not be excelled; his trained dog, nearly everywhere knew and heard about.

The rush of tomatoes aid corn to the different factories continues. The warm spell will be the means of preparing the tomatoes and a big yield is looked for. Over 1,000 attended the baby show and band concert at the Regent Theatre Tuesday night.

Dr. W. K. Burr, former resident of Prince Edward, who makes his home with his daughter at Lock Port, Illinois, was the guest of J. E. Clarke on Saturday. The doctor spent his vacation in his native county and takes great interest in the numerous community. Dr. Burr has travelled nearly around the world, has preached in many states in the Union, has travelled all through Europe and lectured in many cities in different countries. Dr. Burr is a native of Prince Edward county, born just eight miles north of Wellington, and was educated at the old Quaker schools, near Picton. He is also a great poet.
