REPAID THIS MAN A DOZEN TIMES

"I have been repaid a dozen times over in improved health for every dollar I spent for Tanlac, and the medicine is still building me up every day." is the striking statement of Joseph DeSarna.

"Tanlac has driven pains from my body that had troubled me for ten years. Besides backache, which almost killed me as times, I had rheumatic pain and swelling in my hands and legs, my circulation was poor, feet always cold, nerves undown, my stomach didn't feel right, I had regular headaches and I was a discouraged man. "I have never seen the equal of Tanlac in my life. It has more than doubled my appetite, my stomach feels great and my general health is so improved that I can not praise Tanlac enough for what it has done and is still doing for me."

"What Tanlac has done for others, it can do for you."

Take Tanlac Vegetable Pills for constipation; made and recommended by the manufacturers of Tanlac.

POLITICIANS GETTING BUSY AT WELLINGTON

The Parties Are Holding Meetings—Lecture on "Robert Burns."

Wellington, Oct. 3.—Local politicians are beginning to get busy. The Liberal Conservative Association held an organization meeting in the town hall on Friday, Sept. 25th. Evert Hubbs was chairman, and Mrs. J. H. Davidson, secretary. John Hubbs, the candidate, Mrs. Fallis, provincial organizer of the Ladies' Association, and Horace Collier spoke. The ladies' and men's organizations are merged under one list of officers.

A political mass meeting in the interests of Mr. Sexsmith was announced for Wellington, on Friday evening. At the United Church Sunday school there was a good programme for Rally Day, last Sunday. On Monday evening, Rev. W. J. H. Smyth delivered an interesting lecture on "Robert Burns," under the auspices of the Young People's League. Miss Anne Bronson was in the chair, Mrs. Vera Teal read part of "The Cotter's Saturday Night," and L. C. Murphy read two of Burns' poems. Solos were given by Miss Hilda Tait, Miss Helen Way, and Mr. Garnet Taylor. Jack Lansbury, who spent part of his vacation at home with his parents, returned to Queen's University on Monday. Mrs. Chase is nursing her sister-in-law at Consequon. Mrs. Lavina Dorland returned from a visit to her son, Prof. A. G. Dorland, London, Ont.

Harry Jolley, inspector of cemeteries in the county, is doing his utmost to get every neglected cemetery put into shape. A great transformation has taken place in Wellington cemetery, and improvement work is now going on at Chadsey cemetery. On Monday evening Mr. Jolley was at a meeting at Bloomfield when steps were taken to put the Friends' burial ground there in shape.

There was born to Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Cronk, a daughter, on Sept. 23rd. William Donovan spent a couple of weeks visiting his sister, Mrs. Kirk, at Gananoque, and returned home this week. Miss Helen Way, Bethel, spent the week-end with Miss Winifred Pearce. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson and family, from Wooler, visited Walter Nelson on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. David Gowdy, Colebrook, Mr. and Mrs. George Timmerman and their son, Percy, Moscow, visited James Wild on Sunday.

FORRESTER-MURRAY.

Nuptials Took Place at Brewer's Mills on September 29th.

On Tuesday morning, Sept. 29th, at 9 o'clock, a pretty wedding was solemnized at Barnaby's church, Brewer's Mills, when Anna Gertrude, daughter of Mr. M. L. Forrester, and the late Mrs. Forrester, Seeley's Bay, was united in marriage to William H. Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Murray, Brewer's Mills. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She looked charming in a navy pique (with tailored costume, a small sand hat with gold plume and a pink choker. She wore the groom's gift, a pearl necklace, and a corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses and maiden hair fern. Her sister, Miss Theresa Forrester, was bridesmaid and wore a black velvet suit with gold trimmings, and a black velvet hat. Mr. Mathew Murray, brother of the groom, was best man. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a rhinestone bracelet and to the best man a silver pencil.

Immediately after the ceremony they returned to the bride's home where a dainty wedding breakfast awaited them. The table was centred with the wedding cake, and white with mauve and white asters in tall vases decorating the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray left on their honeymoon trip which will include brief visits to Toronto, Niagara Falls, Buffalo and Detroit. They were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

In this rich age nothing seems to be vulgar ostentation except coming in on a fat.

With one man it is a grudge; with two a grievance; with three or more a cause.

An umbrella mender died recently leaving an estate of $125,000.

NAPANEE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETS

To Prepare for Poultry Fair—Presentation of Cup and Medals.

Napanee, Oct. 5.—There was a large attendance of members at the first fall meeting of the Napanee Chamber of Commerce at 6.30 p.m. Saturday in the Paisley House. At that hour dinner was served and excellent music furnished by the Charles Walters orchestra.

Amongst the good resolutions of the Chamber were: That in the near future Napanee merchants would observe twin dollar days; that at Christmas time, the streets would be gaily decorated and illuminated; and that as there was an abundance of poultry in the surrounding country arrangements would be made for poultry days towards the end of November.

An interesting episode in the evening's proceedings was the presentation of cup and medals by Dr. C. M. Stratton, the donor, to F. Merritt, Leslie Merritt and Lewis Lloyd, winners for their township, in the competition of stock judging at the Lennox Fair this fall. Mr. J. Laughland presented individual medals to Percy Merritt, who took first place at the fair as a judge of dairy cattle; to Leslie Merritt, an expert judge of horses; and to Lewis Lloyd for being best in the judging of swine. Dan Shaughnessy was first in the judging of beef cattle and had the highest individual mark of any boy in the contest. Harold Lloyd was best judge of sheep.

Mr. J. W. Robinson then introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. A. F. Hansuld, a member of the Ross-Miller Biscuit Company, Napanee.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Jessie Lane Dies.
Mrs. Jessie Lane, aged thirty-seven, wife of Claude Lane, Brownville, N.Y., died at Watertown, N.Y., on Wednesday morning, after having been a patient at the hospital since Monday night. Mrs. Lane was born on Wolfe Island, Aug. 2nd, 1888, daughter of the late Malcolm and Jettie Conley McDonald, and moved to New York state when she was twelve years of age. She married Claude Lane, of Brownville, about 15 years ago. Mrs. Lane is survived by her husband, five sons, Gerald, Donald, George, Robert and Jack and one daughter, Betty, all of Brownville, one sister, Mrs. Kate Tucker, of Iilon. She is also survived by her stepmother, Mrs. Thomas Dees, Wolfe Island; five half brothers, among them Arthur Gordon and Howard McDonald, Wolfe Island; and four half sisters, among them Misses Jane and Eulalia McDonald, Wolfe Island.

TWINS AT CATARAQUI.

Two Homes Have a Boy and Girl Each.

Cataraqui, Oct. 3.—On these dull afternoon the electric lights in the school house, are called into service. F. A. Smith, B.A., conducted the services in Christ Church, last Sunday, in the absence of his father. Cataraqui's population is increasing. Mr. and Mrs. H. Nokes, and Mr. and Mrs. T. Burtch, have each been presented with a pair of twins, a boy and girl in each case, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Purdy, Jr., have a young son.

THE OFFICERS CHOSEN.

For the Prince Edward County Teachers' Institute.
Picton, Oct. 5.—Interesting sessions were held by the Prince Edward County Teachers' Institute when the organization held its annual convention Thursday and Friday. The principal speakers were Dr. Karr, director of rural school education, and Mrs. Becker of the Home and School Club. Because of the death of his brother, D. Walker, principal of Peterboro Normal School, was unable to be present to address the teachers on the subject of "Arithmetic." Considerable time was spent in inspecting the model school class-rooms.

The officers for the ensuing year are: Hon. Presidents, Mr. J. A. Cooke, M.A.; Mr. James Grimmon and Inspector Mr. F. P. Smith, M.A.; President, Mr. C. Cannon; vice-president, Mr. Ronald Burr; secretary, Miss Mary Dunkley; treasurer, Mr. Alexander Izard; executive committee, Miss Dorothy Burley, Miss Bernice-McCrimmon, Mrs. M. Goodwin.

The way to be a good host is not to annoy your guest with two much attention.

DESERONTO

Deseronto, Oct. 2.—Mr. Oscar Fitchell, down-town grocer, who has been suffering from quinsy, is slowly improving.

Miss Alice Cole is spending her holidays in Hamilton, and was one of the guests at the wedding of her cousin, Miss Florence Hudson.

Mrs. Nancy Harvey, of Dundas street, who was ailing for some time, passed away on Wednesday.

Frank Cronk, of Northport, was a business caller in town on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McCreadie and Miss Mary, of Ottawa, are visiting Mrs. Rowsome this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gordon spent Wednesday in Kingston.

Mrs. McKuen is the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. Harband, for a few days.

Miss Annie Young, of Napanee, is spending a week with Mrs. M. A. Dryden.

Miss Myrtle Uens is visiting friends in Picton for a few weeks.

Stanley Blake has secured a position in Toronto.

Under the Shadow

OVER YOUR HOME IT HANGS... the mortgage which made your ownership possible. It is your hope to see it fade gradually away until the home is yours... free of encumbrance.

But if your presence should be removed... what then?

Will the threatening cloud descend to engulf the home and plunge your loved ones into need and privation?

Banish that cloud forever... remove the ever-present fear from your mind. Cover the amount of your mortgage with Life Insurance Protection, as many other wise men have done.

Then, whether you be here or not, the home is safe... your loved ones are secure. It is easy thus to insure the continuation of the home you have established.

Ask any representative of Life Insurance Service for full details of the plan.
