PROTEST IS MADE OVER ACTION OF SOME BASEBALL FANS ON SATURDAY

Spread Themselves Across Field to Break Up Soccer Game—Soccer People Claim Priority to Use of Grounds Saturday—Local Baseball Officials and Players of C.O.B.L. Team Are Blamed as Ringleaders.

The Sporting Editor,
Daily British Whig.

Sir,—As the referee of the soccer football match played at the Cricket Field on Saturday afternoon between the R.C.A. and Kingston City teams, I am compelled to protest most emphatically against the actions of a number of persons who believe themselves to be baseball fans, and who deliberately encroached on the football field during the game, their actions being absolutely contrary to true sportsmanship, and being very severely criticized by many persons who witnessed the occurrence.

The facts of the case are that in accordance with the published schedule of the Kingston and District Association Football League, Kingston City and R.C.A. were due to play at the Cricket Field on Saturday at 3 p.m. The goal-posts were placed in position during the forenoon, and there was apparently nothing to interfere with this important league game. On the same afternoon the Deloro and Ottawa baseball teams were advertised to play at the Fair Grounds, but owing to the condition of the diamond, suddenly decided to play at the Cricket Field, and the so-called sports complained of imagined that the local soccer players would immediately give up every right they might have to play and "get out of the park" for the benefit of those wholly uninvited outside baseball teams.

The main arguments used by these befuddled children in trying to get the football game cancelled was the fact that the two baseball teams had travelled a long distance in order to play in Kingston, and that a fairly large crowd was on hand to see the game.

In answer to the first argument it may be stated that the mere fact that these teams admittedly were from outside points should give the local football league teams the first right to the Cricket Field, more especially as the City authorities gave baseball teams permission to use the Fair Grounds, no mention being made of them being allowed the free run of any recreation ground in the city; while so far as the second argument is concerned surely any person who plays for his own recreation and benefit has as much right to the use of playing grounds as another who plays for the benefit of an attendant crowd of onlookers.

The football players published the fact that this match was to be played on the Cricket Field several days ago in both the local papers. Every member of both teams was a resident of this city, together with the officials. The soccer season is short, and any interference with the schedule would certainly result in it not being completed before winter sets in. The goal-posts were in position on Saturday long before the baseball diamond was marked out, all these facts being stated as excellent reasons why the football game most certainly had priority, so far as the grounds were concerned, over any outside baseball teams.

Further, the action of these would-be sports only made matters worse from every point of view. On Saturday, September 26th, a soccer match and baseball match were played concurrently on the same grounds, the greatest harmony prevailing under arrangements made between the umpire of the baseball game and the football referee, there being little if any interference between the two games. The same conditions would have prevailed on Saturday except for the action of a minority of the baseball fans who thought that no person had any right to the grounds but themselves, and stood in line across the football field for the greater part of the game interfering with the outfielders taking part in the baseball match and the footballers alike.

The ringleaders in this most un-sportsmanlike action were a few officials and players of the local C.O.B.L. team, well-known men in local baseball circles who might possibly have previously been given credit for possessing some spirit of sportsmanship but who evidently can see no further than baseball, and believe that all other lines of sport should not be permitted. Their action was condemned by the majority of baseball fans who witnessed the occurrence, and may well be classed as a blot on the fair name of Kingston as a sporting centre.

Yours very truly,
—EYON WARBURTON,
Vice-Pres. K. and D.A.F.L.
Kingston, Oct. 5th, 1925.

tawa took it in the second by pushing over a run but Deloro jumped into the lead when they crashed in two in the fourth. Ottawa added one in the fifth and Deloro made it 3-2 in the sixth with Ottawa tying it in the seventh.

It was a scrappy game all the way and Chouinard, Ottawa catcher was banned from the game along about the fourth inning as a result of back talk to the umpire. There was snappy fielding at times by both clubs but the condition of the field made the base-running pretty weak.

NOT LIKELY TO MOVE THE CARDINALS TO KANSAS CITY.

New York, Oct. 3.—The suggestion by Ban Johnson, president of the American League, that the St. Louis Cardinals ultimately might be moved to Kansas City because the club is "slowly starving to death," drew from John A. Heydler, president of the National League, a statement that this was "illogical."

Mr. Heydler's statement, which did not specifically mention Mr. Johnson's assertion, follows: "St. Louis has been represented in the National League for the past 33 consecutive years, and during the last 24 years has supported two major league clubs. The Cardinals' present season has been one of the best in the history of that club. With the promise of building up a championship contender under the popular leadership of Hornsby and with the recent growth of St. Louis there has never been a time in all these years when a rumor of the club's removal would be more illogical."

BIG FOUR GAMES PLAYED SATURDAY

Hamilton Tigers Surprised and Beat Argos and Ottawa Trimmed Montreal.

The battling Hamilton Tigers threw a sensation on Saturday in football circles by defeating Mike Rodden's Argonauts at Hamilton by the score of 14-11. It was expected that the Argos, with their experience and star caste would be able to hand the Marriot clan an unmerciful lacing but the engals stood up well and Breen, Hughes and the rest with all their stardom could not turn the Tigers back. The win was a big surprise in rugby circles for with Mike Rodden at their head and with the grilling they have had, Argos were expected in most places, to go through without much trouble.

At the end of the first quarter Tigers were in the lead by 11-0. Argos grabbed three points in the second period while Tigers were held scoreless. Argos set a pace in the third quarter and secured eight points while Tigers got two in the third quarter and one in the last, the Argonauts being held scoreless in the last quarter. The teams:

Tigers—Flying wing, Small; halves, Quinn, Gibb, Walker; quarter, McKelvey; snap, Hannon; insides, Baker, Tilley; middles, Elford, McBride; outsides, Soanes, Veale; subs., Raynor, Hunter, Tanguay, Morris, Partridge, Rankin, Willard, Denman.

Argos—Flying wing, Barrett; halves, Breen, Hughes, Reeves; quarter, Boadway; snap, Smith; insides, Bradley, Wilson; middles, Miles, Douglas; outsides, Thom, Fear; subs., Wright, Thomas, Hyslop, Claxton, Paul, Canboy, Burns, Shaw, Miller, Smythe, Burt, Munro, Hamby, White.

Referee, Silver Quilty; Ottawa; umpire, Tim Murray, Montreal.

Ottawa's Big Win.

Over 4,000 rugby fans greeted the Senators and the Winged Wheelers when they appeared on the field on Saturday afternoon in their opening Big Four tilt, the Senators starting off the season well by running over a 17-1 victory over Coach Nicholson's squad which was greatly weakened by the absence of "Chicks" Mundell, around whom the Montreal plays centred and who came to Queen's last week. Ottawa's heavy line had a telling effect and gained valuable ground repeatedly. The teams:

Ottawa—Flying wing, Emmerson; halves, Tubman, Miller, Connell; quarter, James; snap, Bruce; insides, Ketchum, Cote; middles, Timmis, Kirby; outside wings, Young, W. Anderson.

Montreal—Flying wing, Russell; halves, Booth, McCaig, Bennett; quarter, W. Wright; snap, Hamilton; insides, Starke, Carruthers; middles, Ryan, Foran; outsides, D. Anderson, Consiglio.

Referee, Hal DeGruchy; umpire, Billy Mallett.

Varsity Wins 8-1.

The Varsity 1925 team, without Warren Snyder and one or two other regulars, defeated Varsity Old Boys on Saturday at Toronto putting a 8-1 victory over the "old timers."

The teams:
Collegiate—Flying wing, King; halves, Trimble Munro, Creighton; quarter, Coleman; snap, Masters; insides, Stringer, Long; middles, Bales, Stollery; outsides, Duncan, Irwin; subs., Rykert, MacGibbon.

Old Boys—Flying wing, Ferguson; halves, Holmes, Pearson, Sullivan; quarter, Hobbs; snap, Evans; insides, Westman, Carew; middles, Hyde, Wallace; outsides, Pendergrast, Fisher; subs., Haynes, Chaffe, Catto, Sheehy, Harris, Snyder, Box.

Officials—"Laddie" Cassells, Dr. Wright.

Me and Bill

(By Sporticus.)

Well, here we are again with our first game over, and by the way, it was the twentieth victory in a row for Queen's. Fancy twenty of them—we will soon be twenty-one now—we had better begin fixing up a doings to celebrate our coming-of-age as winners.

Just the same me and Bill look upon the Montreal game merely as a good work-out and will doubtless make some changes before the clash with Varsity. For instance me and Bill are afraid that "Bud" Thomas' flying is much too strenuous for him to be used as flying wing. The way "Bud" flew at my suggestion in Montreal makes us fear for the safety of some of the Varsity and McGill huskies so me and Bill have figured out that we will have to use "Bud" as cheer leader or yard-stick man. Then there is "Bozo" Norrie, and me and Bill feel that we will have to place him in some other position or some of Biddy Barr's padless proteges will get bruised bouncing off "Bozo's" bean protector so we have decided to use Mr. Norrie as assistant water boy or programme seller.

Me and Bill were first pained, then a little peeved and finally highly amused at the ludicrous stories emanating from Montreal about players being brought into Queen's. It is a wonder somebody doesn't suggest that Varsity offered Warren Snyder a 4.4 beer license to play for them, or that "Bones" Little and "Dink" Carroll were each given a free course in show card writing to play for McGill. Still the young Montreal correspondent of the "Toronto Telegram" who starts all these rumors has a wonderful imagination and if he doesn't reach such dizzy heights as collaboration with Conan Doyle or Saklatvala we miss our guess.

Me and Bill have been asked by some dear old football fans what we are doing to provide entertainment during half-time periods up at the Stadium. To tell the truth we have not yet made any definite plans in this direction although several suggestions have been made. However me and Bill would like to point out to people who have made suggestions that there is only a ten-minute interval and most of their schemes would take much longer to work out. For instance one suggestion was that we have the K.F.D. give a demonstration of an alarm and turn out—another is that we stage a debate between Ald. Joe Nash and Mayor McGroves—still another that we arrange a race once around the track between the C.N.R. local and a K.P. & C.E. car. As I have pointed out we have only a ten-minute interval and these schemes are therefore out of the question. It really looks as though me and Bill will still continue the burlesque cricket, baseball, tennis, polo, and other games which have amused the dear old fans in the past.

The dear old football fans will be delighted to know that the good old band has again started practices. Me and Bill are not having them practice any new pieces this year as we feel that all the new selections they offered last season were so well received that the fans will really welcome a repetition of them during this season. We are planning a nifty new uniform for the band and do not intend to be overshadowed in this respect by the McGill musical aggregation. Whilst we have not yet definitely decided on the new uniform me and Bill both favor the following: Wellington boots, zouave trousers—one leg red and one blue, vest of yellow, small loose coat of Queen's colors, brass helmets. With Alfie Pierce as major-domo they should be quite smart.

One dear old fan called up me and Bill to know if we ever run out of chalk in the middle of a chalk talk. It has been known to happen and that time we borrowed "Unc" Murhead's compact and used his powder and puff as a substitute.

That me and Bill are sympathetic souls cannot be denied and just now our sympathies are all for the hard working staff of the Athletic Board. We were in the office this morning and found a terrible rush for tickets for the games in progress. It seems that statistics have been compiled by the above mentioned hard working stag and me and Bill were quite interested in looking these statistics over, we find that approximately five thousand people want to get into the covered stand each year to see the Varsity game, over two thousand want to get into the first row and another two thousand would like to get into the row along the wide aisle. Me and Bill were informed that the whole stand seats less than two thousand so we at once realized the problem that confronts our friends. Always ready with suggestions to help others out, me and Bill put our heads together in this case and we are of the opinion that it would eliminate all this trouble if the roof over the covered stand were carried out and placed over the playing field. It would certainly keep the players dry and the field would not get so muddy. The spectators could use their umbrellas in case of

OTTAWA DEFEATS DELORO BY 6-4

Game Was Played on Sloppy Diamond at Cricket Field Saturday Afternoon.

Staging a ninth inning rally in which they scored three runs to get two runs in the lead, Ottawa St. Anthony's defeated Deloro here by the score of 6-4 on Saturday afternoon in the playoff between these two teams to decide which would go into the intermediate O.B.A.A. finals. The game was played on a wet and muddy field, due to the heavy rain of the day and there is some doubt yet as to which is the better team, many of the local fans believing that the game, played on such a field, was no fair test, although others point out that it was as fair for one as for the other.

However, Ottawa scored more runs and that's what counts. It looked in the last of the eighth as though Deloro had won the game. Up to that time the score had been tied 3-3. Deloro slipped over the run that broke the tie in their half of the eighth inning but Ottawa, instead of being subdued, fought all the harder and, coupled with their good playing, the Deloro team made costly mistakes, with the result that Ottawa were two up when the last half of the ninth inning started. Deloro was held scoreless, the three outs being easy ones and the game was over.

The teams were fairly evenly matched and despite the mighty poor baseball weather, the condition of the field, etc., a fairly large crowd of fans turned out. Deloro, with four Kingston players, were favored to win but Ottawa had a few friends in the crowd also.

It was see-saw for the lead. Ot-
