No Fur shows its quality more plainly than Raccoon. You know at a glance the dark, deep furred skins that make McKay Raccoon Coats beautiful, are quality skins. You never see colorless, thinly furred skins in a McKay Coat.

RACCOON COATS

On the evening of Thursday, Nov. 5th, a banquet will be given in the city hall to the delegates and to the business men of Kingston at which Hon. W. F. Nickle and others will speak. Mayor Angrove and W. H. Craig, the president of the Kingston Board of Trade, will deliver addresses of welcome to the delegates.

Kingston has three resolutions for discussion, on the deep waterway terminal, on motor camps, licensing and regulating them, and tax on merchandise. Other resolutions will be submitted from Hamilton, Ottawa, Peterboro, Kitchener, Galt, Welland, Toronto, Pleton, Niagara Falls, and Fort William, on a great variety of subjects sufficient to keep the convention active for two days.

It is expected that Kingston will provide entertainment and make the visits here one of very great interest and pleasure to the delegates, of whom it is expected there will be in the neighborhood of ninety or one hundred.

RECEPTION AT COOKE'S

For Queen's Freshmen and Freshettes Attending There.

On Thursday evening, Oct. 8th, Cooke's Young People's Society held their annual reception for the freshmen and freshettes of Queen's University, attending the United Church. Mr. Gordon Cummings, president of the society, occupied the chair. Rev. T. J. S. Ferguson extended a hearty welcome to the visitors. Splendid music was rendered by Sid Fox and his Serenaders. A vocal solo was rendered by Mrs. Treneer, a violin solo by Miss Jean Douglas, a saxophone solo by Mr. Warrington. Everyone greatly enjoyed the "Agony Trio" put on by Mr. Sid Fox, Mr. Smith and Mr. Warrington. Refreshments were served, after which the reception came to a close by the singing of some community songs. About one hundred and fifty were present.

Will Give Much Employment. The new work which is to be done on the Kingston General Hospital will create considerable employment among the building trade. The firm of McKelvey & Birch, who have the contract, estimate that practically all the trades will be employed and that a big staff of men will be required. Work will probably be started on Monday morning.

Took Part in Discussion. Mrs. C. C. Nash and Mrs. William Campbell, of Kingston, took part in a discussion, at the W.C.T.U. convention in Pembroke, on the O.T.A. and its amendments.

OBITUARY

Late William Cairns, Cataract. The death of William Cairns, aged sixty-eight years, a resident of Cataract, occurred in the General Hospital on Wednesday. The deceased had been ailing for about five months and had been a patient at the hospital for some time. At the present time, his widow is with her daughter, Beatrice, Port Credit, who is not expected to live.

The deceased leaves, besides his widow, three daughters, Mrs. A. Baker, Cataract; Mrs. A. Strangewald, Port Credit; and Beatrice, also of Port Credit, and one son, Thomas Edwin, of Fonthill. Two sons met their death in action overseas and another was killed in an accident at Hamilton.

The funeral took place Friday afternoon from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. A. Baker, to Cataract cemetery.

Collegiate Enrollment. The attendance at the Collegiate Institute for the month of September, as given by Principal E. O. Sitter, at a meeting of the Board of Education held on Thursday night is as follows:

Enrollment, 763; an increase of 8; average daily attendance, 701; decrease of 4. The smaller average means that this year the students were slower in returning to school than they were a year ago.

Public School Attendance. At the meeting of the Board of Education held on Thursday night, Inspector J. Russell Stuart submitted the following report on the attendance in the public schools during the month of September: Total enrollment, 2,720; average daily attendance, 2,497. This is an increase of 44 in enrollment and 57 in average daily attendance, over the same month last year.

Kingston Ladies Spoke. At the conference of the Women's Auxiliary of Leeds deanery, in Brockville, Mrs. C. C. Abbott, Kingston, gave an address on the Forward Movement of the Women's Auxiliaries, and Miss Van Straubensee, Kingston, gave a report on the annual meeting of the auxiliary held recently at Vancouver, B.C.

Well Known Here. Mr. John Askwith, former police magistrate at Ottawa, who passed away in Ottawa on Wednesday, was well known to many Kingstonsians and the news of his death was received here with sincere regret. Mr. Askwith was a visitor in the city during the early part of the summer.

"Kingston the Good." For the third time this week there was no session of the police court on Friday morning. There were no cases of a serious nature before the court all week, so the city can claim the title "Kingston the Good."

Ready for Council. A call will be sent out to the various civic committees for a meeting next week, so as to have all matters presented to the first regular meeting of the city council following the summer vacation, to be held on the evening of Monday, Oct. 19th.

Lectured On India. Miss Lockhart, returned missionary from India, gave a very interesting address on the condition in that country, at the First Baptist Church Thursday evening. A large crowd enjoyed the lecture.

LETTERS To The Editor

Humane Society's Appeal. Kingston, Oct. 9.—(To the Editor): May I presume upon your kindness, to give space in your valuable columns to the following.

On Sept. 12th the Kingston Humane Society held its annual tag day. It may be remembered that it proved to be a day of unrelenting storm and rain. Nevertheless, the taggers "carried on" bravely, in the teeth of difficulty and discomfort, to say nothing of rebuffs received not infrequently at the hands of those who did not "want to be bothered" on a wet day.

The amount realized (approximately $275) fell so far short of our hopes, and of the sum taken in former years, that an appeal was made to the city council for a second tag day.

The Society greatly appreciates the courtesy and consideration of our mayor and aldermen in acceding to this request. Saturday, then (tomorrow, Oct. 10th) is the day appointed.

With the Armistice of seven years ago fresh in memory, the Kingston Humane Society is calling this "Our Armistice Tag Day," bearing in mind the thousands of gallant horses and dogs, brave little carrier pigeons, who, having "done their bit" to win the war, went to their deaths "unwept, unhonored and unsung," besides the myriads of cattle, sheep and small domestic creatures, the dumb and helpless victims of starvation and fire.

It is our firm belief that were the Kingston public fully aware of the innumerable calls made on the Humane Society, not only within the city limits, but ten, twenty, thirty (and more) miles out, and the amount of work accomplished under financial stress and difficulties of locomotion, there are few hands that would not reach to their pockets tomorrow in aid of those who suffer in affliction, and in recognition of the unselfish effort of those ladies who stand for hours upon the street corners with their modest appeal.

Yours faithfully, J. R. C. DOBBS, President Kingston Humane Society, 1830, 176.

Y.M.C.A. NOTES

At a meeting of the physical committee of the Y.M.C.A. it was decided to have three shields, two for the juniors and one for the seniors, for competition in the road races to be held on Thanksgiving Day. There will be two and three mile road races for the juniors and a five-mile one for the seniors. The winners will be given medals, besides the special prizes.

The Y's Men's Club held a meeting Thursday evening to discuss the preparations for the Missionary Loan Exhibition. The distribution of tickets was arranged for.

A Wolf Shot Out North. Mr. Ambrose Boles shot a fine wolf, on Thursday morning, about one mile from Clarendon village measuring six feet six inches from top of head to tip of tail. Mr. Robert Boles lost five lambs about a week ago by wolves; so there are still more in this vicinity.

Weather Notes. The centre of the western high pressure is now over the north-western states and a depression is developing over the middle Atlantic states. The weather is moderating in the west. Rain is falling in southern Ontario, and snow in the north, while in the maritime provinces the weather is fair.

Sent To Jail. Leslie Truesdale, who is serving a term in the county jail, was tried before Judge Lavell Friday morning for an offence against a little girl. He was convicted, and sentenced to three months' imprisonment to date from August 7th, with a further term of eighteen months indeterminate.

A Very Busy Place. The property of the Paper Board Co., Campbellford, is a busy place these days as the building of the new power plant is calling a number of men to work. The yards are being decorated with tents for the accommodation for dining and sleeping purposes.
