Queen's Track Meet

Mr. J. Alex. Edmison, who has charge of the track and field events on Monday at the George Richardson Stadium, announced to-day that arrangements were completed for the big meet on Monday and he promises that those who attend the events will be more than repaid.
There are twenty-two events carded for the day including the girls' relay race between Hamilton, Queen's and K. C. I., while about twenty girls have entered for the seventy-five yard run. The interest shown in the track work is high and it is expected that competition in Monday's programme will be of the keenest.
The officers of the Queen's University Track and Field Club, under whose auspices the meet is being held, are as follows: Harold Haslam, president; Bobbie Thompson, captain; Alex. Edmison, manager; George Allen, coach; Professor J. F. Macdonald, Hon. president and referee.

FANS SHOULD WATCH WHERE SECTIONS ARE

Delay and Confusion Can Be Avoided—Athletic Board Office Open To-night.

So that there will be no confusion or delay in getting the crowd into the game properly to-morrow afternoon, ticket-holders are warned to take a good look at their tickets and see what sections they are in and then follow out the following instructions:
Those holding tickets for sections A, B, C, D or E, enter the grounds by the grandstand entrances. There are two doors on this side and ticket-holders are requested to make sure that they enter the proper door.
Those holding tickets for sections F and G, and standing room enter by the first gate below Union street on lower Alfred street.
Tickets for section K and standing room will be taken at the lower gate on Alfred street.

OPEN TILL 11 P.M.

Owing to the fact that the seat sale has taken a decided jump, with the promise of fine weather for tomorrow, the Athletic Board office will be open to-night until 11 o'clock for the convenience of those who not yet secured their seats. The bischer tickets are expected to be about cleaned out by closing time to-night.

SENTENCES REDUCED.

On Simcoe Island Fishermen, Nov in Penitentiary.
Toronto, Oct. 9.—"That is a reflection on the work of the parole board," said Chief Justice Mulock in the first appellate division to-day on reading the report from Magistrate Levi Williams, Picton, in connection with the appeal against the severity of the sentence on Wallace Sudds, Walter Scott, Victor Sudds and Overton Scott, of Simcoe Island. Magistrate Williams had sentenced all four to three years in penitentiary for theft and receiving of fishing nets and gillnets. In his report asked for by the appeal court, the Magistrate said that these men were illiterate, of low mentality, a menace to society, had low animal cunning and total disregard of law. A stiff sentence was necessary as a protection to society and besides on account of the practice of the parole board in allowing prisoners to go on parole after a short period of commitment, he thought they should be given three years.

When court resumed this afternoon judgment was announced that the sentence of Walter Scott had been reduced to eighteen months and that imposed on Wallace Sudds to one year. The sentences of Victor Sudds and Overton Scott were reduced to six months, they having been charged with receiving only.
IT COMES HARD.
This is the way a poet in one of the college papers expresses the woes of the modern student:
Can't study in the fall,
Gotta play baseball.
Can't study in the winter,
Gotta play basketball.
Can't study in the spring,
Gotta play baseball.
Can't study in the summer,
Gotta girl.
