News From District Places

NEWBURGH BRIEFS.

Newburgh, Oct. 14.—Messrs. James McGill, Coleman Wartman, and Thomas Mills shipped five carloads of steers last week. They were joined by forty carloads from Toronto, enroute to the British Isles.

Mr. Willard Embury and his father took a trip to the gold mines at Flinton recently.

Mr. Samuel Yeomans is having his house and outbuildings painted. Our old "broadcaster," Archie McNeely, has returned home with some lengthy yarns of the west. Our reeve has some med of work underbrushing of the north hill. It would be a good idea to underbrush some of the stoned out of the road, too.

Our cheese factory is running every day yet, although the milk took a large drop through the short spell of winter we had. Miss Queenie Paul accompanied Rev. D. Wartman and family to their home at Gravenhurst. Mr. and Mrs. Okel Yeomans and family are visiting at the home of Mr. Samuel Yeomans.

The cadets are drilling again under the management of Sergt. McGill of Centreville. Mr. T. I. Winter is on the sick list. He is under the care of Dr. Mounce and Dr. D. Connell, of Kingston. We hope for a speedy recovery.

Scientists claim that the top of Mt. McKinley, highest peak in America, is sinking about two feet a year. Patrol boat crew was rescued during a 75-mile gale off the Atlantic coast.

Fifteen criminal cases are to be tried at the Essex County Assizes.

DESERONTO

Deseronto, Oct. 14.—Miss Barbara Franklin Jones has returned from Paris, France, where she has been attending school. Her father went over to accompany his daughter home.

Miss Mary Metcalfe, who is going to Haverall College, Toronto, spent the week-end at her home here.

Rev. R. S. Radcliffe, who spent the week-end with his brother, C. E. S. Radcliffe, conducted the services in St. Mark's church, both morning and evening. In the evening, Mrs. M. J. Dale, delighted the congregation with a beautiful solo.

Mrs. Charlotte Berry while calling on her friend, Mrs. Carscallon on Friday evening, became seriously ill.

Mrs. Ernest Vanalesne spent the week-end in Ottawa, where her husband is stationed.

Miss Margaret Brennan of Bogart is spending two weeks with her grandmother, Mrs. Arthur Dorey.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Maher motored from Point Anne on Saturday evening and, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Maher and Miss Mary of town, spent Sunday with friends in the country.

Mrs. Lillian Woodcock spent Sunday with friends in Belleville.

Miss Ruth Hermlston, of Cornwall, who was on the high school staff last year, is spending a few days with friends in town.

You may need confidence in yourself, but not over-confidence.

DEDICATION SERVICE HELD IN LANSDOWNE

At St. John's Church—Postmaster Bradley Able to Resume His Duties.

Lansdowne, Oct. 14.—At the evening service in St. John's church, the warden, Mr. Erastus E. Johnston and Mr. Fred Mitchell, presented for dedication the altar cross presented by Mrs. William Munro, Rosthern, Sask., in memory of her father, the late F. F. Deane. This was dedicated by the rector, Rev. Cecil Winter "To the Glory of God and in loving memory of George Francis Deane, died 1924." There was also dedicated a handsome copy of the holy communion service, presented by Mr. George Phillips, Ottawa, in memory of his wife, Harriet Phillips. The rector thanked the donors for these gifts. There was a splendid congregation and the singing was of a high order. During the offertory, Mrs. Ray Landon sang a solo. Mrs. E. E. Johnston presided at the organ.

A period of devotion is being observed in the Dulcissime appointment of the Lansdowne Grove United church. The meetings are very encouraging in every way. Rev. J. O. Baron, the pastor, is in charge and expects to have the help of Rev. Alfred Bishop, of Escott United church, as well as Rev. I. N. Beckstead, of Chalmers church, Lansdowne.

The Women's Institute are holding a sale of home cooking in the township hall on Saturday afternoon.

The popular Pattern No. 518 is on the floor. It is a beautiful design in Old Rose, a color which harmonizes with light or dark-toned draperies.

There is only one "Congoleum" and it is identified by the Gold Seal posted on the face of every pattern.

"Weren't you clever to choose a Congoleum Rug!"

Isn't it a pleasure to usher your guest into a room that's the perfection of dainty charm?

With a Congoleum Gold Seal Rug on the floor, you've gone far toward realizing such an ideal. These rugs come in bright, colorful patterns that harmonize beautifully with modern furniture and draperies.

And they have a smooth, sanitary surface that cannot absorb dust, grease and spilled liquids, hence they are the easiest things in the world to clean. Just go over them with a damp mop, and dirt will disappear like magic.

Patterns for Every Room

Patterns are so varied that you can have appropriate rugs in every room at prices that will amaze you. There are rich Oriental and floral designs for living-room and dining-room, and conventional patterns that are just the thing for kitchen, bathroom and pantry.

Congoleum Rugs hug the floor without fastening of any kind—they never curl at the edges or corners.

Congoleum Gold Seal Art-Rugs are made in seventeen sizes; ranging from the handy 18 x 36 inch mats to the 9 x 15 foot room-size rugs.

If you are not acquainted with Congoleum Rugs, be sure to see them at your dealer's. You'll be amazed at their beauty and low price. You owe it to yourself to learn why Canadian housewives regard Congoleum Rugs as the biggest floor-covering value in all the Dominion.

Congoleum-By-the-Yard

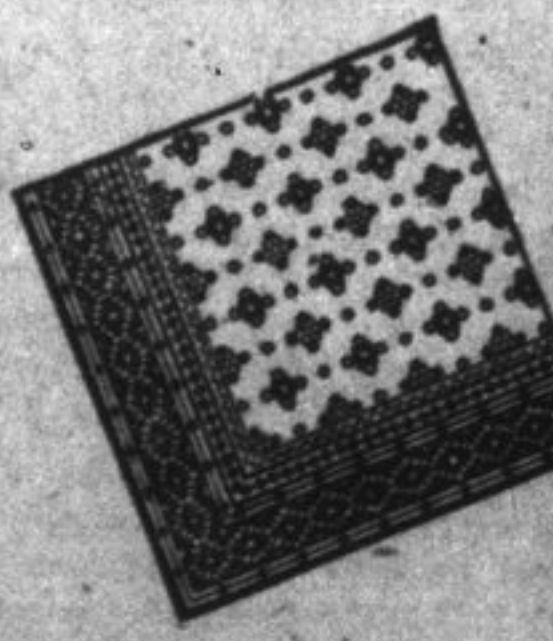

The same easily cleaned, flat-lying, durable material as Congoleum Gold Seal Rugs, for use where it is desired to cover the entire floor. It is made two yards wide, without border, in a variety of beautiful patterns.

Congoleum Gold Seal Hall-Runner

Your choice of two bright floral designs with border, which will add a touch of color to your halls or wherever you can use a runner. Made in rolls, 36 inches wide of the identical material as the famous Congoleum Rugs.
