What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

AT THE GRAND THEATRE:

FOUR ACTS AND MOVIE

"Introduce Me," Douglas MacLean's new screen comedy which has its initial performance at the Grand Theatre to-night, cannot be compared with any other MacLean picture. It is so much superior to anything this bright and youthful star has ever given to the screen that other MacLean successes cannot even be mentioned in the same review. The picture has a delicious vein of humor, laughs which come with gasping suddenness, a beauty of background and a finish in its technique which will make this photoplay historic in the development of the American screen farce. As already stated, we will present four Big-Time vaudeville acts with this photoplay, and in offering such an evening's entertainment at popular prices, it will no doubt tax the capacity of the Grand to-night, Friday and Saturday. Get your tickets now at the box office.

AT THE CAPITOL TO-DAY.

Reginald Denny in "I'll Show You The Town."

"I'll Show You The Town," the feature starring Reginald Denny, coming to the Capitol Theatre, starting to-day, is the screen version of Elmer Davis' sensational novel of the same name.

This picture is one of the greatest laughing successes of the year, showing Denny in the role of a woman-hating college professor of thirty, who tries to get an endowment for the impoverished college from a wealthy widow. In attempting to win her favor, he wins her heart, and complications begin to set in with the girl he expects to marry and two others whom he has promised to "show the town."

Entertaining three women at once in the same cafe, each woman being unaware of the others' existence; is a problem which he answers by the expedient of having himself paged every five minutes.

Being pressed for time in his many-sided courtship, he manages to show one woman the town in a very few minutes by means of an airplane.

NO PRO. COACH

The Toronto Mail & Empire referring to the Varsity practice on Wednesday afternoon has the following to say:

"The candidates have been helped considerably this week by Hank Yorkman, formerly captain of the Dartmouth College team, and one of the late Walter Camp's selections for end on his mythical All-American team a couple of seasons ago. He has been assisting in showing how to present a strong defence against interference, and also has shown the squad a few pointers in the way of making interference. Yorkman saw the game at Kingston on Saturday and stayed over for a few days in Toronto to help the Blue and White, but he will leave for the Eastern States before the end of the week."

TORONTO'S TEAM.

Toronto, Oct. 15.—The following athletes have been chosen to represent the University of Toronto in the intercollegiate track and field championships to be decided at McGill University on Friday:

Russell and Maybee for the sprints; Christie, Somerville, M. Mitchell, Poleck and Burn for the quarter, half and one mile distances; Sparrow and Mackenzie for the hurdles; Shute, Plaxton and Black for weight events; Davenport and Crawford for the pole vault; Lively, Burk and Marshall for the jumps.

Queen's Will Be There.

The good showing made by Varsity against Queen's last week has created a feeling in Montreal that McGill will defeat the national champions at the Molson Stadium on Saturday. Shaughnessy and his assistants are driving their men hard and have them all keyed up for the effort of their lives when they line up against the Presbyterians. Meanwhile the Queen's cohorts are saying nothing but saving a lot of wood. Coach Billy Hughes can be depended upon to remedy the weaknesses shown in last week's game.—Toronto Star.
