On Wednesday evening, Miss Jessie Bruce, Brock street, was hostess at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Muriel Wood, a bride of next week. The guests were all assembled when the bride-to-be was ushered into the room. After the games, the wedding march was played and little Miss Helen MacWilliam entered dressed as a bride carrying a bouquet of flowers which she presented to the guest of honor. Fastened to the bouquet were long streamers of ribbon which were attached to a prettily decorated basket containing the gifts. Miss Wood then had to bring in the basket and on opening the gifts she read aloud the verses, which caused much laughter. She was greatly surprised and pleased at being the recipient of so many good wishes and beautiful gifts, for which she thanked everyone very charmingly. Refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. G. N. Williamson. Everyone enjoyed the evening spent in thus conveying to the bride-elect their heartiest wishes for her future happiness.

On Thursday afternoon the auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. held a tea and sale at the home of the president, Mrs. R. N. Ward, Johnson street. The house was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and berries. The guests were welcomed at the door by Mrs. R. H. Ward and Mrs. John W. Wright. The tea-table was tastefully decorated with yellow mums which harmonized with yellow candles in silver holders. Mrs. T. Ashmore Kidd and Mrs. Oliver Chown pouring tea assisted by Mrs. W. Jackson, Mrs. Charles Anglin, Mrs. D. W. Taylor, Mrs. Russell Derry and Mrs. Frank Newman. The home-made table was in charge of Mrs. Edward Spencer and Mrs. J. E. Singleton their assistants being Mrs. T. J. Lockhart, Mrs. T. Moore, Mrs. Frank Samwell, and Mrs. N. E. Ward. Miss Jean Douglas played several violin numbers which delighted the crowds of visitors. The admission fee was taken at the door by Mrs. W. Gill and Mrs. A. Roney. A splendid sum was realized for this very worthy cause.

Mrs. R. G. Betts, Alfred street, entertained at tea on Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Mae Millan, when an original arrangement for conveying to her the pretty cups and saucers, brought by each of the forty guests, was adopted. They were placed behind the fireplace in the simulated mantel piece, and after Mrs. Betts read a verse, the bride-elect drew her gifts from their hiding place. Tea was served by Mrs. S. D. Urquhart, Ottawa, Miss Carmel O'Reilly and Miss Helen Lovett. During the afternoon Miss Millan and Miss Anna Corrigan sang, Miss Olive Simpson played a violin number and Miss Marie MacDonald a piano number. Most successful was the tea and sale held in St. Luke's rectory on Thursday afternoon by the Woman's Auxiliary of the parish. Mrs. de
