IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Mrs. Edmund Montgomery (nee Hazel Laughlan) who died October 18th, 1924.

One year has passed,
And yet we seem to hear
Her gentle voice ring in our ears;
She has gone to a land of evergreen,
Where God and his Angels do always sing.
She has gone, we are sure to a better home,
And some day we hope that God shall join us all
By His good and loving hand.
—Sadly missed by husband and daughter, mother and sister.

MOUNTED SPORTS HELD BY THE R.C.H.A.

Big Crowd Witnessed Programme of Keenly Contested Events on Friday.

A very large crowd witnessed the annual mounted sports of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, at Barriefield, Friday afternoon. The events were all keenly contested and were thoroughly enjoyed by the spectators, who were served with refreshments on the grounds.

Each event demanded speed and efficiency, and was performed with great skill by the artillery soldiers. The trotting drive was an event that called for great horsemanship and although "B" battery won the event, "A" battery performed the maneuvers more to the satisfaction of the crowd. There were six horses drawing a large mounted gun, and three drivers controlled each wagon. They had to drive through gates with only a few inches of room to spare. "A" battery performed the feat with great horsemanship, but did not take the right course, "B" battery winning by the opposition being disqualified.

The alarm race was one of the best events of the afternoon and the one that required the most efficiency and skill. The men, with their horses, had to be saddled and a dash made for the hurdles in the centre of the field. Just as the horse came to the hurdle, a volley was fired by soldiers beside it, which made the horses unruly and the hurdling difficult. All the entries finished and the time was very good.

After the events were over, the prizes were presented by Mrs. J. H. Elmsley. The result of the events were as follows:

Alarm race—Gunner Lesage, Driver Cronin.

Ring and peg, with lance—Driver A. Cronin, Sergt. McGrath, Lce.-Bom. Smith.

Individual jumping—Lce.-Bom. Smith, Lce.-Bom. Tatton, Gunner Lesage.

Section tent pegging—Sergt. Knapton and Sergt. Rolson, Bom. Smith and Lce.-Bom. Smith.

V.C. race—Gunner Genest, Lce. Bom. Pugh.

Trotting drive—"B" battery.

Individual tent pegging—Sgt. Knapton, Dr. Dunn, Lce.-Bon. Smith.

Dummy jump and two rings, with swords in brackets — Lce.-Bom. Smith, Sergt. McGrath, Lce.-Bom. Pugh.

Half-section jumping—Lce.-Sergt. Bontillier and Boy Clay, Sergt. McGrath and Lce.-Bom. Pugh.

The officials were as follows:

Referee, Lieut.-Col. W. H. P. Elkins, D.S.O.; judges, Major A. V. Tremaine, Major H. P. Lafferty, Capt. Hanington, M.C., Capt. W. R. Stone and Lieut. G. F. Elliott; timekeeper, Major H. F. Geary; steward of the course, Regt.-Sergt.-Major W. Lowry, W.O.

CONVICT TO FACE CHARGE OF MURDER

Prison Authorities Notified About Man Who Violated His Parole.

The authorities at the Portsmouth penitentiary have been notified that a convict, who was released from the prison and who later broke his parole and was arrested at the request of the Canadian authorities, across the border, will have to face a charge of murder.

The man in question, after being released from this prison, evidently made his way across the American border, and for some years the Canadian prison authorities could get no trace of the missing man. A few months ago, it was learned that he was living in a city in the lower part of the American republic, and orders were issued for his arrest. He was traced as a result of finger prints and the stage was all set for his return to the Portsmouth institution, where he would complete his sentence.

While he was being detained in the United States, waiting orders for extradition, the American police, who had been looking for a man, who was suspected of committting murder, had the ex-convict turned over to their police and he will now face a charge of murder. If he is found not guilty of the charge, he will be returned to the Portsmouth prison.

The Family Market Basket

An abundant supply of good things to eat was found on the Kingston market on Saturday morning. From Adolphustown and Prince Edward and from nearer home came big motor trucks laden with apples selling at reasonable prices. Three dollars would buy a barrel of apples good for either cooking or eating, and baskets of eating apples were selling at 30 and 50 cents; $1.60 was asked for a bag of fine hard apples. Poultry, too, was plentiful. Ducks were from 80 cents to $1 apiece, and chickens varied in price from 60 cents apiece to $1.75 and $2 a pair. Butter was scarce and sold for 50 cents a pound; eggs also were scarce and 60 cents a dozen was asked for them. Lamb sold at 20 and 23 cents a pound and pork made its appearance selling at 22 and 24 cents a pound. Vegetables of all kinds were for sale and were bought by the thrifty housewife who knows that her family is kept in better health by a good supply of vitamines.
