AMUSEMENTS
What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

EXCELLENT VAUDEVILLE BILL.
"Night Club" Griffith Laugh-Producer at the Grand.
Pedestrians who constantly dodge automobiles are soon to have an opportunity to take a few lessons from Raymond Griffith, who claims he is an expert. Griffith gives these lessons in "The Night Club," his latest Paramount picture, which opens on Thursday at the Grand Theatre.
"The Night Club" was adapted from William de Millie's stage play, "After Five."
"Those who saw our vaudeville bill last week will vouch that we more than made good our promise that we would bring to Kingston the best vaudeville we could get. This week's bill goes one better. We are offering our patrons a vaudeville bill direct from the Pantages Theatre, Toronto. The headline attraction will be Jules Black and Company (seven people) in a screamingly funny school skit entitled "Perfect Fools." Others on the bill include Buddy Howard, the Xylophone Wizard. Buddy Howard has long been a victor record artist. Al Daniels, the Nonsensical Nut, Marvele and Lawrence in "Reel Doings" just means twenty minutes of fun.
The same popular prices will prevail. Evenings, 50c, 35c, 25c; Saturday matinee, adults 35c; children 25c. Tickets are now on sale for all performances.

BARTHELMESS NEXT IN NAVY ROMANCE
"Shore Leave" At The Capitol Starting To-morrow.
"Shore Leave," the First National attraction which comes to the Capitol Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, is the comedy hit of Richard Barthelmess' career.
The picture, which was adapted by John S. Robertson, is an amusing comedy of the Navy. Many of the scenes were taken with the cooperation of the United States Navy. The story tells of Bilge Smith, who, on a visit to shore, meets Connie Martin, the dressmaker in a fishing village. Connie immediately falls in love with the "gob" and lays plans to trap the unwary sailor, whose intentions are far from being serious.
The working out of this unusual romance is played with rare comedy by Barthelmess and his leading woman, Dorothy Mackail.

MAKING INSPECTION.
Mr. C. E. Walker of Toronto, Testing Apparatus.
Mr. C. E. Walker of the Fire Underwriters' Association of Toronto is continuing the test of the local fire equipment and apparatus and on Tuesday afternoon thirteen lines of hose were tested and several hydrants were examined.
On Wednesday morning the Ahrens-Fox pumper was put through a thorough test and more hydrants were inspected. The test was to be continued this afternoon. Chief Armstrong stated today that a complete report of the inspection would be given when it is completed.

DATE OF GAME CHANGED.
Announcement was made on Wednesday morning that the date for the next junior and intermediate rugby double-header between R.M.C. and Queen's teams had been changed from October 31st to November 2nd, to allow the members of Queen's junior and intermediate teams a chance to go to Toronto for the Varsity-Queen's game there. The action of R.M.C. in consenting to the postponement until Monday is much appreciated by Queen's.

TICKETS GOING EAST.
Local rugby fans are alive to the fact that the McGill team will put up a determined fight here in their game against Queen's on Saturday and they are grabbing up the tickets for the game. J. S. McDonell, secretary of the board of control at Queen's, stated this morning that the sale had become quite brisk.

Athletic Director Hughes is inclined to believe that the McGill-Queen's game here on Saturday will be a far better game than the Varsity game. He points out that McGill suffered from two bad breaks in Montreal and he expects that they will put up a strong fight Saturday. "We will have to be right on the job all the time to stave off the McGill attacks," said the rugby mentor, "and I look for Shaughnessy to throw a fighting gang into Saturday's big game."

REFEREEING WAS GOOD.
Much favorable comment has been heard of the officiating of Referee Rolly Graham in last Saturday's R.M.C.-Queen's intermediate rugby game. Not an adverse word of any kind was heard from the crowd during the whole game, with regard to his officiating. It is unusual and a tribute to Mr. Graham's ability as a rugby official.

SUGGEST NEW MANAGER.
Following the announcement in the Whig that Mr. Joseph Daley, former manager of the Kingston Central Ontario League team, has quit baseball, the suggestion has come to the Whig several times, that W. P. Hughes of Queen's be secured to manage the Kingston baseball team next summer. Mr. Hughes has had a wide experience in baseball in addition to his football and hockey career and it is thought that he would make an ideal man for the position.

"BUBS" TO PLAY HERE?
"Bubs" Britton, flying wing of the Queen's senior rugby team and former Osler and St. George's baseball player of Toronto, will very likely remain in Kingston this summer and accept a position here, it is learned on fairly good authority. Britton is a good ball player and would play for the Kingston team next summer if he were to remain here. He would be a good man for the local club to have if he decided to accept the position here this summer.

BIG CROWD COMING.
A large crowd will come to Kingston from Montreal on Saturday for the McGill-Queen's game, it was announced to-day. Applications for tickets have started to come in from Montreal for seats for the game.

RELEASE PLAYERS.
Montreal Club Gives Cast-offs Chance to Look After Themselves.
Montreal, Oct. 21.—The Montreal Hockey Club has released Ganton Scott and Alie Skinner of Toronto, Lon Berlanquette of Montreal and Ernie Parks, ex-Toronto, Kitchener and Vancouver player. The Maroons are after another forward and another defence man. The club offered Dr. Bill Carson, of Stratford the largest sum ever offered an amateur player, but he declined.

The Montreal management feels that the players released still have lots of good hockey ability, but have to cut down on last year's squad. They carried thirteen players all through last season, and every man received his full salary. This is something unusual for professional hockey. The club could neglect to send these men contracts by November 5th, which automatically release them, but in fairness to the players, the club is giving them three extra weeks to look after themselves.

The club has notified all other players to report here by November 3rd, at the latest to be guests of the club at championship-fights at the Forum on November 4th.

Most of the boys have been doing road work, and are all looking forward to a big season.

MOVIES OF THE GAME.
Mr. E. O. Smithies, manager of the Grand Theatre, announced to-day that arrangements had been made for the showing of the movies of the Queen's-McGill game last Saturday at Montreal, at the Grand Theatre and the Capitol Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Worshipping in Harmony.
During the absence of the Rev. C. E. Kidd in the east, the Rev. J. D. Boyd, for the last three Sundays supplied St. Andrew's church, Gananoque. The Unionists and Continuing Presbyterians there are worshipping together in harmony. They expended lately about $5,000 on their church, making it now a very fine edifice, quite in keeping with the progressive tastes of this smart and prosperous town.

A Vote for J. M. Campbell is a Vote for Good Times

CANADA IS Entering Upon an Era of prosperity and good times.

All the signs point to it, all the big business authorities say so.
The Canadian dollar since 1921 has risen in value from 83 cents in the money markets of the world to par, the $1.00—and a fraction over the dollar. Why? Because under Liberal government and good Liberal business administration the trade of the country has steadily revived and increased ever since the King Government took office.
The figures for Canada's trade are astonishing. They show a wonderful advance. Canada has more than "come back."

Here Are The Actual Facts

Before the war, Canada's foreign trade—imports and exports combined—topped the billion dollar mark for the first time.

Doesn't that look like good times?

Canada used to have a huge unfavorable balance in her trade with the United States. In 1921, when Mr. Meighen was in power, it stood $313,800,000 against us. It is not that way to-day. At the end of the fiscal year, March 31st last, it had been reduced to $92,546.

Doesn't that look like good times?

With a greater volume of exports in proportion to her population than the United States or any other country on the globe except New Zealand, Canada to-day is the most commercially healthy, and prosperous country in the world. Look at the stock quotations. Since the Liberal Government came into power industrial stocks and bank stocks have gone up. The stock market is the most sensitive barometer of trade. Look at these figures:

	1921	1925
Bank of Montreal	$205	$259
Royal Bank	196	238
Bank of Commerce	184	213
Canada Cement	54	106
Dominion Textile	137.25	265
Panama's Limited	95	159
Dominion Glass	55	107
Steel of Canada	55	91
Spanish River Pulp and Paper	54	100
Sherwin Williams Paint Company	90	125

Doesn't that look like good times?

And it is going ahead. This fiscal year closing March 31st, next, the balance in our favor will be bigger still.

With a crop of 400,000,000 bushels of wheat, and a world price ranging away above the dollar, Canada's exports will be away up. The increase will add wealth to the whole Dominion. Because it comes back to the farm. Every business, from the farm. And it will go every factory, every man, woman
