WHY QUEEN'S REFUSED BLANEY In Kingston, Ont. on Oct.

Statement of the Registrar-Refused Same Request for Mr. Meighen in 1921.

This morning, The Whig asked Dr. R. Bruce Taylor, principal of Queen's University, and Dr. W. E. McNeill, registrar, why the use of a hall at the university was refused for an address by Premier Mackenzie King to the students yesterday afternoon. At last night's meeting in the Grand Theatre, the Premier referred to Fuheral will leave her late residence on the fact, and said that he could not understand the action of the Queen's authorities in declining to permit him to speak to the students, when his friends here had made a request. He had not intended to deliver a political address but to speak on some other topic, such at citizen-

After consultation with the principal and the registrar, it would appear that there was some misun- LYONS-At Wolfe Island, on Oct. 20th, derstanding and Dr. McNeill made the following statement setting forth the position of the university authorities:

"Four years ago, when a political campaign was at its height, the use of Grant Hall was requested for Mr. Meighen, then Premier, and was refused on the ground that the University desired to keep clear of political relationships. The circumstances in this case are practically similar. The use of Grant Hall was requested of the Registrar by Mr. McKelvey, President of the Alma Mater Society, and also Vice-President of the local Liberal As-The Registrar was unwilling to make a decision, especially in view of the fact that the trustees were to meet upon the foilowing morning, when wider counsel might be asked, and, before the formal meeting of trustees a small but representative group discussed the matter and agreed that the usual policy of the University should be followed

"The authorities of the University recognize that the question is debateable but they are consistent in following out the position which they had taken up in the case of Mr. Meighen, that they should not involve the University in political controversy. It may be said on the one hand that the University should always be ready to welcome the Pramier of the Dominion, a most distinguished citizen, and an honorary graduate of the University. Queen's has more than once had the privilege of welcoming Mr. Mackenzie King and it hopes that it may again do so, but, at present, the country is in the midst of a political campaign and to give the use of the University premises to one party and not to the other would certainly involve the University in difficulty. "The University authorities were not informed as to the subject with which the Premier proposed to deal. He may have felt inclined to discuss was in the city Wednesday attend the general question of citizenship ing the funeral of his uncle, the on which he is indeed most able to late William McCammon. speak, but it is hardly possible at such a time as the present, when list, Gospel Tabernacle, to-night at political feelings are strongly arous- eight. ed, to dissociate the visit of the Premier from the presentation of a particular political view.
