

Founded 1847.

Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear

DRESS WELL AND SUCCEED WEAR BETTER CLOTHES

Turnbull's Ceetee Underwear

OVERCOAT

VALUE OF YEARS

It's the quality of these Overcoats that brings to you the values that every prudent man is seeking at this season of the year.

You'll not feel winter's blasts inside of one of these. Get yours while the picking's good. Quality is the watchword—so is the low price.

$25.00 $27.50
$30.00 $35.00

Others as low as $18.50

Overcoat Department, Second Floor

THE WELL-DRESSED MAN

In every style centre at home or abroad is going in for these "GUARD MODEL" OVERCOATS as shown in above cut. All colors to choose from.

LIVINGSTON'S

75-79 BROCK ST.

"IF OFF YOUR ROUTE IT PAYS TO WALK"

NEW FALL HATS $3.95

NEW FALL HATS $3.95

City and District

Buried at Prescott.
The remains of the late Harlow Easter were sent to Prescott on Tuesday afternoon, by John Cornelius, undertaker. The funeral took place there Wednesday afternoon.

Poultry Plucking.
A great deal of interest is being taken in the poultry plucking demonstrations being held throughout the county by Mr. E. S. Snider of the Ontario Agricultural College. Demonstrations were held at Westbrooke on Monday night and at Glenvale and Elginburg on Tuesday.

Taking Things for Granted.
The evening session of the Kingston Teachers' Institute will be held on Thursday, Oct. 22nd at 7.45 p.m., in the upper hall of Queen's cafe. The public is invited to hear F. P. Macpherson, B.A., of Hamilton Normal School, on the above subject.

William Horton Dead.
The death occurred on Friday at the House of Industry, Athens, of William Horton, aged seventy-eight years, in his lifetime a well known carpenter. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Horton and was born at Glen Elbe. He is survived by his wife, who resides at Delta.

Breaks Leg While at Play.
The six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kruger, Bancroft, met with a painful accident while playing near her home. The little tot's foot became fast in a crevice of a rock and in an attempt to extricate herself, she fell over and fractured her leg between the hip and the knee.

Death of Mrs. Milburn.
On Oct. 14th, Isabella Pauline Milburn, Belleville, passed to her rest after several months of painful illness. She was the third daughter of the late George Benjamin, and was one of a family of fourteen children. Her father established the Intelligence newspaper and represented Hastings as a member of parliament.

Carleton Hotel Repurchased.
Mr. M. J. Kane, who was so widely known as proprietor of the Carleton Hotel for many years and who sold out last year has repurchased the business, and it will be under his management from now on. He will be glad to see all his old friends and as many new ones as wish to favor him with their patronage.

Late Mrs. Frizzell.
The funeral of the late Lucinda Frizzell took place Monday afternoon from her late residence, 42 Clergy street west, to Cataragui cemetery, Rev. W. E. Kidd officiating. The pall bearers were the four sons of the deceased. Funeral arrangements were in charge of John Cornelius.

Buried at Harrowsmith.
The body of the late Mrs. Sumerby, who died at Massey, Ont., was brought to Harrowsmith and laid to rest in the family plot. The late Mrs. Sumerby was a sister of the late Mrs. E. Gandler, Newburgh. Miss Margaret Sumerby, B.A., with her sister, Laura, and her brother, Archie, accompanied their mother's remains to Harrowsmith, and are guests at the home of E. Gandler, Newburgh.

Grand Theatre, Nov. 2, 3, 4.
"Leo," a great success a splendid house and the showman's favorite expression, "never a dull moment in the three hours of solid enjoyment" was fully exemplified. The audience became most enthusiastic, demanding curtain after curtain, and at the close of the battle scene the applause lasted for some minutes, while the demonstrative gods went frantic with delight.—Quelch Mercury.

Busy Farm Out West.
John Felow and Earl Walker, Gananoque, who went west with the harvesters, write about a farm where they are, comprising eighteen sections, 640 acres each. Five tractors and thirty binders are used in the cutting, with twelve-foot horse binders cutting out the corners. Altogether about 100 horses are used in the working of the land. About seventy-five men are employed. This farm is at Elrose, Sask.

Old Resident Passes Away.
The death of William H. Gallagher, aged seventy-eight years, occurred at his home, 398 Albert street, Tuesday night. Deceased had been a resident of Kingston for some time, and was well-known and highly respected by a wide circle of friends. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon from his late residence to Harlem cemetery by motor, under the charge of the James Reid firm.

DAILY MEMORANDUM.
Hotel D'Acadie postponed to Thursday, October 22nd.
St. Paul's Church, Christmas Tea and Sale in School Room, Wednesday, Dec. 2nd.
Brook Street Church Club, tea and sale of home-made cooking, Thursday, from 3 to 6, Mrs. Godwin, 299 Albert St.

COMMERCIAL PRINTING
LETTER HEADS, ENVELOPES, CATALOGUES, FACTORY FORMS, POSTERS, ETC.

Phone us for a quotation.
BRITISH WHIG JOB DEPT.
PHONE 2614.

"KINGSTON'S GREATEST SHOPPING CENTRE"

Fall Apparel Attractively Priced

Aristocratic Models in Fall's Latest Whims

They represent every type of Frock that flares or hangs in slim, slender lines.

They know every intricate cut, every latest whim, adaption of the newest imported models. Each reveals a finesse of workmanship truly Parisian in its exquisite finished detail and design.

Rich materials of Satin Faced Crepe, Flat Crepe and Silk Canton; in shades of Wine, Egyptian, Black, Navy, Negro, Khiva, Congo, Rosewood, with trimmings of sly touches of fur, and sheer Georgette, cunningly designed.

The prices range from

$18.50 to $55.00

Ladies' Silk Knit Underwear

Soft, silken Underwear, the delight of every woman who desires the fastidious, well-tailored undergarments.

SILK KNIT BLOOMERS

In shades of White, Powder Blue, Peach and Flesh; made in perfect tailored cut, elastic at waist and knee.

$2.25 and $3.00

STEP-INS
In shades of Peach, White, Flesh, Helle.
$2.25 and $3.00

ENVELOPE CHEMISE
In shades of White and Flesh—perfect tailored garments.
$2.50

VESTS
In Flesh, White, Orchid and Black.
$1.50 each

Fall Coats

Ranging in price from

$12.00 to $35.00

In this moderately priced range of Fall Coats are models that have been carefully selected for their luxurious and lustrous fabrics.

There's a warmth in the very colorings of the models shown. Shades of Juniper, Cherokee, Sumatra, Queenbird, Chili, Liberian, Burgundy and others.

Richly trimmed in deep collars, cuffs and bandings of fur in Opposum and Fitch Mandel, combined with the best of tailoring reveals distinctive creations favoring the flare.

John Laidlaw & Son, Ltd.
170 Princess Street

THIS WEEK Demonstration of Magic Baking Powder

Of Special Interest to the Ladies!

On Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 3 p.m. a Free Demonstration of Magic Baking Powder showing practical methods of Baking and Mixing.

No housewife should miss this opportunity.

REAL VALUE

A light, durable, shopping basket with 10 bars of Surprise Soap. (A pure hard soap).

Regular value $1.55 Special for $1.00

Phone orders taken. Only a limited number. BUY NOW.

4 pkgs. Shirriff's Jelly Powders for . . . 25c.

SELECT OYSTERS

Solid meat—pint 65c.

A Complete Line of Fish and Fish Products

Look this list over and place your order early.

Fresh Fillet of Haddock (no waste), lb. 25c

Silver Bright Salmon—boiling cut—lb. 18c.

Sliced—pound 30c.

Coboe Salmon—boiling cut—pound 30c.

Sliced—pound 30c.

Halibut—Boiling Cuts—pound 27c.

Sliced—pound 27c.

White Fish—pound 22c.

Trout (very choice)—pound 20c.

Finnan Haddie, lb. 18c. Bloaters 3 for 25c.

Smoked Fillets, lb. 22c. Cod Fish, package 30c.

Kippers 3 for 25c. Sirloin Cod—pkg. 25c.

Salmon Snacks, lb. 30c. Boneless Herring, lb. 25c.

Quality Anderson's Service
LARGER MARKET
Telephones 2600

IN MARINE CIRCLES

Clearances on Tuesday—Shirley G. Taylor, east at 10.15 p.m.; John B. Richards, east at 10.45 p.m.; Norman P. Clement, east at 11.10 p.m.; Drumahoe, east at 11.20 p.m. Clearance on Wednesday—Oakbay, west.

GAVE DELIGHTFUL ADDRESS.

Prof. Roy Spoke to Princess Street Young People's League. Prof. J. A. Roy, of Queen's University, gave a delightful address to the Young People's League of Princess Street United Church, on his recent visit to the old country. He took them through various cities of the old country, giving to each country the peculiar attraction, and his address was received with very great appreciation.

A vote of thanks was tendered the speaker on motion of Mr. Earl Bruce, ex-president of the league. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Curtis, endorsed the vote of thanks with warm words of appreciation.

Late William McCammon.
The funeral of the late William McCammon was held on Wednesday afternoon, from his late residence, Johnson street, to Cataragui cemetery. The service, which was private, was conducted by Rev. G. A. Brown and Rev. Dr. MacGillivray. The pallbearers were William McCammon, S. A. McCammon, Thomas Moore, Herbert Moore, J. F. Rowland and William Bruce.

Burial of Mrs. King.
The funeral of the late Mrs. John King, took place Wednesday afternoon, from her late residence, 375 Alfred street, to Cataragui cemetery, Rev. J. K. Curtis officiating. A large number of friends and acquaintances attended the service, and the many floral tributes showed the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Burned Cross at Mallorytown.
A twelve-foot wooden cross was burned in a field close to the village of Mallorytown about midnight Tuesday. Some of the residents went to the scene of the burning, but the village was not disturbed, as there was no danger.

Made Special Trip.
The steamer Wolfe Islander made a special trip over from Wolfe Island on Tuesday night bringing a very large number of the Islanders over to hear the Prime Minister.

Drove Thirty-five Miles.
One farmer in attendance at the meeting last night, drove thirty-five miles to hear Premier King speak.