"HOW DO YOU DO."

How do you do, Mr. King, how do you do
How do you do, Mr. King, how are you
We need men of just your style
Cause you've learned the way to smile
You're not grousing all the while
How do you do?

How do you do, how do you do
How do you doodle, doodle, doodle, doodle, do
You're the finest man we've seen
You make Arthur look so "Meighen,"
How do you doodle, doodle, doodle, doodle, do?

How do you do, Mr. Campbell, how do you do
How do you do, Mr. Campbell, how are you
Ev'ryone in Kingston's throng
Has been pulling for you strong
Why "J. M." you can't go wrong
How do you do.

How do you do, Mr. Campbell, how do you do
How do you do, Mr. Campbell, how are you
Ev'ryone in town to-night
Is behind you in this fight
And we'll get you there all right
How do you do.

HOME AND SCHOOL CLUB.

Prof. Roy Addressed the Robert Meek Club on Trip Overseas.

The regular meeting of the Robert Meek Home and School Club was held Tuesday evening, in the assembly hall, of the school. The hall was well filled. Mr. Lowry, the new president, was in the chair.

The meeting opened with the singing of "O Canada." The minutes of the last meeting were read and the treasurer and home-visiting committee gave their reports. Conveners for the different tables at the Annual Sale on Nov. 6th were appointed. Miss Wilson, school nurse, spoke to the club concerning health posters which the children were making.

Mr. Southall, on behalf of the Trades and Labor Council, presented the cup won by Hugh Clark for the school, at the Labor Day sports.

Prof. Roy, of Queen's University, was then introduced by Mr. McDougall, and gave a very interesting account of his wanderings through Europe last summer. He dealt with the unemployment problem in Great Britain, and explained why trade conditions are so serious at the present time. In marked contrast to these, are conditions in Belgium and France, where there is no industrial unrest, but plenty of work for everybody. These countries have become rehabilitated in a most wonderful way. The beauties of Alsace-Lorraine, Switzerland and Italy were very vividly described, and interesting historical references made of several of the towns. The evening was a most profitable one. Mr. Howarth delighted his audience with several selections sung in his inimitable way. The ladies served ice cream and cake, and the meeting closed with the National Anthem.
