One Symptom of Eye Strain

A person arises in the morning feeling fit and ready for anything. He starts to work with enthusiasm, but in two or three hours begins to lose his energy. This is particularly true of those who use their eyes for close work. If your eyes are a handicap to you, first we could convince you of the fact, then relieve you.

Dr. A. E. Ross Elected in Kingston By the Decisive Majority of 1,612

Great Rejoicing in Conservative Ranks—Dr. Ross' Majority Was a Surprise on All Sides—The Results by Wards.

The electors of Kingston and Portsmouth on Thursday elected Hon. Dr. A. E. Ross, the Conservative candidate, as their representative in the House of Commons at Ottawa.

Dr. Ross had a majority of 1,612 over the Liberal candidate, Mr. J. M. Campbell.

It was the general opinion that the contest in Kingston would be a very close one, and the big majority polled by Dr. Ross came as a great surprise to both parties.

Dr. Ross had a majority in every ward. The Advance poll alone gave a majority to Mr. Campbell, the vote being 23 to 17.

The sweeping victory of the Conservative candidate brought about great rejoicing in the Conservative ranks. Hon. Dr. J. W. Edwards, Conservative candidate in Frontenac and Addington, was also elected by a very large majority, and when the result was known, Conservatives of the city and county joined in a celebration, a special feature being a parade of the down-town streets, when the successful candidates were carried on the shoulders of their supporters. It was certainly a big night in the local Conservative camp, the celebration being carried on until a very late hour.

The voters' list showed that there

DR. A. E. ROSS Who will again represent Kingston in the House of Commons.

ADVANCE POLL

TOTALS	5,022	6,634

MAJORITY FOR ROSS, 1,612

defeated Mr. Campbell by a majority of 243.

Receiving the Returns. The polls were open from 8 a.m. till 6 p.m. and shortly after 6 o'clock a very large crowd gathered at the Whig office for the receiving of the returns.

The first returns received came from the Advance Poll, and this gave Mr. Campbell a majority of 12. The other polls began to pour in a short time after the result of the Advance Poll had been recorded, and as each one was tabulated, a substantial majority was given in favor of Dr. Ross, and it was not long before a victory was conceded for the Conservative candidate.

The returning officer, Mr. Moores, did not receive the returns from the deputy returning officers on Thursday night, and as a result the official figures could not be secured by the Whig, but it is not expected that there will be many changes made in the reports, as received by the Whig, from the various polling subdivisions.

The big majority given Dr. Ross was a great surprise on all sides. Not even the most sanguine in the ranks of the Conservative party, looked for a majority over the thousand mark; a majority of about 600 was the limit, but the general opinion was that the race would be a very close one, and that the winner would be lucky to have a majority of 300.

The cry about unemployment and general discontent over conditions in general, no doubt turned the tide for a Conservative victory. The best of weather prevailed for the getting out of the vote, both sides had a good organization and although defeated, the Liberals are justly proud of the fight they put up in behalf of the principles for which they stand.

Dr. Ross addressed a large gathering at the Standard office when the result of the local election was known, and Mr. J. M. Campbell spoke at the Whig office, returning his sincere thanks to all his supporters and to the Whig, for its warm support during the campaign.

The results of the voting in Kingston and Portsmouth are given elsewhere in this issue, in tabulated form.

Sexsmith, Progressive, who represented the riding of Lennox and Addington in the last House of Commons. Mr. Hubbs represented Prince Edward county in the last parliament, but the two counties were united under the distribution bill.

It was stated that the victory of the Conservative party was due in a great sense to the good organization. Mr. Sexsmith had a fair organization but it did not function as well as that of his opponent.

DESERONTO

Deseronto, Oct. 29.—Miss Eleanor Johnston, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Johnston, was hostess to a number of her young friends at a birthday party on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Annie Dennis, of Napanee, spent Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. John Cannon.

Miss Hilda Gaulin, R.N., left on Thursday last for Rochester, N.Y., where she has secured a good position.

Mrs. E. M. Webster, accompanied by her sister, Miss Moe Frickett, have arrived home from Toronto after spending several months in that city.

Frank Harvey, of the Dominion Match Company, left this week for employment in Rochester, N.Y.

The vote in Deseronto yesterday was: Tammon, Conservative, 572; Hanna, Liberal, 283.

Many Changes Made in Montreal Lineup

Montreal, Oct. 30.—Ill fortune continues to dog Coach Nicholson and the Montreal Big Four Club; for practically every game in the Inter-provincial Union this season the Winged Wheel leader has had to cope with the question of the loss of players, through injury or other causes. This week is no exception, and almost on the eve of their tussle with the Toronto Argonauts Nicholson has been forced to rearrange the back-field.

The change has been necessitated by the loss of Pean Bennett, sturdy little half-back, who has been ordered out for the season by the club's physician, owing to torn muscles of the legs. To fill the gap Nicholson has decided to start Dave Paterson on the half line with Charlie Booth, but to make certain of not losing offensive strength on the back division has come to the conclusion that he had better assign the quarter-back position completely to Wally Sheppard, leaving Jeff Russell free to work on the half-line.

Whittall to Substitute. Paterson, who replaces Booth, has been a regular first string back division sub all season and has shown fair work. Earl Whittall will relieve Paterson from time to time. Whittall is probably the more rugged player of the two, but he has not been as steadily with the squad this season.

DIVORCE FOR ILLINGWORTH

Two points are being drilled into the Montreal squad this week as far as holding the Argonauts are concerned. To cope with the hard teaming team, Nicholson is having the front rank clip more than they did against the plunging Ottawa team last Saturday and in this way hopes to negate Argos' heavy thrust. To halt the end runs he is satisfied that he has smart enough outside wings to nip any attempts that the Double Blue might make in that direction.

London, Oct. 29.—A preliminary divorce was granted yesterday to Lord Illingworth, postmaster-general in the Coalition Government. The co-respondent was William Notague, who he had employed as a butler. Lord Illingworth was married in 1895, but had no children, and he stated his wife had given way to intemperance the last two years very badly. The case was undefended.
