MUCH LOOTING DONE BY GREEK TROOPS In Withdrawing From Bulgarian Soil, According to Sofia Reports. Paris, Oct. 29.—The Council of the League of Nations, hurriedly summoned on Monday last to prevent threatened hostility between Greece and Bulgaria, adjourned today with its task accomplished. Looting by Troops. Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 30.—Newspapers print columns of "eye witness stories" today charging that the withdrawal of Greek troops from Bulgarian soil was marked by scenes of pillage and destruction. These stories say the troops took away food and clothing and even furniture and household utensils, in some cases leaving behind them only the bare walls of the homes they had looted.

LOST RADIUM FOUND BY WOMAN PATIENT Precious Metal Stuck to Her Skirt Hem by Adhesive Tape. Newark, N.J., Oct. 30.—Several days ago a kernel of radium valued at $5,000 was lost in the offices of Doctors Andrew Wallhauser and Francis J. McCauley, this city, shortly after it had been used on a woman patient. Following the disappearance of the precious substance which was enclosed in a gold bulb, the physicians began a search of their offices with an electro-scope, but it failed to detect the radium. Yesterday Dr. McCauley was making his rounds when he paid a visit to the woman on whom the radium had been used. After talking of her ailment the woman told the physician that upon her arrival home from his office she found a "little piece of metal" stuck to the hem of her skirt. "I wonder if it belongs to you?" she asked. It was the speck of radium. She then told the physician that it was attached to a piece of adhesive tape which was found stuck to the hem of her skirt. At first she thought it was worthless but noticing the gold bulb, she decided to await the physician's arrival.
