Youth's Revolt.
San Francisco Bulletin: "Pity a fellow can't be left to manage his own affairs," complained a masterful man of 14 years of age, held by the police as a runaway from home. Primarily there is one extenuating circumstance in this lad's case. He bled because his mother wished him to attend a children's party that offered no entertainment to the boy older men than he have wanted to dodge parties, but usually lack the moral courage to revolt. The spirit of independence is spreading, on a descending scale. Once it was at 18 that youth discovered it could manage its own affairs with greater wisdom than parents showed. Now the focal point is 14. In a few years, if the spirit of independence continues to spread, the perambulator brigade in the park will rise in revolt over the milk bottle formula and sweep off in mass to seek freedom.

OPERA IS PRESENTED BY KINGSTON TALENT

"Leo, the Royal Cadet," at Grand Theatre—To Be Repeated To-night.

For the benefit of the Symphony Orchestra, and under the patronage of His Worship the Mayor, Major-General J. H. Elmley and the officers and men of the Kingston Garrison, Col. C. F. Constantine, the commandant, the staff and gentlemen of the R. M. C. and the Kingston Kiwanis Club, Cameron and Teigmann's comic opera "Leo, the Royal Cadet" was put on at the Grand Theatre on Monday evening, with a smoothness and pep that was a surprise to those who had the pleasure of seeing it. Prof. O. F. Teigmann's tuneful and inspiring music was played by an orchestra of exceptional merit, led by his daughter, Miss Mignon Teigmann, and the choruses were bright and tuneful, the opening one "Glory and Victory" giving a key to the opera. Pretty girls in fresh costumes made a charming picture as the colored lights accentuated their beauty, and the cadets and dudes were true to form. Mr. John Alexander, in the title role, took the part excellently, and sang the solos and a duet with "Nellie" in the symphonic tenor Kingston has often heard and admired. Miss Harriet Vair, who has been heard in smaller rooms, where her sweet, clear, vibrant voice won many admirers, sang the part of "Nellie" in a voice that filled the house and with a clear enunciation that was very delightful. Her frocks were charming and she received several bouquets of flowers. Miss Anna Corrigan as "Caroline" was charming, whether in a pretty frock or in the smart costume of a girl cadet. Her solos and duets were sung with spirit and clear enunciation, most unusual in amateurs. Miss Leola Teigmann, as "Madge," made an attractive figure. "Wind," Mr. R. G. Bettis was a tremendous favorite with the audience, and Mr. Meuller and Mr. Saunders possess fine voices that showed to good advantage. The duet between the German and the French professors at R. M. C. was splendidly done and brought forth much applause. The King of the dudes was splendid and the Zulu chief who had previously appeared as "the man of the world," sang his numbers well. The Zulus made a great hit. The characteristic music splendidly played by the orchestra and the darkened stage prepared the audience for the appearance of these dusky warriors who, with wild yells, did a dance before attacking their foes, the cadets. But for some as they were, even the huge ones in the centre of the stage, went down before the onslaught of the red coats and after a brief hand to hand conflict not a Zulu was left standing, each being borne down by a victorious cadet.

However, "All's well that ends well" and in the last act everything is satisfactory, and the opera ends with the same chorus with which it began, "Glory and Victory." The scenery of the first two and the last act shows Kingston Mills and the Royal Military College somewhat as it was when the opera was written. The performance reflects the greatest credit upon the actors and upon Prof. and Mrs. O. F. Teigmann, who trained them, and no Kingstonian should miss the opportunity of hearing our own Kingston opera produced by such a capable cast.

The cast is as follows: Leo, the Royal Cadet and Hero, John N. Alexander; (a) Capt. Wellington Bloodwigger, a true British Soldier, (b) Commandant R. M. C., James M. Saunders; Wind, a military aesthetic poet, R. G. Bettis; Gaupard, a man of the world, W. K. Wood; (a) Belows, a love-sick ruralist, (b) Estalio sergeant-major of R. M. C., E. J. Meuller; Quips, jolly land-lords, T. G. Kelly, Bernard Harts; (a) Andy, a ruralist, (b), a German Professor of the R. M. C., W. Edwards; French Professor, R. M. C., E. Parker; King of the Dudes, T. G. Kelly; Sergeant of the Guard, John Shurtleff; Cetebo, a Zulu chief, W. K. Wood; Kiki, sub-chief, Reg. Hanna; Nellie, Leo's sweetheart, Harriet Vair; Caroline, leader of the maidens, Anna Corrigan; Madge, a friend of Caroline, Leola Teigmann; Minister of Militia, Capt. Coltart; Chief of Police, J. Hanley; Newsboy, Jackson Teigmann; Leader of orchestra, Mignon Teigmann.

ELECTORS TO DECIDE FAIR GROUNDS SCHEME

Will Vote on a Proposition to Turn Grounds Into an Amusement Park.

At the coming municipal elections, the electors will be given an opportunity to vote on a question as to whether or not they are in favor of making improvements to the fair grounds, with the view of ultimately turning it into a first-class amusement park, to be used as a fair grounds, ball park, etc., the money to be used, to be raised by debentures.

This was decided on at a meeting of the city council on Monday night, on motion of Aids. Craig and Chown.

It will be recalled that some time ago, Aid. Craig gave notice of motion that he would move to this effect. In moving his resolution, Aid. Craig pointed out that from year to year, the Council voted money for the upkeep of the fair grounds. Considerable money had been expended, and it was a question as to whether it would be advisable for the city to have something worth while, and the city derive a benefit from the park.

Aid. John Fife Johnston suggested that the matter be referred to the Property Committee.

Aid. Peters regarded the suggestion as a good one. He said there had been a great deal of discussion from time to time as regards what should be done about the fair grounds, and he felt that this proposition would be the means of clearing the air in the matter. He was strongly in favor of having the matter go to the people.

Aid. Chown also spoke in favor of the question going to the electors.

"I feel the same way as Aids. Chown and Craig," remarked Aid. Reid. "There has been a lot of money wasted on the fair grounds, and I would say that if the fair grounds are not used as an amusement park, that the property be sold."

The motion to have the matter put to the people was then carried without further discussion.

McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets Fine For Thin Underdeveloped Kids

Children Love Them Because They Are Sugar Coated and as Easy to Take as Candy.

It's your duty, Mother, to see that the frail, peaked, sickly youngster grows up to be strong in body, keen in mind and robust in health.

Extracted from the livers of the lowly codfish are the health, weight and strength producing vitamins that are found in McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets, which are sold by pharmacists all over North and South America.

Doctors know about them. So does Jas. B. McLeod, Mahood's Drug Store, Branigan's Drug Store, and druggists everywhere, and if your children need building up ask for these tablets to-day if you want to give your loved ones a good appetite and put pounds of good healthy flesh on their bones. But be sure and get McCoy's.

They are not expensive—60 tablets—60 cents and if you are not pleased with the improvement after 30 days—your money back.

A very sickly child, age 9, gained 12 pounds in seven months and is strong and healthy.

One skinny woman gained 9 pounds in 24 days.

IF BACK HURTS FLUSH KIDNEYS

Drink Plenty Water and Take Glass of Salts Before Breakfast Occasionally

Too much rich food forms acids which excite and overwork the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Flush the kidneys occasionally to relieve them like you relieve the bowels, removing acids, waste and poison, else you may feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, the stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get irritated, obliging one to get up two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids and flush of the body's urinous waste, begin drinking water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine and bladder disorders disappear.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which millions of men and women take now and then to help prevent serious kidney and bladder disorders. By all means, drink lots of good water every day.
