TICHBORNE TIDINGS.

Making Channel Between Bob's Lake and Crow Lake.

Ticborne, Nov. 4.—Owing to the heavy frosts at night, the farmers have had to quit ploughing. Mr. Macumber of Verona and some other men are building a channel between Bob's Lake and Crow Lake. Rev. Mr. Keyes preached a very interesting Thanksgiving sermon in the Union Church on Sunday. T. Shillington made a business trip through here last week. The stork passed through here on Saturday last and left a baby girl at Mr. Jones. Hilvera Thompson and Freddie Dermott have returned home from the west. Mrs. Thomas McEwen, who has spent the last two months with her daughter in Calgary, returned home on Saturday. Mrs. Brown is spending a few days with Mrs. Annie Kennedy. Miss Evelyn Steele spent a couple of days with Miss Hattie McKeever, Verona. Mr. Melville Bertram, Crow Lake, is at William Steele's. Mrs. W. White, Christie's Lake, is at Mr. T. H. Swerbrick's. The Halloween party held in Orange hall on Saturday night was well attended.

Homecoming Joy Kills Man.
Thomas O'Rourke, of Liverpool, England, at the age of 69 decided to revisit his boyhood home in Belfast, Ireland. As he reached the beautiful Mourne mountains near Kikeel he stopped at the foot of the hill leading upward to his old home and after a few seconds dropped dead. Physicians says his death was caused by the emotional excitement and joy which were too much for his physical condition at his age.

Recognized the Idea.
Guide—This is one of the original rooms of the castle; it hasn't been touched for four hundred years.
Visitor—That's just like my land-lord—he won't do a thing.

ASSOCIATED BOARDS OF TRADE MEETING

Sale of Weapons.

The first resolution, dealing with the possession and sale of offensive weapons, was introduced by Mr. Healy, of Hamilton. The resolution read that "The Ontario Boards of Trade and Chamber of Commerce petition the Government of the Dominion of Canada, to make such amendments to the Criminal Code of Canada so that it will be enacted that every person having in his possession a revolver, pistol or other firearm, shall be compelled to register same with the police department, in the municipality wherein he resides, and that it be compulsory to obtain permits for the use of rifles, shot-guns, sheath-knives or other weapons necessary for hunting purposes, and be it further resolved that the Dominion Government be requested to issue instructions to Customs and Immigration Officers, to pay particular attention to prevent the smuggling of weapons such as described in the statutes.

In introducing this resolution, Mr. Healy said that if all the revolvers were registered, it would be a great help to the police, in tracing criminals, in crimes, where the weapons were left behind.

G. C. Copley, Hamilton, seconded the resolution. He declared that the great preponderance of citizens in Canada were law-abiding, but he thought it right that there should be some restriction in the possessing of revolvers, and of young boys carrying rifles.

While the whole assembly seemed to be in sympathy with the aim of the Hamilton Chamber of Commerce in restricting the sale and use of revolvers, they were not all in agreement on the wording of the resolution.

Were A Necessary.

Mr. A. Stevens, of Cochrane, said that sheath-knives were a necessity in the north country, both for protection while away from civilization, and also for cutting food and firewood. He asked that it be erased from the resolution.

Mr. W. F. Cocksbutt, of Brantford, said that the resolution went too far. He said that many settlers lived hundreds of miles from cities and towns, and therefore needed firearms to protect their stock from the ravages of wild beasts, as well as making it difficult for them to register their firearms with the police. The resolution was alright he said, if it was confined to towns and cities. Mr. Cocksbutt later in the discussion said that the law now read that no one could carry concealed weapons, and it was also necessary to have a permit to purchase them.

Mr. J. G. Laidlaw, Toronto, said that the resolution under discussion would be a hardship to law-abiding people, but would not deter criminals. He suggested that the penalties for crimes in which firearms were used be increased.

The mover then asked that the resolution be withdrawn for consideration, and that it might be reintroduced later in a modified form.

Grants for Publicity Purposes.

Mr. A. A. Dion, Ottawa, introduced a resolution to request the Ontario Government to amend the Municipal Act so as to give authority to cities and towns, to expend annually not more than ten cents per capita for tourist and publicity purposes. The present limit was $3,000 a year, said the speaker, and it was not sufficient for the work.

Mr. H. K. Carruthers, of Ottawa, seconded the resolution, and after a short discussion it was amended to read that the change in the act apply only to cities over 30,000 population. This amended resolution was passed.

Created a Stir.

A resolution of appreciation to the Ontario Government, for the cordial support rendered in the formation of the Tourist Association of Ontario, introduced by Mr. J. J. Duffus, Peterboro, and W. Simpson, Guelph, was passed without discussion.

The resolution to remove magistrates as members of police commissions, caused considerable stir in the meeting, opinion being decidedly divided. The resolution was introduced by Mr. L. E. Hagadorn, Kitchener, and was supported by Mr. Loughner, also of Kitchener. Mr. Hagadorn claimed that the magistrate occupied a dual role when he was a member of the Police Commission. He was one of the employers of the police and at the same time dispensed justice. The speaker said that it often placed the police in a difficult position. He said that he had interviewed a number of chiefs of police and they were in favor of having someone else on the commission in place of the magistrate. In reply to a question Mr. Hagadorn said he would suggest that the sheriff replace the magistrate.

G. S. Matthews of Brantford warned the assembly against taking any action that would in any way endanger the high level on which British justice was now dispensed. He expressed himself as against the election of a police commission by a popular vote.

G. C. Copley of Hamilton spoke in opposition to the measure on the ground that it was particular to Kitchener and did not apply to the rest of the province. Mr. Hugh Nickle also expressed himself in opposition.

Mr. Hagadorn declared that Kitchener had no personal grievance. The resolution was simply introduced to improve the efficiency of police departments all over Ontario. The resolution was put to a vote and was defeated.

OBITUARY

Late Milton S. Chapman.

Word has been received of the death of Milton S. Chapman, which occurred on Oct. 12th, at his home in Newfield, N.Y. Mr. Chapman spent his boyhood days in Kingston, being the son of Mr. Sidney Chapman, contractor, who resided on Brock street for many years. The family moved to Rochester, N.Y., some years ago. Milton finally settled in Newfield, where he was engaged in farming. He had not been in the best of health for the past year, but had been able to be around, except for the past month. Heart trouble was the cause of his death. He will be remembered in Kingston by many friends who will regret to hear of his demise. Besides his wife in Newfield, he is survived by his parents and three sisters, who reside in Rochester.

The Late Robert Gage.

On Tuesday, Nov. 3rd, in Utica, N.Y., Robert Gage passed to rest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. H. Farrell. The late Mr. Gage had reached the age of eighty-four years. He had not been in good health for some time. For many years he lived in Kingston, where he was a well-known architect, and the fine educational building at the Royal Military College and other public buildings in Kingston were designed by him. In 1888, he and his family removed to Los Angeles, Cal., where he remained till some years ago, when he went to Utica, N.Y., to make his home with Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Farrell. Mrs. Farrell, Miss Ella Gage and Dr. James Gage, Utica, N.Y., an eye and ear specialist, are his surviving children. The deceased was a man of sterling character and a devoted member of the Presbyterian church in Utica, where he was an elder. He will be much missed in the community.

Late Mrs. M. E. Sommer.

Margaret Emma Sommer, aged 54 years, died in the city on November 4th. She was the wife of George E. Sommer, 109 Stephen street. She was an Anglican in religion and a member of St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place from her late residence on Friday to Cataract cemetery. Rev. Canon Fitzgerald will conduct the funeral service.

Late Sherman Wartman.

A well-known resident of this district passed away at the General Hospital on Wednesday in the person of Sherman Everett Wartman. Deceased was sixty years of age and resided on the Front Road where he carried on farming for many years. He was greatly interested in the affairs of the township right up until the time of his illness. Mr. Wartman was a man of very fine character and made many friends by his genial and pleasing manner. He was a Methodist in religion.

The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon from his late residence, Front Road to Cataract cemetery. Rev. W. T. G. Brown of Sydenham street church will conduct the funeral service.

Mr. Wartman is survived by one son, John Wartman, at home, and three daughters, Mrs. Joseph Wooster of Gouverneur, N.Y., Mrs. Frank Ashley of Kingston, and Mrs. I. Picknell of Portsmouth.

Odds Against the Dark Woman.

"A dark woman, like a dark horse, often wins," writes Hazel Rawson Caden, in "The Woman's Home Companion." "But the odds are always against her. It's a hard job to buck romance or live down old reputations. Blondes are usually considered dangerous, in a nice way. But if you'll take a look at your melodramas you'll find a dark woman, every time. There are many brunettes—petite and ponderous, ivory-tinted or swarthy, amiable or adventurous. Each with her life to live and her powder to match her nose. And it is not desirable or fair to expect that every brunette should seek adventure, wrapped in a Spanish shawl. There are among them a good many 'stylish stouts.' I'm sure they do not mean to be dangerous, and are not." Miss Caden continues with a long list of "dos" and "don'ts" for the dark woman.
