INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

Mrs. Gleeson and her son, Leo Gleeson, of Ottawa, are spending a few days in the city with relatives and friends.

Two minutes silence was observed at Queen's University on Wednesday morning in honor of the signing of the Armistice.

Mr. F. Dean VanLoven, of the staff of the Border Cities Star, Windsor, returned home on Wednesday, after spending a few days in the city.

The staff of the Douglas Library presented Miss Mildred Orser, formerly postmistress at the university, with an oak clock on the occasion of her leaving to be married.
Magistrate Bradshaw and his daughter, Miss Jean Bradshaw, returned on Tuesday from Smith's Falls, where they spent Thankgiving with Mr. J. W. Gray and family.

Messrs. "Billy" Laird, "Mel" Hyland, "Bob" Greenless, Henry Graham and Chester Wood returned on Tuesday night from a week-end hunting trip to Vennachar. Game in that vicinity is fairly plentiful, according to the hunters.

HARTINGTON CHURCH EVENT.

Harvest Thanksgiving Supper and Sale of Work.

Hartington, Nov. 10.—The Thanksgiving supper and sale of work was held in the schoolhouse under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the United Church on Monday, Nov.
9th. The pastor, Rev. A. S. Doggett, conducted the opening exercises. He then congratulated the Aid on its work in the interests of the church and expressed regret at the absence of the president, Mrs. Leroy Leonard. The sale was then declared open to the purchasers.

Mrs. Milton Cloaky and Mrs.
John Douker were in charge of the fancy booth. Supper was served at 6 to 8.30 and many indications of Thanksgiving could be seen and shared by all present.

After the supper, the crowds went over to the church to enjoy the entertainment. The entertainers consisted of Mrs. Madrand, organist of the United church of Princess street, Kingston, Miss Lottie Sanders, Miss Arbuckle and Miss Cook. The pastor was requested to occupy the chair and preside. Mr. Madrand favored the audience with several instrumental selections. Miss Lottie Sanders' beautiful voice captivated the audience. Miss Arbuckle rendered some selections on the violin which were very much appreciated.
Miss Cook gave some interesting recitations and was called repeatedly to the platform.

Mr. Earl Leonard moved a vote of thanks to the entertainers, which was seconded by Mr. John Walker.
The proceeds amounted to approximately $110.

Early in the summer the United church of Hartington was renovated at the cost of $350. This indebtedness has been met and the church is now free of debt.

Who Owns the Liquor?

A bottle half-filled with whiskey was found by the police, in a car in the downtown section of the city.
The owner declared that he was not the owner of the liquor, and it is believed that another party put the bottle in the car. At any rate, there will be no action taken against the owner of the car.

As the Nights Roll By

The following was written by private Herbert O. Hodge of Kingston, who served with the Canadian Expeditionary Forces:

There's a land far away,
The place where I was born,
And many times I've rambled Through the fields of yellow corn.
It's a place where every creature Is free beneath skies,
I long to be in that dear old land
As the nights roll by.

I often times sit down to rest,
In some quiet shady dell, And think of days that are gone and past,
And tales we used to tell,
But those dear days are over,
And I close my weary eyes,
I seem to see my dear old home
As the nights roll by.

I sit beside my old tent door,
In the calm and silent night,
And picture one bright scene of yore
In the misty pale moonlight.
I know it's just a vision,
As I gaze up at the sky,
I long to see the one I love
As the nights roll by.

I look out in the darkness,
And the wind begins to roar,
I think I see the little ones Playing about the door.
Their little eyes are misty,
I can hear their tender cry,
I long to kiss their tears away
As the nights roll by.

I see their little hands and feet,
My feelings how it hurts,
When they used to run to meet me, When I'd be coming home from work.

I'd pick them up so tenderly,
Of me they were never shy,
I long to take them in my arms
As the nights roll by.

Nights may come and days may go,
But I never can forget
The one I love so dearly, Though her eyes are dim and wet.
She is the vision of my thoughts,
And will be till I die,
God bless her are the words I say
As the nights roll by.

—Pte. HERBERT O. HODGE, Canadian Expeditionary Force.

Belleville and Ivanhoe.

Inverary, Nov. 10.—The many friends of Mrs. Robert Lyon are pleased to hear that she has recovered sufficiently to be able to leave the General Hospital. On Thursday leave on a week's motor trip. Rev. and Mrs. Carson will remain with Mr. Carson's parents at Picton. The rest will go on to visit Rev. Samuel Lindsay and family at Belleville and then to Ivanhoe to visit Mr. and Mrs.

William Dean.

Wilson Knapp, Sydenham, spent a couple of days visiting friends here.
Frank Darling, Spafford, has purchased M. Trave's fine farm at Lat-

Arthur's; Miss Grace Grey, K.C.I.,

POPPIES WERE SOLD.

The Mallorytown Women's Institute Handled Them.

Mallorytown, Nov. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sheldon and Murlina from Portland, spent Thanksgiving at the home of David Forrester.
The Women's Institute met and spent a very pleasant evening on Wednesday at the home of Mrs.
Purvis. This was "apple" week and at the call of the roll, the members responded with "an apple recipe." Poppies had been sent for and were later given to some of the school girls to sell and quickly disposed of.
After the business a social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

The W. M. S. of the United Church were well represented at the last convention of the W. M. S. of the Methodist Church. Most of our active members were in attendance and report a splendid convention.
After the 31st of March, the three W.M.S.'s of the uniting churches will be passed into one. The funds for this year of the individual units are kept apart.

Harrowsmith Church Canvass.

Harrowsmith, Nov. 10.—At a meeting on Oct. 23th, the United church congregation appointed Mrs.
Elijah Sigworth and Mr. John Delline to make a canvass for the debt reduction. The result was very gratifying. Cash contributions amounted to $545; unpaid contributions, $105; Ladies' Aid contributed $250; assurance, $59; total, $959.
The pastor thanked all who helped to make the canvass a success.

Probing His Case.

John Lett, Toronto, who was fined in Police Court on Tuesday for having twelve bottles of liquor in his car, is being held by the police until his case is further investigated. Police records show that he served a term in the Fortmouth penitentiary for robbery at Toronto, and that he was out on ticket-of-leave.

"Lest We Forget"

It is a simple rite, our annual pilgrimage of thought to the battlefields of the world war, a moment in each passing year dedicated to those who carried on to the end and "went west."

With bent heads and saddened hearts, we offer thanks for the manhood that recognized its duty and did it.

In the hushed silence of those brief two minutes to-day, we lived again the anxiety, sacrifice and nobility that permeated a nation.

November 11th, 1918
November 11th, 1925

What a study in contrasts! That first riotous Armistice Day was the natural unshackling of peoples the world over whose inhibited lives crowded with suffering and sadness, knew once more the pleasure of living.

Joy was unconfined, for a hard, miserable job was done.
Little thought then of cripples and dead or the problems of adjustment to come.

Now, seven years later, the day has a new aspect. Our hilarity has turned to silent reflection.

To-day we looked East in respect to the dead, gave thought to the many living victims of the world war, who gave their all for the freedom of the world—which we trust is for all time!
