One Symptom of Eye Strain

A person arises in the morning feeling fit and ready for anything. He starts to work with enthusiasm, but in two or three hours begins to lose his energy. This is particularly true of those who use their eyes for close work. If your eyes are a handicap to you, first we could convince you of the fact, then relieve you.

FIRST FIRE BRIGADE FORMED IN KINGSTON

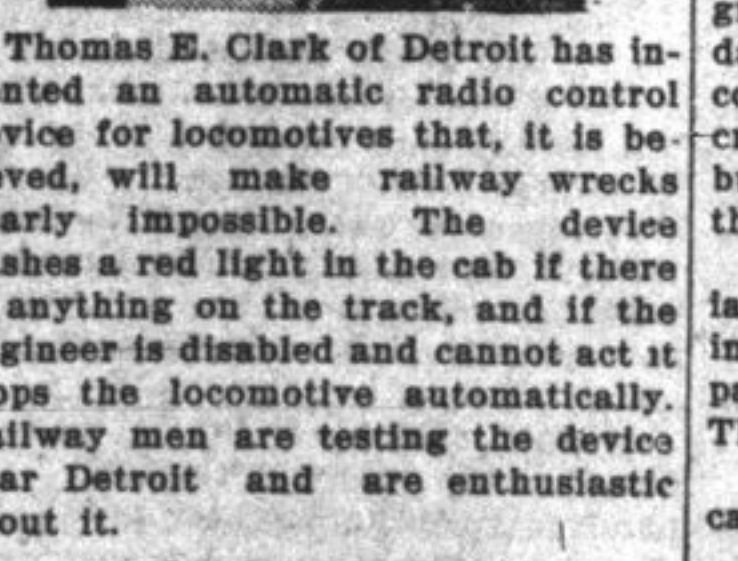

George Stockbridge Gives the Whig the Original Rules and Regulations.

A copy of the by-law authorizing the formation of the first fire brigade in the city of Kingston was recently received from Mr. George Stockbridge by the Whig. It is thought to be the only copy available in the city and is remarkably well preserved dating back to the year 1869. The rules and regulations are quaintly worded and deal mostly with the governing of the fire brigade, and define most explicitly the duty of each man on the permanent and volunteer forces.

The fire brigade of that time consisted of a chief engineer, first and second assistant engineers, three engine companies of not less than thirty men each, and not more than forty-five, inclusive of officers, one hook and ladder company of twenty men and a hose company of forty men, which was divided into four equal sections. Fire drill was held each month and the engineers were called to report to the city council after each practice.

When a fire occurred, every available bell in the city was sounded. Immediately on the alarm all licensed carters were called upon to carry water to the blaze. For the first puncheon of water to arrive at the fire, the carter received the sum of two dollars, for the second the sum of one dollar, and for all succeeding puncheons the sum of twenty-five cents. All carters were called upon to carry water to the fire as long as the chief engineer demanded. Needless to say at the least hint of a fire, the carters of the city were on the job. Special by-laws were passed to prevent interference of the companies, who used to compete for the honor of arriving at the fire first and since this was a cause of accidents to fire brigades, it was strictly forbidden.

A pamphlet of the rules and orders of the city council was also received from the same source. This dates back to 1863 and deals with the conducting of the affairs of the city. Both of these relics are very definite in their explanations and rules.

THOMAS E. CLARK

SAVES TRAINS

Thomas E. Clark of Detroit has invented an automatic radio control device for locomotives that, it is believed, will make railway wrecks nearly impossible. The device flashes a red light in the cab if there is anything on the track, and if the engineer is disabled and cannot act it stops the locomotive automatically. Railway men are testing the device near Detroit and are enthusiastic about it.

HELP WASH OUT KIDNEY POISON

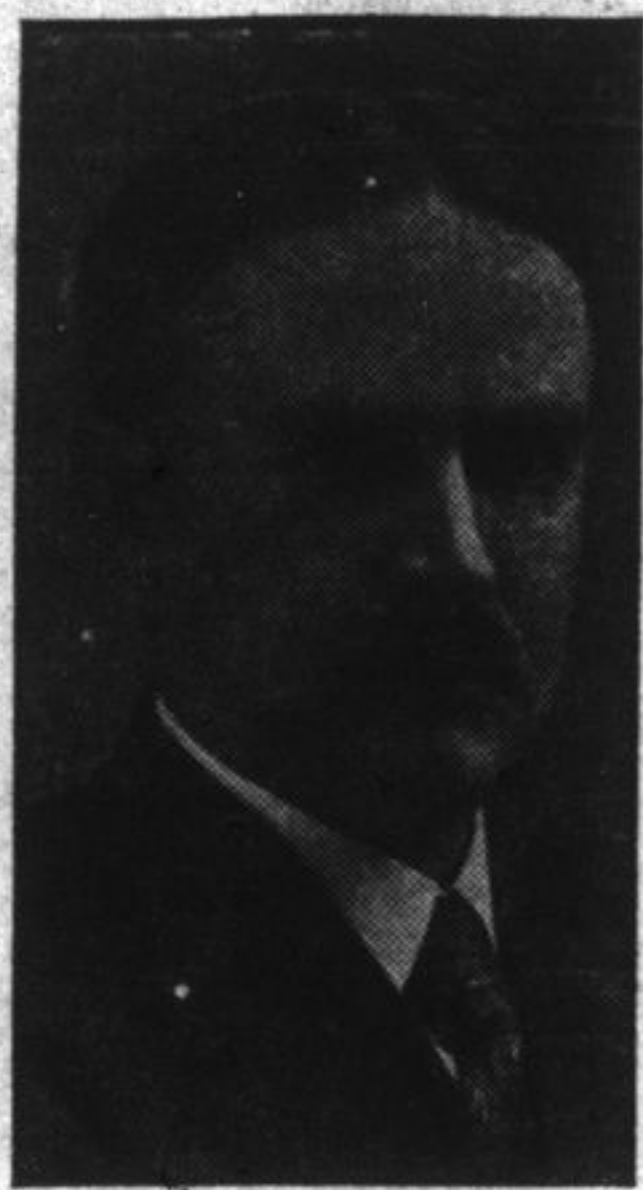

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Begin Taking Salts.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulate them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water — you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

DR. C. McCAMBRIDGE RECEIVES AN HONOR

Is Made a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons.

DR. CHARLES McCAMBRIDGE

Another of Kingston's sons has attained prominence in the medical world in the person of Dr. Charles McCambridge, son of Mrs. Catherine McCambridge, 396 Princess street. Dr. McCambridge has been made a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, which is the highest honor that can be conferred upon American surgeons. He was given the degree at the International Congress of Surgeons and Physicians at Philadelphia a short time ago.

Dr. McCambridge was born in Kingston and attended the old Christian Brothers' School and later the Kingston Collegiate Institute. He passed the high school entrance before he was eleven years of age. He attended Queen's University and after a brilliant course, graduated from there in 1898. Shortly after his graduation he left Kingston and went to Poughkeepsie, N.Y., where he has been practicing for the past twenty-six years, having a very large surgical practice in the district.

Dr. McCambridge was one of the four senior surgeons at St. Francis Hospital there, and he was associated with Dr. J. W. Poucher in his surgical sanitarium for ten years. His brother, Dr. James McCambridge, is also a graduate of Queen's University and is also in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., where he carries on a large eye and ear practice. He has been there for sixteen years. Another brother, Dr. Leonard McCambridge is an eye and ear specialist in Burlington, Vt.

All three brothers are well known in Kingston and the many friends of Dr. Charles McCambridge will be happy to learn of his recent recognition and extend to him hearty congratulations. His mother, Mrs. Catherine McCambridge, is justly proud of the honor that has come to her son. Incidentally, Mrs. McCambridge has been a reader of the Whig for over forty years.

KEMAL AGAIN UPSETS TURKISH TRADITION

President Asks Turkish Ladies at State Dance to Uncover Their Faces.

Angora, Nov. 12.—President Mustafa Kemal again has upset Turkish tradition. At his first official dinner dance, which was attended by all members of the Cabinet and their wives and also members of the diplomatic corps, the President made a speech in which he asked all the Turkish ladies present to uncover their faces and their entire heads.

The whole company then danced an old-time Turkish dance which Mustafa Kemal is anxious to make popular.

The men of the party also were bare headed, as the fez, formerly worn indoors as well as outside, is no longer permitted.

Renfrew Lost Its Case. Trustees of the Toronto General Hospital vs. Town of Renfrew—H. D. Gamble, K.C., for plaintiffs. A. J. Thompson for defendant. Action to recover $1,081.50 for maintenance of Isabel Stringer, in plaintiff's hospital from February 24th, 1923, to February 14th, 1925. Judgment: My opinion is that defendant municipality is liable for the maintenance of Isabel Stringer. It appears to be a hard case on defendant municipality, but there does not appear to be any escape if the objects of the Hospital and Charitable Institutions Act are to be kept in view. There will be judgment for plaintiffs for amount claimed and costs.

Best Thing of the Campaign. Last Friday, at Renfrew, a good-looking young woman met James Fennessy on the pavement and throwing her arms around his neck kissed him. People who witnessed the scene could scarcely credit their vision, and full confirmation was only forthcoming when Mr. Fennessy, blushing a rosy red, exclaimed "An election bet!" Then everybody thought it was quite all right. Mr. Fennessy had said to a certain person a day or two before the 29th that Dr. Maloney was to be elected. That person, while wanting the Eganville man elected very much indeed, saw no possibility of his return. "It be elected I will kiss you the first time I meet you," she declared, and she proved as good as her word. It was really the best thing Mr. Fennessy got out of the campaign.
