YOU CAN GET A SUIT

TAILORED TO YOUR MEASURE AT A REASONABLE PRICE

We are proving this to individuals every day — by turning out as good fitting suits as money can buy at prices that customers themselves admit are "reasonable." We'll be glad to prove it to you.

But the best thing about our Suits is not the reasonable price—it's the fit, finish and workmanship.

Styles are the last word of designers in 1925 fall models for men.

Your choice of a wide range of imported suitings — snappy patterns, conservative or extreme, as your taste dictates.

City and District

Thanksgiving Dinner and Concert.
Zion church tomorrow evening, 8 o'clock, 50c. (Concert only, at 8, 25c).

Will Not Appear.
Mr. W. N. Tilley, K.C., special crown prosecutor in the Peppall case at Toronto denies that Peter Smith will be taken up from Portsmouth penitentiary to give evidence.

With a New Company.
Mr. John F. Mackay, Toronto, who spoke at a men's banquet in Sydenham street church, two weeks ago, is a member of a new company to specialize in the organization and capitalization of corporations of the better class. The concern will operate under the name of Green, Mackay & Company, with offices in the Royal Bank Building.

Was Once in Penitentiary.
John Stanton, a former resident of St. Mary's, Ont., was found guilty in Winnipeg of the murder of John Penny on Dec. 12th, 1922. On June 17th, 1917, he was arrested in Toronto charged with false pretences and forgery to the amount of $600. He was found guilty and sentenced to two and one-half years in Portsmouth penitentiary.

Now at Verona.
Jack Williams, the Verona south-paw, who won fame in the Central Ontario League, and has of late been playing with the Asheville, N. C., of the Southern Atlantic Association, is now visiting at his old home at Verona. He expects to report to Asheville early in the spring, for another season's baseball, it is stated.

Greenley-Bailey Wedding.
The marriage of Florence, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey, Rowland avenue, Toronto, to Mr. Allan V. Greenley, Verona, took place quietly at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Dr. William F. Gunn. The bride and groom were unattended. The house was artistically decorated with palms, ferns, chrysanthemums. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Greenley left on a trip to points east.

Music in Worship.
Rev. Alexander MacMillan, D.D., secretary of the committee in church praise, spoke on Sunday evening at Chalmers' church on the part music played in the worship of God. He gave a historical outline of some hymns, and emphasized the proper place of music in worship. The true place of the choir was to express the worship of the congregation, first by praise to God, and secondly by the record of experience. Special music was given by the choir.

Big Bill for Mowat.
The patients and friends of Mowat Sanatorium are looking forward with pleasure to a feature programme on Thursday next, when they are to be given a "Scotch Night," which will be presented by James ("Scotty") Marshall, a general favorite among his overseas pals and known among the boys as "The Canadian Harry Lauder." Mr. Marshall will be ably assisted by his local troupe of Scotch entertainers.

Black Foxes Escaped.
Four valuable black foxes, the property of Bert Miller of Battersea, who carries on an extensive fox farming, escaped early Sunday morning. After some difficulty, and with the aid of the neighboring farmers, two of the animals were rounded up in a grapey. It was found necessary to shoot the two remaining animals, which were located in a woods, and could not be cornered. Mrs. Miller was in charge of the ranch in the absence of her husband, who was hunting in the north.

Death of J. A. Wagar, Oshawa.
John Albert Wagar, a pioneer of Lennox and Addington counties, but who has lately been residing in Oshawa, died at his home on the Kingston Road, on Friday, in his seventy-fourth year. Born in Lennox county, in 1852, he moved into Addington county at the age of six years. He remained on the farm he cleared for sixty-six years, moving to Oshawa three years ago. He was reeve of the township of Sheffield for twelve years. Last February he took a stroke and had not been well since. He leaves two sons, W. M. Wagar and J. M. Wagar, both of Oshawa, three sisters, Mrs. H. Keller, Camrose, Alberta; Mrs. A. Morton, Utica, N.Y., and Mrs. Joseph Huffman, Tamworth; three brothers, J. N. Wagar, Tamworth; J. L. Wagar, Enterprise, and Wellington Wagar, of Gladwin, Mich.

OBITUARY

Late Mrs. Frank Cobort.
The death of Minnie Dunlop, wife of Frank Cobort, and daughter of the late William Dunlop, formerly of Kingston, occurred very suddenly in Montreal on Saturday. The funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon on the arrival of the train from Montreal at 1.40 to Cataragui cemetery. Rev. W. T. G. Brown officiating. Funeral arrangements are in charge of the James Reid firm.

Two Burials.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Peck took place from the family residence, Cushehall, to Cataragui cemetery Saturday morning. Rev. Mr. Self officiating. The pall bearers were her two sons and her four nephews. The funeral was in charge of John Cornelius.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Peart took place from 33 Upper William street, to Cataragui cemetery Saturday afternoon. Rev. W. E. Kidd officiating. The pall bearers were sons and sons-in-law of the deceased. Funeral arrangements were in charge of John Cornelius.

Late Mrs. M. E. Hanscombe.
The death occurred on Saturday morning of Mrs. M. E. Hanscombe, widow of the late W. M. Hanscombe, at the home of her daughter, Lower Alfred street, in her eighty-ninth year. Deceased was a well-known resident of this city for fifty years, and was born in England. She was an Anglican in religion. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Joseph T. Eves, Raglan Road, Kingston; Mrs. E. Scuttin, Lower Alfred street, Kingston; Mrs. J. Delaney, Clayton, N.Y., and Mrs. T. Hughes, St. Paul, Minn.; also four sons, William, White River, Ont.; Thomas, Gananoque, and John and Charles, Chicago.

The funeral will take place Monday afternoon from her late residence, 71 Lower Alfred street, Rev. T. W. Savary officiating. Interment takes place at Cataragui cemetery.

Big B.C. Lumber Fire.
Prince Rupert, B.C., Nov. 16.—In the most spectacular blaze in the city's history nine million feet of lumber and part of the plant of the Prince Rupert Spruce Mills, Limited, were destroyed Saturday night with a loss unofficially estimated at $750,000.

An outstanding feature of the Toronto Winter Show competitions Saturday was the clean sweep by Manitoba in the creamery butter competitions. In five classes judged, Manitoba took first in every one, and in the first class in dairy butter judged a Manitoba woman also took first.
