What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions
"GRAUSTARK" AT CAPITOL.
 "Graustark," which opened at the Capitol Theatre yesterday, provides an ideal atmosphere for Norman Talmadge and Eugene O'Brien. The love-making and romantic adventures in the modernized version of the famous George Barr McCutcheon novel add new lustre to the distinguished career of Norma Talmadge.
 "Graustark" is the story of a mythical kingdom and absorbing adventures of the beautiful princess and her American lover places lovely Norma and her leading man in an ideal element.
 In the role of Princess Yelva, Miss Talmadge wears gowns and jewels that perfectly blend into the invigorating romance. Love and intrigue permeate the story that has delighted millions of fiction readers and now comes to the screen on a sumptuous scale.
 The big supporting cast includes such well known players as Marc McDermott, Roy D'Arcy, Albert Gran, Lillian Lawrence, Michael Vavitch, Frank Currier, Winter Hall and Wanda Hawley.

"BRINGING UP FATHER."
 At the Grand Theatre, starting Monday, Nov. 23rd, for one matinee and evening performance, the off-quoted "Let joy be unconfined" should be the rule of the entertainment. The attraction will be none other than that evergreen, yet highly diverting institution, "Bringing Up Father," fashioned for the stage after the famous cartoons of George McManus. This time "Father" will confine his adventures to New York and gayety as a consequence should run "riot," so to speak. A merry musical affair employing a champion beauty chorus and twenty pert and experienced and dependable comedians, singers, dancers engaged in the always spirited pursuit of dispensing bright and effervescent fun.

Napanee Assizes.
 When the High Court opened at Napanee Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, Sheriff Vandecort presented the presiding judge, Justice Kelly, with a pair of white gloves, there being no criminal cases. It is noted that in the past three years there has been but one criminal case in the County Court for Lennox and Addington.

Stolen Car Recovered.
 A seven passenger car, owned by Mrs. W. H. Comstock, which was stolen at Brockville on Friday evening, was recovered near Augusta. The police were on search of the car for two days and it was discovered by a farmer in a ditch near his home. The car was minus the tools and many accessories.

GO TO OTTAWA FRIDAY.
 "B" Battery, R.C.H.A., Will Give a Demonstration.
 On Friday, the officers and men of "B" Battery, R.C.H.A., will leave for Ottawa, to attend the Ottawa Winter Fair and Horse Show where they will give a demonstration of driving. The drive will be similar to that put on by the Royal Horse Artillery at the Royal Tournament, at Olympia, and Wembley. The exhibition will be given each evening, in front of the grand stand at the exhibition grounds. The officers and men will wear full dress pre-war uniforms, and will take with them four twelve-pound guns.
 A rehearsal will be held Wednesday afternoon, and a small crowd will be present. This is to make the horses familiar with work in front of an audience. Sergt. W. Satterington will be in charge of the drive, but there will be no directing during the demonstration. Sergt. Satterington will be assisted by Lieut. W. G. Evans of "B" Battery. The battery will be in Ottawa all the coming week. Cups will be presented to the three winning drivers, and the runners-up. This drive will be the main attraction at the Ottawa Winter Fair grand stand performance.
 The following officers are going to Ottawa to compete in the hunter and jumper class: "A" Battery, Major Carr, Lieut. Elliott; "B" Battery, Lieut. Evans and Lieut. Simmonds.

MAY NOT RECOVER.
 Mr. T. F. Reynolds is in a Very Critical Condition.
 Mr. T. F. Reynolds, one of the victims of the crossing accident at Ottawa on Friday, is not expected to live, by the doctors in attendance. It was hoped that if he could live through the night, that he would improve, but after spending a bad night, he has grown steadily worse this morning.
 Little hope is held for his recovery. All of his near relatives in Verona have left for Smith's Falls. It is understood that the main cause of anxiety is, that blood poisoning and pneumonia have set in. Mrs. Reynolds, although badly bruised and cut, is very much improved and is able to walk around. She is at present in Smith's Falls, attending her husband. Mrs. C. C. Craig, and her daughter are at home and are steadily recovering from the shock and minor cuts.

PLAYED INDOOR BASEBALL.
 The officers of the P.W.O.R. motored to Belleville Monday night, where they played the officers of the Argyle Light Infantry a friendly game of indoor baseball. After arriving in Belleville, they lunched at the Quinte hotel and then proceeded to the armories, where the game took place. The local officers were defeated by a small margin, but the game was fast and productive of snappy ball. The officers enjoyed their trip very much, and will look forward for the return match to be played here.

RADIO CURES DEAFNESS
 Atlantic City, Nov. 17.—The wall of silence which has surrounded Mrs. Grace Tompkins for the past fifty years has been shattered by the voice of W.P.G.
 Mrs. Tompkins, who has been deaf since she was seven years old, credits her astonishing return to hearing to radio.
 During the fifty years of her deafness she has been able to discern only high pitched sounds.
 Mrs. Tompkins placed the radio phones over her head and heard W.P.G. broadcasting the "National Emblem March." It was this concert, she claims, that enabled her to regain her hearing.

SPORT
A SUCCESSFUL PRINCIPAL.
 Dr. G. W. Morden Holds High Place in Profession.
 Picton Gazette.
 Gilbert Watworth Morden was born in Picton on May 10th, 1867. Confederation year. He was the eldest son of the late Dr. James Barker Morden and Agnes Gilbert. His father was a well known medical practitioner who resided for many years in Picton in the house now owned by Mr. W. R. Browne which was built by Dr. Morden. On his father's side he was descended from two of the pioneer families of this county, the Mordens and Noxons, and on his mother's side from another well known family, the Gilberts.
 After matriculating from the Picton High School he entered Queen's University, Kingston, graduating with honors in science after a brilliant course. Adopting the teaching profession he filled the position of science master in Napanee and Picton Colleges with distinction for some years. Deciding on post graduate work he attended the Pennsylvania University at Philadelphia and on completion of this course taught for a time in Gedroe school, Philadelphia, an institution conducted under the auspices of the Society of Friends. Resigning from this position he went to Europe spending a couple of years there continuing his studies at a German University and graduating with the degree of Doctor of Science.
 On his return to Canada he accepted a position on the staff of the Manitoba Agricultural College at Winnipeg as professor in charge of the Science Department. In the summer of 1914 he went to England and was there when the war broke out. One of the allies difficulties in the early days of the war was a shortage of chemical supplies. The airplane was being developed and there were no factories under allied control for the manufacture of the cellulose acetate used in treating airplane wings. It was necessary to begin the manufacture of this substance in England and Dr. Morden was called overseas and was sent to Basle, Switzerland, where he learned the process of manufacture. Returning to England he was put in charge of an immense factory at Derby, where there were over 7,000 employees. This work he continued until after the close of the war. Returning to Canada he re-entered the teaching profession and for the last few years has been principal of Napanee Collegiate. Under his direction the school has been most successful. The attendance increased so greatly that it was found necessary to enlarge the building and this summer a large addition was erected providing the much needed extra class room as well as a fine gymnasium and an enlarged assembly room. The attendance is now near the 300 mark, an increase of fifty per cent. since Dr. Morden took charge.
 While he has specialized in science Dr. Morden has a wide range of scholastic attainments. He is a good linguist and speaks French and German and reads Spanish and Italian. He has a good working acquaintance with shorthand and the typewriter. He has travelled extensively and his illustrated travel lectures are much in demand. Dr. Morden is an enthusiastic Mason.
 Although most of his time has been spent away from his home town there are few who keep closer in touch with the place of his birth and early associations. He is a frequent and welcome visitor among his old Picton friends.

WINDSOR BEER PARLORS LOSING MUCH MONEY
 The Vendors of 4.4 Face a Loss of $100,000 on Six Months' Sale.
 Windsor, Nov. 17.—Cobwebs are in the windows, rats scamper under the tables and bellini's notices are on the locked doors of some of Windsor's 4.4 cafes and clubs yesterday, after a six-month experiment with the decimal draught. Provincial police officials estimate the loss to the proprietors at more than $100,000.
 Of 88 restaurants located within several blocks of the Windsor ferry docks 14 have closed and the sales of those which remain open do not average a case of beer a week, according to their proprietors. The majority of these restaurants were operating before the new beer was on sale. Four of the 10 clubs licensed, also within easy reach of the ferry dock, and patrons from Detroit and elaborately furnished, have closed their doors.

IN CONFUSION OVER WATERWAY PROJECT
 But Public Opinion in Canada and U.S. Is Near Crystallization.
 Winnipeg, Nov. 17.—The present situation with respect to the St. Lawrence waterway project finds the citizens and public bodies in both countries in some confusion, declared Brig.-Gen. C. H. Mitchell of the Toronto Board of Trade at the Dominion conference of Board of Trade and Chambers of Commerce here.
 "It can hardly be said," he continued, "that public opinion in either country has yet reached a state of crystallization, but it appears to be not far off."
 General Mitchell said that the St. Lawrence river and Great Lakes were union assets of the North American continent, the assets of which Canada was the majority shareholder and as such had a grave responsibility in the administration and conservation of their resources.
 "Commercially," said General Mitchell, "free and adequate access from the sea to the interior of the country has unlimited possibilities."
