COMPLETE LIST OF OFFICIALS GIVEN

Dave Harding to Be a Touch-line Judge—Bows to Act.

Toronto, Nov. 19.—President John DeGruchy of the C.R.U. last night announced the complete list of officials who will act at the game, as follows:

Referee—Reg. DeGruchy, Toronto.

Umpire—Joe O'Brien, Montreal.

Head linesman—Frank Shaughnessy, McGill.

Penalty timekeeper—Dr. John McCollum, Toronto.

Timers—James Bews, Queen's, and W. E. Hill, Balmly Beach.

Touchline judges—Dave Harding, Camp Borden, and Joe Breen, Argonauts.

Yardsticks—Cap Coleman and Dug Dow, Varsity.

An effort will be made to keep the public posted regarding the penalties, and the C.R.U. has accepted the offer of services tendered by President Elwood Hughes of the Ontario Branch of the A.A.U. of C., who will announce to the fans the reasons for the various penalties imposed on the two teams during the game. This should help a lot, as there is considerable lack of knowledge regarding penalties among the rank and file of rugby followers. Both teams have sent in their certified lists of players to the C.R.U., Queen's having 27, including a number of the members of the intermediate team, and the O.R.F.U. champions two less. The players who are eligible for the game and their numbers are:

1. Batstone (O)	1. Smith
2. Chantler	2. Ponton

OTTAWA CONFIDENT OF TEAM'S CHANCES

Compare Smooth Working Queen's to Hard Plugging Senators.

Ottawa, Nov. 19.—It is assumed that Queen's will defeat Balmly Beach next Saturday, and it is also assumed that the next game will be in Ottawa with Senators. With these probabilities in mind, the rugby strategists are beginning to consider Senators' chances. On the bare face of the idea many pooh pooh Ottawa's pretensions, and point to the amazing record set by Queen's in recent years. Their loud and scornful chuckle at the mere idea may be a mischievous gesture for them, but delve deeper into the idea and Ottawa's chances don't look so paltry as those dopesters may think.

Admit that Queen's are the greatest set team of them all. Grant the fact that Leadley and Batstone are wonder men, and that Chantler and Voss are "almost" as good. Assent to the suggestion that Walker and Thomas are the two most wonderful outside wings, and that "Red" McKelvey has no equal as a plunger. Assume that for co-ordination Queen's cannot be beaten, and top all these undoubted facts with the assertion that Hughes is a wizard as a coach. On the face of it, doesn't it look like an irresistible combination? Pursuing that train of thought, the natural conclusion comes, "how much will Queen's win by?"

That's the side of the picture, and a very alluring one for those who like to string with the perpetual winner. Try and offset this with the following: Ottawa are a big team and they are a "fighting" team. There isn't an ounce of quit in the whole outfit. They are a 50-minute aggregation, and they are a smarter team than the Interprovincial has shown since the Argo team of 1921, which had Batstone and "Shrimp" Cochrane as generals, and Conacher as mainstay. That Tubman-Miller combination is a combination that even Leadley and Batstone have to step to excel. In Lynch, Ottawa has a rare field general. Lynch will be able to divine Queen's plays, and set in motion a defence against them. Additionally, he leads an unknown quantity and one that will undoubtedly make Queen's jumpy.

With the Bowlers at The Frontenac Alleys

The Industrial League got away to a start on Wednesday evening and there was a very good gathering. The Drygoods—started off with three straight games from Weber No. 1, while E. Chown's won two from Weber No. 2. Coca Cola won two from Boyd's Garage. The scoring was as follows:

Webber's No. 1.	7	120	125	312
Turner	83	144	144	376
Holland	182	119	237	538

led every team in the Interprovincial. The last ten minutes of every game has seen Ottawa riding rough shod all over opponents. True, Ottawa may be slow starters, but there is no doubt of their finishing powers. Thomas and Walker, on the ends, will no doubt have more polish than Starr and Young, but will they be able to handle them as they did the weak McGill outsiders, the inexperienced Varsity dud, and the less capable Montreal ends?

Can Queen's show such a brace of defensive players as Connell and Emerson, two who will rampage through the game, tearing aside opposition, and wedging their way through to break up attacks? Leadley will not outkick Joe Tubman, though he may outdrop him. Batstone will undoubtedly flame through the line many a time, but Leadley may elect to kick and take no chance on Ottawa's tornado tackling.

Queen's swinging buck, their fake play through centre on a kick formation, and their extended runs may not go so good against the Senatorial type of game. It's a plodding and methodical game, but it's mighty effective. Queen's line is not reputed to be the strongest in the college union. If holes are broken through it there are the possibilities of Mohan and Timmis ripping their way for huge gains. Ottawa are a real good tackling team, and a good tackling team will go a long way. They are the strongest and most perfectly conditioned team Queen's have faced in a long time. They will guard against Queen's making a runaway in the first 10 minutes of the game, and on a hard road they may spring many a surprise. Add to this the fact that Dave McCann has made a special study of the Queen's style of play, and the Tricolor, great and all as they are, will likely meet foemen well worthy of their steel.

COACHES PLAY IMPORTANT PART ON COLLEGE RUGBY.

Everything else being equal in football, the team with the best coach wins.

Coaching is a delicate task despite a somewhat popular impression that the leader of football men is steered by some Bessemer process, has an onion for a heart, and uses acid for a mouth wash.

In the old days of football when yards were measured by the pound, that type of grid coach may have been necessary. But in this enlightened era a thought and a nimble foot, as well as a stock of mind, count for more sometimes than a great pressure on the scale beam.

Players have the poundage, occasionally a nimble foot, and sometimes a thought. It is the business of the football coach to utilize the weight, educate the foot, encourage the thought, and create a state of mind.

It frequently occurs that two teams take the field equal in weight, agility, and ability to think.

The rival coaches operate within these two groups as Szevalis of the sidelines. They furnish the plays, guide the selection of movements, and inculcate the spirit which favors the whole.

The coach who can give his players everything in advance that any other mentor can provide and who can add an additional ounce of courage or smartness will usually walk off with the victory because of the additional ounce.

Mentors proceed in different manners, and usually they are successful in the ratio that they are true to themselves.

McGILL MEET ST. MIKES.

McGill intermediates, champions of the local section of the Intercollegiate Rugby Union's intermediate series and victors over Queen's in the first of the eliminations for the college title, leave to-night for Toronto where they will meet St. Michael's College team to-morrow afternoon at Varsity stadium in the first of a home-and-home series for the crown and the right to enter the play-downs for the Dominion intermediate championship.

In St. Mike's McGill will meet stiff opposition and it is expected that the game will develop into a battle of back divisions. The return game will be played at the McGill stadium on Saturday, November 19th.

POTATOES MAY SELL AT $5 BAG HERE

Some of the Farmers Are Buying Potatoes for Their Own Use.

That potatoes will be over $5.00 per bag before very long, was the prediction of the farmers at the market Thursday morning. Some of the farmers have been forced to buy their "spuds" for the winter. When it comes to this, what are the city people going to do? When the fact was mentioned that potatoes were likely to go to $10 a bag, the farmers declared that they could not be sold at that price, no matter how scarce they become. The cause of the present shortage is due to the fact, that the potatoes were not dug before the wet period. When they are dug from the wet soil they commence to rot within two weeks. There were not more than twenty-five bags of potatoes on the market Thursday morning.

HOTELKEEPERS SORE OVER BEER LOSSES

They Have No Good Word to Say of the Ferguson Government Action.

Local hotelmen, when interviewed Thursday morning about the closing of their beverage rooms, and the sale of 4.4 were indignant over what they termed a "bungler" made by the Ferguson government, in the handling of their 4.4 beer. One hotelman stated that the whole thing has been a fiasco from start to finish. A bill of expense to the hotelmen, and in many cases heavy losses had been suffered locally. He himself lost over $200. Other hotelmen reported losses ranging from $200 to $500, and they declared that the government should make restitution to the proprietors, who had suffered. It would have been better if the 2.5 beer had been retained.

There are about fifteen hundred places in the province in which the beverage is sold and the estimated total losses to hotelmen range anywhere from $100,000 to $200,000. This does not include the alterations made to premises, and the cost of equipment, but only the loss incurred through lack of market of the beverage.

Six out of the eight local hotels have discontinued the sale of the beer and all declared that they wished that they had never experimented with the new beverage.
