SCALDS & Other Home Accidents

THE real danger of a burn or scald is that when outer skin is damaged or removed, the sensitive raw flesh is exposed to the inflammatory action of air and poisonous disease-germs.

The first thing to do to avert blood-poison and ulceration is to instantly apply Zam-Buk. This ends all swelling and inflammation—

Does That Cough Stick On Your Lungs?
Mr. Islay MacNab, Bognor, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with a terrible cough that I could not get rid of, and my doctor told me that I had a slight touch of bronchitis. Nothing I took seemed to give me any relief until I got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup
I got such relief by using it that I would advise all those who are subject to bad colds or coughs to keep a bottle of this remedy in their homes all the time.

You don't experiment when you buy "Dr. Wood's" as it has been a household remedy for the past 37 years.

JENKINS-VANLUVEN WEDDING AT NAPANEE

A Big Social Event in the St. Mary Magdalene Church Thursday Evening.

Napanee, Nov. 26.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Thursday evening at nine o'clock in St. Mary Magdalene church, when Miss Elizabeth Marie Van Luven, younger daughter of the late Franklyn Elmore Van Luven and Mrs. Van Luven, became the bride of Mr. John Wilber Jenkins, of New York, son of the late Rev. John Wilber Jenkins and Mrs. Jenkins, of Raleigh, North Carolina. The church was beautifully decorated with yellow and orchid chrysanthemums on the altar and chancel, and the pews for the guests were tied with white satin ribbon. The wedding music was rendered by a full supplied choir, which sang, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden."

The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Rural Dean J. H. H. Coleman. The bride entered the church on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Ernest Wright, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. J. E. Madden, and was given away by her mother. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Helen Van Luven. Mr. George T. Jenkins of Baltimore, Md., acted as groomsmen, and the ushers were Mr. Arthur Bird, Toronto; Dr. Fletcher B. Sharp, Toronto; Mr. Gordon Miller, Guelph; and Mr. Kenneth Ham, Napanee.

Mr. Harold Rathbun, of Deseronto, sang "Beloved It Is Morn'" during the signing of the register. The bride wore a gown of ivory enfleur velvet pompadour, with insets of ivory moire georgette, and the court train was lined with plush georgette. Her tulle veil was arranged with a bandeau of orange blossom and she carried a shower bouquet of butterfly roses and valley-lilies, and wore silver shoes and stockings.

The bridesmaid's gown was of pale apricot pompadour satin with draperies and gold trimmings, and black picture hat trimmed with gold ribbon and lace, wearing gold shoes and stockings and carried a bouquet of ophelia roses.

Mrs. Vanluven, mother of the bride, wore a gown of orchid and silver florentine velvet, with silver lace and trimmings and ornament, and silver shoes and stockings and black hat with silver lace and trimmings and corsage bouquet of ophelia roses and orchids.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother on John street. The drawing room and living room were decorated with yellow and orchid mums. A buffet supper was served in the dining room. The supper table looked very attractive done in pink and white, with smilax and roses.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins left by train for New York, the bride travelling in a smart dress of grey hat crepe. A blue needle point coat, trimmed with grey squirrel and lined with grey crepe to match the dress, grey shoes and stockings, grey gloves and purse and a chic hat of blue trimmed with silver and grey squirrel.

A reception will be given in New York city on Saturday evening at 375-74th street. After a honeymoon spent in the south, Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins will make their home in New York city.

The bride received many beautiful and costly gifts, showing the high esteem in which she is held. The groom's gift to the bride was a bracelet of diamonds and sapphires, and to the bridesmaid a bracelet and ring of silver set with carnelians, and to Mrs. Van Luven a topaz pendant, and to the groomsmen a moss agate ring set in silver. To each of the ushers he presented rings of Chinese granite set in silver, and to Mrs. Madden a necklace of rock crystals, and to Mr. Rathbun a pin seal leather folder with key ring.

Following is a list of the guests who were present at the wedding: Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Holden, Mr. Jack Holden, Mr. James Wright, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Thompson from Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mathews, Mr. R. G. Dobbs, Mr. Gordon Mills, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Willis, J. C. Johnston, Montreal; J. C. Johnston, Dr. F. E. Johnston, Mr. Geo. Comstock, Mrs. Reg. Wilkinson, Mr. Roland Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. A. Tomlinson and Miss Mildred Tomlinson, Mrs. C. H. Wartman, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Buffham, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Stewart, Mr. Leonard Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. William Dibb, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Garrett and Miss Marjorie Keyes, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. E. Graham, of Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. William Joyner, Hespeler; Mr. and Mrs. William Blodgett, Buffalo; Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Renton, Dr. C. O. O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Van Luven, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Van Luven, Mr. and Mrs. Sidnee Wagar, Enterprise; Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Byers, Gananoque; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burpee, St. John, N.B.; Mrs. R. P. Wright, Dresden; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Van Luven, Canton, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wright, Wallaceburg; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Williams, Palm Beach, Florida; Mr. Marvin Rathbun, Mr. Harold Rathbun, Deseronto; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Van Luven, Napanee; Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Dunn, Brockville, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hurd, New York; Mr. Douglas Dolter and Miss Marjorie Dolter, Toronto.

PITTSFERRY BUDGET.

Death of Oliver Pretty Has Caused Widespread Regret.

Pittserry, Nov. 27.—A large number from here attended the poultry fair on Tuesday and Wednesday. Miss Emma Scott, Kingston, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Scott. Mrs. William Brook is able to be out again after her recent illness. The St. Lawrence W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Robert Brash, on Wednesday afternoon.

William McPadden and William Brash have had a new pipeless furnace installed in their homes recently. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McPadden and children motored to Athens on Sunday and spent the day with friends there. Mr. and Mrs. John Cooke, Evans Mills, N.Y., spent the week-end with Mrs. E. Orr and family. William McMasters' have purchased a Ford car.

A number from here attended the funeral in Kingston Monday of the late John Wilmot, Newmarket. Deceased was well known here, as he was a resident of Pittsburgh for many years.

John McMaster has returned home from deer hunting and brought with him a fine deer.

A gloom was cast over this community on Friday last, when it was known that death had claimed as its victim, the late Oliver Pretty, Mr. Pretty had been in poor health for the past eight or nine months, but his death came as a shock to his many friends.

The funeral was held at the residence of his son-in-law, John F. McMaster, on Monday at 1 p.m. to Willow Bank cemetery. Rev. Mr. Duncan, Kingston, had charge of the funeral service. The pall-bearers were: Ross McMaster, Alvin McMasters, grandsons of the deceased; Herbert Hampton, Gananoque, Wm. Venness, Wolfe Island; George Friend and Thomas Friend, Wolfe Island. He leaves to mourn his loss a loving wife and one daughter, Mrs. John L. McMaster.

The late Mr. Pretty was born in Kingston in 1837, where the market building now stands. After his marriage he lived for some time in the United States, and from there moved to Wolfe Island, after which he moved to the farm his son-in-law now owns, where he spent the remainder of his life. Deceased was eighty-eight years old.

DEATH AT NEWBORO.

Mrs. John R. Wight Had Been Resident of That Place Fifty Years.
Newboro, Nov. 27.—Newboro lost one of its oldest and most highly respected residents on Wednesday, November 25th, in the person of Mrs. John R. Wight, who passed away at her home, Simico street. Deceased was in her eighty-first year and had lived in the village for the past fifty years. In religion deceased was a Methodist, member of the Women's Institute. Mrs. Wight was well and favorably known, and had a host of friends, and when in health her house was always open to all who wished to enter. She was kind to everyone, and it would be hard to enumerate her many acts of charity. Much sympathy is expressed by all to her aged husband, who is the sole survivor. Her family of two sons and two daughters passed away a number of years ago.

ROCKFIELD REPORTS.

A Bee Held to Raise Sheds of United Church.
Rockfield, Nov. 25.—The weather man has been giving us some cooler weather and some slight snow flurries recently. Mrs. W. H. Warren, Kenneth and Miss Jean Warren were Sunday guests of Mrs. Ray White, Caintown. Several from here attended the funeral of the late Ross Loney at Gananoque yesterday. Mrs. Gordon Warren and children visited friends in Warburton this week.

The bee at the United Church on Monday for raising the sheds and repairing the wall underneath was well attended and the sheds are in much better condition than they have been for some time. J. McCrae, Moose Creek, Ont., is spending the week at L. O. Warren's. The young people are practising for a Christmas entertainment. The local Oddfellows are looking forward to their annual "At Home" to be held in Mallorytown on Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon

Are To Close The Locks.

Chaffey's Locks, Nov. 26.—Lockmaster Fleming and his assistant are preparing to close the locks. Miss Helen Davis, delegate for the Chaffey's Locks Women's Institute branch, returned from Ottawa, where she attended the convention last week. R. J. Fleming and E. Lee, Toronto, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fleming. E. L. Fleming is spending some time in Montreal with his sister, Mrs. M. H. Kiernan. Mrs. J. W. Simmons is in Ottawa with her daughter, Mary, who is ill. Mrs. W. W. Whipple has closed her grocery store and intends spending the winter months in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Out at Mississippi.
Mississippi, Nov. 27.—We are sorry to report that Mrs. W. A. Godden and Mrs. J. St. Pierre are on the sick list and we hope for a speedy recovery. Miss Dick, our teacher, is engaged training the school children for a Christmas tree and concert, which will be held on Dec. 18th. Bob Gibson and a gang of men, moved to Calabogie from here yesterday. William Riddell, of Port McNichol, spent the week-end at his home here. Mr. Thomas Dowdell is spending a few days with relatives around Bollingbrook and Althorpe. Lawrence Hanna and Arthur St. Pierre have gone to work for J. H. Fair's, Watson's Corners.

In One Hour

This sparkling drink flushes out the poisons

Some mornings bring to some of us deplorable conditions. They mean days of dizziness, depression or unfitness. They result from clogging of the system with poisons and waste. Find out how easy it is to correct them. Drink a glass of water, hot or cold. Add a little Jad Salts. It will make a sparkling, pleasant drink. That drink will flush the intestines. In an hour all conditions will change. Instead of a lost day, you will have a day at your best. The results come in a gentle, natural way. They come from acids of lemon and grape with lithia, etc. And they are at your command every hour of the day—whenever you feel the need. Ask your druggist for Jad Salts to-day.
