Her Liver Was Bad And She Felt Tired and Depressed
Mrs. M. Siefert, Grosvenor, Sask. writes: "I was greatly disturbed by pains in my liver, and felt tired and depressed most of the time. One day I read about
Milburn's LAXA-LIVER PILLS
and the next time I went to town I bought four vials of them.
I have used them regularly, and after two months' use I feel like an entirely different woman.
Now, I always recommend them to any of my friends who are troubled as I was."
There's only one "Laxa-Liver Pills" and that's the one put up, for the past 32 years, by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Entertained Ladies' Aid.
Maple Grove, Nov. 30.—A large number from here attended the tea meeting at Sand Hill. Alexander McLean has returned home after spending a few days in Ottawa in connection with the poultry exhibition there. On Thursday the Ladies' Aid motored to Lansdowne and spent the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Myron A. Kyes. The members were delightfully entertained after the regular business meeting. It was decided to hold a social evening in the form of a masquerade at the home of Mrs. James Bell this week. The hostess then served lunch and a pleasant half hour was spent over the tea cups. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dempster spent Sunday at James Thompson's; Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Abrams at Osburn Abrams'.
Death of a Resident.
Harrington, Nov. 30.—Mr. Loyd Sr., passed away this morning at the home of George Brown. His daughter was in attendance for several days. She was sent for as soon as he was taken ill. He was in his eighty-third year. Gordon Babcock has gone to Niagara Falls, N.Y. Mrs. Daniel Freeman is visiting in Kemptonville for a couple of weeks. Keitha Moore is visiting at Wilton. The children are all back at school after the holidays; no new cases. The Sunday school is practicing for Christmas. The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at Mrs. Earl Leonard's. The Women's Missionary Society met at Miss Minnie Campbell's.

EVERYBODY HAPPY OUT AT NORTHBROOK
Sleighing, Skating and Tobogganing—Foxes and Rabbits Reported Plentiful.
Northbrook, Nov. 30.—Roads are in fine condition for sleighs, motors or wheels. S. G. Both motored to Renfrew for the week-end, returning to-day to the Ore Chimney mines. Mrs. Sanford Thompson visited Mrs. E. Godfrey last week. Trappers are reporting good success. Foxes and rabbits seem plentiful. Toboggans and skis are in demand again and joyous evenings are spent by young and old.
J. L. Lloyd is home after a week in the Bannockburn district on business. John Both, of Kingston, is spending the winter with his brother William. An eye specialist has been making local calls and causing the blind to see.
The people are pleased to have telephone connections with Harlowe and trust the men will complete putting the line in condition. John Fluke, of Plezna, purchased the heavy draft team from the Cobalt Frontenac Mining Company.
Mr. Aubrey Benn lost his valuable cattle dog while driving a herd near Tweed. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Thompson spent Sunday at William Thompson's. Harlowe. Many attended the dance in Flinton hall, Friday night. A. E. Fletcher is in Hamilton attending an Ore Chimney mine directors' meeting. Born, Nov. 22nd, to Mr. and Mrs. Austin Boomhove, a son.
The dance at Mr. Guess Ellis's was well attended.
Christopher Woodcock is in very poor health and his many friends fear for his recovery since he is now over one hundred and thirteen years of age. Mrs. Boren, of Kingston, is spending a few weeks with Mrs. Charles Rutan. A few friends of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Fox, including Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Thompson, Mrs. J. L. Lloyd, Mrs. Mayfield and Mrs. C. Cassada spent Thursday evening enjoying the radio.
A number of car radiators have been destroyed by leaving water in these cold nights. Water has been causing considerable trouble at the Ore Chimney mine shaft, since they opened the rich ore bearing vein on that drift.

MUCH REGRETTED DEATH.
Simon McHolland, Newburgh, Found On the Roadside.
Newburgh, Nov. 30.—The people of this place were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Simon McHolland. He was returning with a load of hay from his farm, two miles north of the village, when he was found lying by the roadside in an unconscious condition. He was brought to Dr. Mounce's office, where he soon passed away. It is thought that he fell from the load in a fainting spell. The funeral took place on Saturday at the Anglican church, Rev. Mr. Spencer conducting the service. Two brothers remain, William, of this place, and James, Peterboro.

YARKER FACTORY RUNNING FULL TIME
Good Supply of Water Reported in the Napanee River.
Yarker, Dec. 2.—The factory is receiving orders and is running full time. The public school scholars are practicing for a concert to be given in the near future.
Quite a number of farmers are holding their potatoes until spring. S. Winter is building a new ice house.
The Ladies' Aid well deserve the thanks of Yarker people in their meeting all expenses of the new hall here. The hall was extended twenty-four feet.
Mrs. Charles has gone to Kingston for the winter. Coke is coming into general use here. The Napanee river has now a plentiful supply of water, and is running well over the dams.
Mrs. F. C. Benjamin, of Goodwater, Sask., will winter here.
J. C. Connolly will leave on an extended visit to Florida. J. Tweedell of Kingston will go with him.
William Dunn of Oronto, spent a few days in Yarker.
The remains of the late Mrs. William Simpkins were laid to rest in Yarker cemetery Saturday last.
Clifford Redden and wife met with an accident while driving to Yarker, which might have resulted seriously to both of them. They were in a cutter and in a narrow part of the road. The wheel of the buggy caught the side of the cutter, and overturned it. The horse bolted to run, but Mr. Redden held the reins and ran the animal into the fence. Mr. and Mrs. Redden escaped being injured, but the cutter was damaged.
One birth, one wedding and one death occurred here in a few day's time.
The wife of Mr. Fred Snider, a son, Ruby Lakens and Ernest Lovelock were united in marriage. Mrs. William Simpkins died at the residence of her son here.
F. R. Winter returned to Minneapolis. John Winter returned to Carroll, Man. Mrs. R. J. Skinner returned to Toronto.
Mr. M. Foster is still confined to his home owing to illness.
The League Hall is now completed and is open for entertainments. The first will be held on Friday, Dec. 4th.

IS SHOWING IMPROVEMENT.
Vern Windover, Selby, Is in Kingston Hospital.
Selby, Nov. 30.—The League intends giving a debate on Friday night. Vern Windover, who is critically ill in the General Hospital, Kingston, we are glad to report is better at times of writing. Mr. and Mrs. D. McCutcheon and Mr. Edgar spent Sunday at R. Dougan's, Newburgh. The remains of the late Mrs. McFarlane were laid to rest in the cemetery here on Thursday last. Miss F. Ballance spent some time at Madoc, with her sister, Mrs. Aylsworth. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson at I. Anderson's; J. Richmond at G. Richmond's; Miss Hudgin at D. Denton's; Mr. and Mrs. Booth and son at J. E. Hudgin's.

At Oso Station.
Oso Station, Dec. 1.—The recent snow storm has made the roads very good for sleighs. The dance held in the hall on Thursday night was a great success. The young people here have organized a young people's club, and are holding meetings every Friday night in the Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. John S. Bourk and daughter, Doris, spent Sunday afternoon at Joseph Warren. Mr. and Mrs. George Dart and daughter, Frances, are visiting at William Conboy's. The young people are practicing for a concert to be held on Dec. 22nd. Mr. Sam Swain, of Glenvale, spent a few days with friends here. Mr. Alex McVeigh spent a few days last week in Kingston. Mr. Joseph A. Bourk has purchased a Ford car. Mr. Hilliard Bourk has returned to Rochester, after spending a few weeks with friends here. Mr. and Mrs. John L. Bourk spent Sunday afternoon at Joseph Warren's. Miss Laura Conboy and Miss Margaret Sheridan spent Sunday at William Conboy's.

Married at Moscow.
Moscow, Nov. 30.—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Darling, on Wednesday, Nov. 25th, a quiet wedding took place when their youngest daughter, Carmelita Maude, became the bride of Mr. Trevor C. Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Armstrong, Vars, Ont. Rev. G. T. McKenzie conducted the ceremony. The bride wore her travelling dress of brown charmeuse relieved with touches of sand flat crepe, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and baby's breath. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. After a dainty luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong left for a short trip by motor to Toronto and Oshawa before going to their home at Vars, Ont. Friends from a distance included Miss Innes Armstrong, Vars, and Mr. P. Armstrong, Carleton Place.
