Canton Euchre and Dance.
Those who received invitations kindly note that same are good for a series. Next one Friday, Dec. 4th.

Raised a Long Parsnip.
E. C. Greenfield raised in his garden on the East Lake road, near Picton, a parsnip which measured 41 1-2 inches in length. At least, that may inches were extracted, but the end of the root remained in the ground.

Called to England.
Mrs. James K. Hackett, who with her husband, the famous actor, spent much of the time during the past summer at their home, "Zeada," Clayton, N.Y., has been called to England by the serious illness of her brother, Major Beckley.

Elected By Acclamation.
The Board of Education in Brockville had its members for 1926 elected by acclamation. They are Messrs. G. A. Wright, G. C. Howison, W. J. Manahan, E. J. Smith, G. E. Johnston, W. T. Rogers and W. F. Reynolds.

Knitting Mill to Start Again.
The Almonte Knitting Mill, shut down for some time, will shortly be in full operation again, and the news has given satisfaction. The starting up of the Red Mill brings the manufacturing of Almonte back to normal. W. M. Whitehead, Toronto, a gentleman of large experience, has been appointed superintendent.

Long Time a Member.
Mr. J. G. Elliott, re-elected as a member of Board of Education, has held office since 1892, a period of thirty-three years, and about as long as any other trustee has served in the past one hundred years. Mr. Elliott has been on the board during the building of Victoria, Frontenac, Macdonald, Robert Meek and now Rideau schools. The Collegiate Institute has also had extensive additions made in his day.

Choral Society Concert.
Of Mr. Alfred Heather, the assisting artist at the Society's Concert in Grant Hall, on Dec. 8th, the English press says:

"With the tenor solo, 'Onaway, Awake, Beloved,' Mr. Heather made a great effect, and the enthusiasm which followed his delivery of this favorite number was something more than a tribute to the beauty of the music." (Daily Telegraph London).

Honored by Friends.
On the eve of her departure for Kingston where she becomes cashier in the district head office of the Bell Telephone Co., Miss Hazel Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, Brockville, was presented with a handsome club bag by the staff of the Brockville telephone exchange. Miss Moore was also the recipient of a Duofold pencil from the teachers and officers of the St. John's church Sunday school and of an ivory hand mirror from the members of St. John's church choir.

Over 26,400 Boxes Boarded.
The Perth Cheese Board had twenty-six meetings this year, the same number as last year, opening on May 22nd and closing on November 20th. The total number of boxes registered on the Board for this year was 36,418 as compared with 33,174 boxes registered last year, an increase this year of 2,194 boxes. The lowest price paid this year was 17 3-16 cents and the highest price was 24 3-8 cents paid on October 2nd. The highest price paid last year was 17 3-8 cents and the lowest 14 1-2 cents.

Euchre and Dance.
The Loyal Britons held a very enjoyable euchre and dance in the Orange hall on Tuesday evening. There was a large attendance, about twenty-one tables in play. The ladies' first prize was won by Mrs. P. Turner and the gentlemen's first by Mr. Turcotte. Ladies' consolation won by Mrs. Huffman and gentlemen's consolation by Mr. C. Saunders. The Salisbury orchestra was in attendance, and refreshments were served after the games.

Col. Miller Honored.
Col. A. P. Miller, D.S.O., M.C., of Peterboro, who in September last was elected to represent Military District No. 3 on the Provincial Executive of the Canadian Legion, was elected in Winnipeg on Nov. 28th to represent the province of Ontario, in the Dominion Command of the Canadian Legion. Col. Miller, together with Dr. Sharpe, of Brandon, were by popular vote elected to the gigantic task of writing all the returned soldiers of Ontario into the new Dominion-wide organization. Col. Miller is well known in Kingston, being a graduate of the Royal Military College and was also one of the original officers of the 21st Battalion.

WEATHER SURPRISES.
November 30th Coldest on Record—Rainfall Twice Average.

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—Weather reports for November are replete with surprises. While Monday, the last day of the month, was the coldest day on record in 36 years with a temperature of 11 degrees below zero, recorded at the Experimental Farm early in the day, the November snowfall of this year was far below the average for the same period. The rainfall, on the other hand, was almost twice the average of the preceding 35 years.

The figures for last November are as follows: Snowfall, 4.10 inches; rainfall, 3.09 inches; average temperature, 32 degrees above; highest temperature, 55 above, and lowest, 11 below on November 30th.

Presentations Made.
At a meeting of the Y's Men's Club held on Tuesday night, the winners of the City Soft Ball League were presented with a cup by the president of the league, F. Kinneer, was in the chair, and made the presentations. Manager Watt, of the Frontenac Regiment team, winners of the City League, received the cup on behalf of the club. The cup was offered by "Wally" Cusick. Walter Musselman presented medals to the winners of the road races held on Thanksgiving Day. The T. A. Kidd cup was presented to S. Trenouth, winner of the five-mile race and the Nelles Shield. Medals were presented to I. E. Revelle and W. J. Tweedle, winners of two and three mile events.
