Attractive Penitentiaries.
"Lex" writes to the Montreal Gazette wondering if it is necessary or wise that the superintendent of the Canadian penitentiaries should tell the public, including the criminally-inclined public, that "penitentiary accommodation is better than ninety-nine per cent of the hotels in Canada, excepting those in the larger towns and cities." It may be Mr. Hughes is entitled to assert his efficiency as a penitentiary superintendent; surely he is not attempting to compete with the ninety-nine per cent of the hotels.

INSTALLATION CEREMONY

Held by Hugh de Pavens Preceptory, Knights Templar.

Last night was a gala night in the Masonic Temple, it being the annual installation of the officers of Hugh de Pavens Preceptory, Knights Templar. After the installation ceremony, which was largely attended, the knights assembled in the large banquet hall of the Temple. The entertainment was provided by the Silver Star Pierrot Troupe, of which Madame Pomeroy is musical director and H. W. Thomas, manager. The programme presented by this organization was of a valued musical character and was much enjoyed. Mr. Thomas and his troupe are making a big hit wherever they appear and proved unusually pleasing to the large number who heard them last evening.

APPEAL TO THE ELECTORS.
By James Halliday, Candidate For Public Utilities Commission. To the Electors:

Owing to the impossibility of making a personal canvass, the undersigned desires to take this opportunity of inviting your support. For the past two years I was requested to stand for Commissioner, but at that time being a resident of Portsmouth and Reeve of the village, I was obliged to decline; now, however, being a resident of Kingston, I will be pleased to serve the people in the above capacity. Permit me to say that I have no personal interest in seeking this position, other than obtaining for the citizens all possible benefit from this splendid department of public service.

Yours truly,
JAMES HALLIDAY.

A CORRECTION.

F. W. Smith Did Not Offer $1,000 To Settle Up.
In connection with the evidence in the case of J. F. Leatherland, former treasurer of the Township of Kingston, and F. W. Smith, it is pointed out by Mr. Smith that, contrary to a report published, he did not admit having offered Reeve C. J. Graham $1,000 to settle up the shortage.

Mr. Smith, however, said, he did say to other people that to save his name, he would lose $1,000. This statement was made to Mr. Graham by Mr. Smith. Mr. Smith also declared that the Township of Kingston owed him the sum of $300 for two years' collections and $20 for postage.
