THE WILTON CHEESE FACTORY HAS CLOSED

The Odessa Factory Still Going—Many Farmers Taking Surplus Milk There.

Wilton, Dec. 12.—The Wilton cheese factory closed its doors on Thursday, after a very successful season. The popular cheese-maker, Eldridge Babcock, has been here a number of years, always giving satisfaction by making No. 1 cheese.

There are many farmers who have more milk than can be made into butter at home and they are taking it to Odessa, as the Odessa factory is still making cheese.
The many friends of Mrs. Stuart Simmons will be pleased to know her operation was very successful, and Mrs. Simmons is doing nicely, expecting in a couple of weeks to be home again. Some four or five weeks ago their son, Delbert, had an arm broken cranking the car.
The Sunday school scholars are preparing for a Christmas entertainment. Rev. Mr. McQuade was busy calling on his people through here last week. Rev. Mr. McMilligan has returned home after attending the funeral of his father at Maxwell.

The people in this place received a great shock by hearing of the sudden death of Alonso Snider, who was a former resident of this vicinity.
Mrs. John McDonald has rented part of the R. N. Storms house and is moving in.
Mr. and Mrs. Mills, Rev. McMilligan and R. N. Lapum attended the Presbytery in Kingston on Tuesday, Dec. 8th. Mrs. H. Metzler, Toronto, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. Assestine. Mr. Elwood Thompson, Lorne Ferguson, Mrs. Lorne Storms and family, Inverary, are at John E. Storms'. Miss Ila Storms of the Business College, Kingston, spent the week-end with her grandparents.

The poultry raisers all took their poultry to Napanee and realized a good price. All came home well satisfied.
Mrs. Alberton Babcock, Kingston, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Fremont Mills. Buntia Storms is spending a few days with Stuart Simmons. Mrs. Ben Mills is somewhat improved.
Mrs. Ward, who had a very bad fall, breaking two ribs and receiving other minor bruises, is still confined to her bed. Mrs. J. B. Sanderson is in attendance.
The Ladies' Institute meeting had to be postponed on the account of the president having to attend the funeral of Mr. Snider. Reeve Peters is on the sick list. A goodly number of Wiltonites attended the fowl supper at Odessa.

Died in Winnipeg.
Word was received at Frankville of the sudden death in Winnipeg of Charles Steen. Mr. Steen left Frankville some thirty years ago and had been employed in the railroad offices in Winnipeg ever since. But he had made frequent visits home, having been home two years ago for a month's holidays. The news of his death was a great shock to his friends and relatives, among whom are: Mrs. James Mitchell, Mrs. Joseph Coad, William Steen and Odeon Steen, all of Frankville.

The Youths Dismissed.
At a previous sitting of the county court at Brockville, a true bill had been returned against Frank White and William Flynn, both of South Crosby, for house breaking and burglary of cottages at Jones' Falls. This week it was announced that the private prosecution had withdrawn the charge and asked that the accused be dismissed. Judge Dowling, after giving good advice to the accused, dismissed the case.

A Regretted Death.
The friends of Mrs. Jessie Bell, Newbliss, regret her passing after a short illness, she being the fourth one of her family to die in less than six months. She was highly respected and always had a pleasant word for everyone. She leaves one son.

Mr. Evans Box, Calabogie, has left to spend the winter in Rouyn, where he will take a position in the Box & Huebner store.

Deceased Had Resided in Bath for Many Years.
Bath, Dec. 12.—On Friday Miss Elizabeth M. Hoselton, who made her home with the late John and Mrs. Hoselton for thirty years, passed away after a lingering illness of many years. Deceased was a sister of the late Gaylord W. Hoselton, and a daughter of Nancy and Hiram Hoselton, born at Chatauque, N.Y., November 18th, 1836, and only lacked a few days of being eighty-nine years of age. In early childhood she, with her parents, moved to Bath, from which place she later moved to Drayton, N.D. Miss Hoselton was a member of the Methodist church.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. John Hoselton, and the high esteem in which she was held by relatives and friends was shown by the large number who attended to pay their last life of respects to the deceased. Rev. S. E. Fairham conducted the services. Interment was made in the Drayton cemetery Sunday afternoon.

Miss Hoselton is survived by a sister, Mrs. Howe, of Winnebago, Minn., and a brother, Clarence Hoselton, of Weyerhaeuser, Wis. Others who will mourn her loss are Mrs. John Hoselton and family, who have taken care of and ministered unto her during the declining years of her life.

LATE MISS HOSELTON.

The Late John W. Moxley.
John W. Moxley, an esteemed resident of Escott township, died on Dec. 2nd, at the advanced age of eighty-three years. Deceased was born at the Union, Lansdown, being of Irish ancestry. While a young man Mr. Moxley bought a farm in Escott where he had resided ever since. He was twice married, first to Melvina Hutchinson, to whom was born two daughters, now deceased, and one son Norris, residing at Waterton, Escott. Mrs. Moxley, the surviving widow, was Rebecca Ruttle, of Escott. There are two grandsons, Leonard and Elmer Moxley, who have lived for some time with the deceased.

Mother Goose's Fair Daughter.

Mrs. Edgar H. Jinks, who lives on a Prince Edward County farm, near Concession, hasn't a goose which lays golden eggs, but she has a bird, she claims, which can outlay most of the species around that section of the Province in so far as the natural article is concerned. This bird, a small gray goose, had laid up to Nov. 24th, this fall, thirty-five large-sized eggs, which required as a container the services of an eleven-quart fruit basket. The same bird laid twenty-two eggs the fall of 1924, and added to her laurels with a spring production of thirteen.

Celebrated Silver Wedding.

On Nov. 21st, Warden and Mrs. R. N. McCreary entertained relatives and friends to dinner at their home at Pakenham in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. Twenty-five years ago Robert McCreary and Miss Edna Elliott were married at Pakenham, by Rev. W. E. Reynolds, the resident Methodist minister, and began their home life on the farm on which they still reside. To them were born two sons and three daughters, all of whom were present, with the exception of their son Robert, attending Queen's University.

Eignsburg Events.

Eignsburg, Dec. 11.—Wednesday night a successful tea and sale was held in E. H. Stover's hall, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid. Over twenty-eight dollars were cleared. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Irwin and children, Beamsville, are visiting their parents here. The Y.P.S. met as usual to-night. The young people were entertained at an informal dance by Melville King last Thursday evening.

Transferred to Smith's Falls.

A. F. Mason, Brantford, transferred to Smith's Falls as superintendent of the district of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, to succeed E. Orr, was in town during the latter part of the week. Mr. Mason returned to Brantford and with Mrs. Mason and his family of five motored down to Smith's Falls.

Celebrated His Birthday.

James Shannon, Newburgh, celebrated his eightieth birthday on Dec. 5th. In honor of the event a number of the younger set called at his home and spent the evening with him and his estimable wife. Mr. Shannon particularly enjoyed the evening, and indulged in card playing with those present.

Asking for Funds.

Specific appropriations for Lake Ontario harbor projects recommended by General Taylor to Congress were Great Soda Bay, $59,500; Little Soda Bay, $8,000; Oswego harbor, $22,000; Charlotte harbor, $14,000; Cape Vincent harbor, $500, and Ogdensburg, $4,000.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Buell, Brockville, announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Vera Langdon, to Harold William, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Swain, Brockville, the marriage to take place at the end of December.

Taking Time by Forelock.
The Hull family Historical Association met in Picton on Saturday to arrange for next summer's reunion at Picton and Adolphustown.
