TELEPHONE OPERATOR GIVEN A "SHOWER"

At Mallorytown Previous to Her Marriage—An Entertainment at Caintown.

Mallorytown, Dec. 19.—Miss Helena Hefferman, the exceedingly popular and very obliging and efficient telephone operator at the Mallorytown central, whose marriage is shortly to take place, was "showered" on Monday night.

Mr. Johnston called the friends to order. With considerable feeling, the object of all this kindly regard thanked her many friends for their gifts and good wishes. Refreshments and dancing followed.

The work of an operator on a rural-phone line is often a very trying and usually a thankless task. Miss Hefferman, not only did her duty and did it well but gave a service obligingly in-entire of what we could claim.

A very nice entertainment was given by the Young People's League at Caintown on Wednesday evening. Songs were sung by Taylor Franklin, Sandy Muir, Jimmy Groom, George Henderson. Recitations and readings were given by Mrs. Blaine Dicksey, Ruth Clark, Shirley Dickey, Vera Scott, Ruby Haid, Eileen Miller and Doris Miller, also an address by the pastor on "The Fulfillment of the Law."

Light refreshments followed the programme.

Henry McDonald is in attendance at the Brown, Bigelow convention in Buffalo.

GANANOQUE

Gananoque, Dec. 21.—Word was received here Saturday evening from Rochester, N.Y., by Dick Johnson that his brother Charles had died there after a long illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Spicer will spend Christmas with the former's parents in Detroit, Mich., and will be there for the wedding of Miss Spicer, which will take place shortly.

Mr. Junkin, formerly with the Milk Products Company, spent a few days here at the week-end on route to Montreal from Alaska.

The death occurred suddenly Saturday evening of W. J. Nuttall, Charles street. Mr. Nuttall was up town in the morning for a shave, though was not feeling very well, and at four o'clock had a heart attack to which he succumbed about seven.

Mr. Nuttall was a former resident of South Lake, but for the past fourteen years has lived a retired life here. He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Theresa Fair and of this union there are four daughters surviving.

Miss Nellie Kirke, who has been visiting friends in Toronto and Detroit for the past several weeks, returned home Saturday.

Miss Nellie Hanley has returned after spending the past few weeks with friends in Belleville, Oshawa and Toronto.

Mrs. Walker, who has been with friends in Chicago for some time, arrived here Saturday to spend Christmas with her sister, Mrs. W. B. Mudge.

Miss Kathleen Kirke, on the Separate School staff, Toronto, is spending her vacation here with her parents.

Kenneth Johnson, Beloit, Wis., is home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Johnston, for the festive season. Mr. Johnston is professor of political science in Beloit College.

Bill Baker, Toronto, was in town on Saturday paying a flying visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baker.

Mrs. Pelow, Rome, N.Y., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. Patch. Rev. Father Ryan left on Saturday, arrived to fill the place of curate to Father Hanley. Before leaving Father Ryan was presented with a club bag by the Tennis Club of St. John's church, which owed its organization to him.

Midnight mass will be celebrated in St. John's church Christmas Eve.
