Bank Clearings.
The following are the figures of the Kingston Bankers' Clearing House: For the week ending December 24th, 1924, $802,664; corresponding week, 1924, $752,571.

Kiwanis Activities.
The annual meeting of the Kiwanis Club is being held on Monday night at six o'clock and the reports of chairmen of various committees will be presented and the officers elected for 1925. It is not expected there will be any speaker that night.

Very Small Saturday Market.
There was a very small market on Saturday morning. At ten o'clock there were only a couple of farmers on the square and a dozen or more were in the island market. There were a few chickens offered at $2.50 per pair, and eggs sold at from 65 to 70 cents a dozen.

Critically Ill.
Dr. Robert S. Minnes, noted Ottawa eye, ear, throat and nose specialist, who has been critically ill, was reported as slightly improved Saturday morning and some hope is held out for his recovery. His brothers, Mr. William T. and Mr. James A. Minnes, of Kingston, went to Ottawa yesterday.

Police Court Brevities.
Christmas Day was a quiet day with the police. Two men who were gathered in on the charge of being under the influence of liquor, were each fined $10 and costs by Ald. R. E. Kent, acting for Magistrate Farrell, who is out of the city. Both the offenders stated that they went under as a result of drinking beer.

At St. James' Church.
On Christmas morning, services were held in St. James' church. Special music was rendered by the choir and a short Christmas sermon, dealing with Christmas from all its aspects, was delivered by the Rev. T. W. Savary, the rector. The choir sang an anthem, entitled "Christians Awake," and the service was brought to a close by the "Te Deum."

Died Aged Ninety-One.
Mrs. Elizabeth Price, one of Brockville's oldest residents died Thursday, after an illness of two months, in her ninety-first year. She was a native of Ireland, but came to Canada when a little girl residing in Cardinal and Prescott before coming to Brockville 75 years ago. A grown-up family of two sons and three daughters survive.

At Home for Aged.
Through the kindness of the ladies of the First Baptist church, the patients of the Home for the Aged enjoyed a Christmas tree Thursday evening. The tree was beautifully decorated, each patient received a present from it. The evening proved a very enjoyable one, and the patients and staff are thankful to the ladies in charge of the event. Mrs. Williams was the convener of the committee.

Civic Health Committee.
The members of the Civic Health Committee held their final meeting of the year on Thursday afternoon, and disposed of routine business.

Before the meeting adjourned, a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the chairman, Ald. William Driscoll, for the able manner in which he has carried out his duties during the year. The committee had a most successful year.

Y.M.C.A. Activities.
The Y.M.C.A. Christmas programme was started on Saturday morning, with a large attendance of juniors, whose special day it was. At nine o'clock, the juniors had a swim, gymnastic work, and a basketball tournament commenced at ten o'clock. The boys were treated to a "movie" show before they went home at noon. This was the greatest "hit" of the programme, all of which was enjoyed by the beginners.

Glenburnie Separate School.
A successful Christmas tree and concert was held at the Glenburnie Separate School on December 22nd. The programme, consisting of dialogues, recitations, "songs" and choruses, displayed the splendid talent of the pupils. Much credit is due their teacher, Miss McCann, Westport, for the splendid training of the pupils. Rev. Dr. Casey Kingston Mills, acted as chairman in his usual amiable manner. The Santa Claus distributed the presents from a well-laden tree, refreshments were served by the ladies of the section.

Lots of Shinplasters.
Citizens who were this week seeking the old-fashioned "shinplaster" to fill the chink in the very tip of the children's stockings may be astonished to hear that there are plenty of twenty-five cent notes in circulation in Canada. To be exact, $294,175. The reason that they are hard to get is probably that they are so handy for some classes of business that they circulate in exclusive channels. Many of them are lying in the bond transfer offices of the Department of Finance, at Ottawa, where they are handy because they can be pinned to a bond and just cover the fee for transference. Many others are used by mail order shoppers in the rural districts of Canada.

Friends of Sir Basil Thompson.
under arrest at London on a serious charge, hint that he may accuse detractors of "frame up."

DAILY MEMORANDUM.
Band at Palace Hotel this afternoon and tomorrow.
Lecture at House of Providence, Magdalen evening at 8 o'clock.

THREE MEN KILLED AT NEW YORK DANCE

Likely the Result of a Quarrel Over the Choice of Partners.

New York, Dec. 26.—Three unidentified men were shot and killed early today as the climax of a Christmas dance at the Adonis Social Club, a South Brooklyn resort. The police believe that the men came at midnight to the club where dancing was going on. They were accompanied by girls, and it is believed that a quarrel arose between the strangers and the dancers over the choice of partners. The triple crime was discovered when a policeman found one of the bodies lying in a street and two others in a hall nearby, amid broken furniture, which had apparently been wrecked in a terrible struggle. The hall was deserted.

A CHRISTMAS DIFFICULTY.

Scotsmen's Demand for Three Penny Bit Taxes Mint.
London, Dec. 26.—Scotsmen prefer the "wee three-penny bit"—six cents—to other small coins and thereby cause a good deal of trouble to the royal mint, whose comptroller has just issued his annual report pointing out this fact. The comptroller states: "The position as regards the three-penny piece is a peculiar one. It is certainly in demand in certain parts of the country, and especially north of the Tweed. It is unpopular in England, and particularly in London. But apparently the Scotsman, when visiting London, provides himself with a large supply of this nimble little piece, since stocks of it constantly are accumulating in the London banks. Arrangements have been made to counterbalance this process by passing the demands from Scotland on the London banks."
When the comptroller's report was published here some surprise was caused. One Londoner remarked: "Since when have Scotsmen called a coin worth threepence a small coin?"

WHIG AD FINDS
LOST SIGNET RING.

On Wednesday last a lady advertised in The Whig for a man's signet ring which had been lost. The ring was found on Princess street by a student, who returned it to her Thursday morning. Through the medium of The Whig the lady secured something that was very valuable to her.
