News From District Places

A KINDLY FAREWELL TO W. F. B. FITZGERALD

The Masons of Lansdowne Gave Him Gift and a Happy Send Off.

Lansdowne, Jan. 2.—On Thursday, 31st, Lansdowne Lodge A.F. and A.M. held a social evening in honor of Mr. Fitzgerald, the Worshipful Master of the Lodge, who is being transferred to Meaford, Ont., as manager of the branch of the Bank of Toronto there.

The toastmaster in conclusion said "that our loss was another's gain" and he extended him the best wishes of the community in general for his future success.

Mr. Fitzgerald arose to reply amidst the singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" and "See Him Smiling Just Now."

Among the other speakers were Mr. Bro. E. R. Bradley, D. H. Haig, W. G. Johnson who expressed most kindly feelings for the guest of the evening, after which the proceedings were brought to a close by the Junior Warden's toast, and the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

Mr. Fitzgerald was then put into a chair and carried shoulder high to the station, leaving on the midnight train for his future home, with a volley of cheers from his friends who had assembled at the station to wish him, "bon voyage."

Successful Entertainment.

Findlay Station, Jan. 1.—A very successful entertainment was held in the church on Monday night. The programme was given by the day school scholars assisted by some of the Sunday school. Much credit is due Miss Campsall for the way the children were trained.
