S. B. ROLLINS IS REEVE

The Result of the Municipal Election in Tweed.

Tweed, Jan. 4.—S. B. Rollins was elected reeve of Tweed, today, with a majority of 174 over D. M. Morrison, editor of The Tweed News.

A quiet wedding was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garfett, on Dec. 30th, when their daughter, Florence, was united in marriage to Rev. Earl D. Saxsmith, Queensboro.

Miss Edith Grills, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murney, Chapman, was united in marriage to Guy Bradshaw, on Wednesday morning. They will reside in Tweed.

Mrs. Russell Fawcett has been seriously ill for some time. A little baby girl has come to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beatty. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher passed away on Monday last, aged one year and eight months.

Drawing Up Wood.

Charleston, Jan. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. E. Foster have returned to Brockville. Mr. and Mrs. T. Hefferman and family entertained a number of their young friends and neighbors at a very enjoyable dancing party on Thursday night. A number from here attended the Orangemen's dance, at Athens, on Monday night, also the concert on Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. T. McConnell were Sunday visitors at Mrs. Mulvanna's. Some of the young folks attended the dance at Portland on New Year's night. The farmers are taking the advantage of the good sleighing and getting up their wood.

Cheese Factory Closed.

Bloomfield, Jan. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Partelle, Winnipeg, are visiting his brother, Clayton Partelle. The cheese factory finished the season's operations on Dec. 31st, after handling the largest amount of milk in its history. John Mallory broke his arm while cranking his car. Howard Leavens evaporator is still running.
