

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

- Horizontal.
- To halt.
  - Custom which has prevailed for generations.
  - Seven plus three.
  - Pair of horses drawing a wagon.
  - Portal.
  - Second note in scale.
  - Joint.
  - Consisting of three.
  - Falsifier.
  - Broken coat of arms.
  - Portable bed.
  - Quiet.
  - A portion of the foot.
  - A twelve-inch measure.
  - Identical.
  - Granted facts.
  - Common ganget.
  - To lease.
  - To examine.
  - To desire.
  - Permanent disfigurement.
  - To rise above the sky line.
  - Portuguese money.
  - Alleged force producing hypnotism.
  - Pieces out.
  - Tidy.
  - Therefor.
  - Metal in rock.
  - Bad.
  - Male progenitor.
  - Portion of school year.
  - Thought.
  - A pointed missile.
  - To forbid.
  - Toward sea.
  - To stay.
  - Paid publicity.
  - Nights.
  - Lairs.
  - Point of compass.
  - Fearful.
  - Enemies.
  - Era.
  - Measure of capacity.
  - Country.
  - Perished.
- Vertical.
- Emphasise.
  - Tiny golf mound.
  - Upon.
  - To rip.
  - Battering machine.
  - Part of verb to be.
  - Pertaining to perfection of kind.
  - Rent asunder.
  - Forecasting the future.
  - Wild duck.
  - Confinement.
  - Muteness.
  - Sedition.
  - Derivatives of acetylenes.
  - Similar to lemons.
  - Pepper nut.
  - Sailor.
  - Headgear.
  - To propel a boat.
  - To seize.
  - Digits of the foot.
  - American fall sport.
  - Changed.
  - Girls.
  - Great fear.
  - Walls of a room.
  - Street cars.
  - Sea eagle.
  - Meadow.
  - Age.
  - Tincture.
  - To affirm.
  - Long grass.
  - To require.
  - Female sheep.
  - To put on.
  - Preposition of place.
  - Fourth note in scale.
  - Three-toed sloth.

Answer to Thursday's Crossword Puzzle.

G. A. AYLESWORTH IS REEVE.

Quite a Lively Municipal Election in Newburgh.
Newburgh, Jan. 6.—Once again Christmas has come and gone with its usual merriment. Several from a distance were visiting friends while others were away visiting. School re-opened on Monday, teachers all were on duty, while pupils were also ready for another three months drill. Election was rather brisk. The councillors were elected by acclamation, while for reeveship there were two candidates, T. McNeely, former reeve, while George A. Aylesworth. The latter gained the election by a small majority.
Young People's League in the United Church was well attended on Monday night. The members of the Anglican Church gave an at home in the Standard bank hall, on Tuesday night. Miss Beatrice Switzer left on Monday to take a business course at Kingston Business College. The warm weather has caused the sports on the rink to cease. It had just opened and was great sport for the young.

Livingstone Miller left on the 5th, for Oshawa, where he intends working in the General Motors factory. The ladies of the Missionary Society meet at the parsonage today and had a very profitable meeting. Some being taken in as life members. Light refreshments were served. Miss Eva Bray, Toronto, is visiting her brother, Rev. Gordon Bray.

The Late Mrs. Babcock.
Deyo's Corners, Jan. 7.—Mrs. Babcock of this place passed peacefully away on Wednesday, Dec. 23rd. The deceased is survived by four sons and three daughters, Mrs. Mary Hughes of Deyo's Corners, Mrs. Sarah Morey of High Falls; Mrs. Jane Charlton of Kingston; Salvens Deyo of Desert Lake; Amos Deyo of Oak Flats; John Deyo of High Falls; Sidney Deyo of Deyo's Corners, and also one sister, Mrs. Wilton Knowlton of Kingston. She also has three brothers, William Kelch of Cochrane, Hiram Kelch of Coe Hill, and Amos Kelch of Verona. The deceased was a Free Methodist in religion and will be greatly missed among the members of the church at Deyo's Corners.

Crown Prince Carol of Rumania, who resigned his rights to his country's throne, is believed to have done so to return to Zizi Lamburnu, former wife (above). Zizi, a commoner, married Carol during the war, but in 1920 King Ferdinand induced Carol to annul the marriage and wed Princess Helena of Greece. Now Carol and Helena will be divorced, despatches say, and he will remarry Zizi.

A FIRE AVERTED.

It Broke Out in Tanworth Electric Light Plant.

Tanworth, Jan. 7.—The death of Minnie H. McDowall occurred on Wednesday morning. The funeral will take place from her late residence to Christ's Church at 10.30 o'clock Friday morning. What might have been a serious fire was averted at the electric light plant this week. A large belt slipped off a pulley causing friction and starting a fire which caused little damage. A light going out gave the alarm and Mr. Carecallan soon had the flames under control by dashing water on them. Prayer service is being held this week in the educational hall. The school teachers have resumed their duties after enjoying the Christmas holidays. Miss M. Mulligan has returned to Toronto to resume her studies at the University of Toronto. Miss E. Floyd has returned to Queen's University after spending Christmas with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. White had a very pleasant visit with her daughter, Mrs. E. Johnston, Cherry Valley. A great many farmers are still running their cars. J. A. Hunter and Ray Van Loven, Kingston, were in town on business. D. B. Floyd went to Kingston on Tuesday on a business trip. Percy York has taken over the local bakery. Mrs. A. Gillum is teaching school at Lime Lake.

Bongard's Brief Notes.

Bongard's Jan. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith, Toronto, were recent guests at Thomas Bongard's. Miss Gussie Blakely has returned to resume duties at S. S. No. 3. Miss McGuire, near Perth, has been engaged as teacher at S. S. No. 2 for the ensuing year. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hawker have returned after spending Christmas holidays with relatives at Bancroft.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Pierce, Waupoos, were guests at W. B. Pierce's on New Year's Day. Miss Rosa Eaton has returned to her school at Bancroft to resume duties. Thomas Bongard, J. Turner and Allan Harrison have new radios installed.

War is a time when you're helpless without merchant ships; peace is a time when you're helpless without them. Championship lawn tennis recently was played by artificial light for the first time at Queen's Club, London.

Something Worth Waiting For!

Orthophonic Victors are "coming through" as rapidly as Victor Standards, with their highly skilled craftsmen, will permit.

EVERY HOUR of the twenty four, we are carefully, deftly, expertly completing Orthophonic Victors already spoken for.

In the entire Dominion, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, music lovers whose requests have been placed far in advance are fondly waiting for their model of this famous new instrument; waiting because they have determined not to compromise,—determined not to be content with less than the miracle revealed to them at the demonstration.

You may have to wait a little while for the delivery of your instrument, but you may experience today the new delights which this unbelievable invention paints so charmingly in pictures of sound.

The miracle of the Orthophonic Victor is being re-enacted daily, from early morning until late at night, at every "His Master's Voice" Dealer. A demonstration now, means a new conception of music for you. Your order now, means an Orthophonic Victor in your home sooner.

Do not delay;—but go today!

The New

Orthophonic Victor

"True in Sound"

Victor Talking Machine Company

of Canada, Limited

Sole Agents for Scotland Woolen Mills Co.

SUITS and OVERCOATS $25 MADE-TO-MEASURE

THE CLUB, Men's Wear 3 Doors Below Grand Theatre