DAIRYMEN PAID VISIT HEMLOCK STOCK FARM

Delegates to Convention Were Impressed With Conditions at This Dairy Farm Plant.

A party of about forty of the delegates to the Dairymen's Convention, which met in the city on Wednesday and Thursday, took the opportunity to visit the Hemlock Park Stock Farm on Thursday afternoon.

They were transported to the farm in motor busses and were shown over the institution by Mr. W. J. Fair and the farm manager.

Although these men had heard very glowing accounts of this farm, they were more than delighted in what they saw. Many expressed themselves as never having seen a dairy farm plant that could equal it, and they felt that the dairy industry in Eastern Ontario would receive a decided stimulus from the fact that dairy farmers would be able to get the finest strain of Holstein cattle from this farm to build up their own herds.

COMMUNITY HALL OPENED AT GLENBURNIE

UNITED CHURCH LOYAL TO BRITISH THRONE

Delegation From the New Body Conveys Greeting to Governor-General.

Ottawa, Jan. 5.—Loyalty to the King and to Canada is expressed in two addresses brought to Government House yesterday by a delegation representing the United Church of Canada. The addresses are to His Majesty the King and His Excellency the Governor-General respectively. They convey the expressions of loyalty and goodwill made at the First General Council of the Church in Toronto.

The address to the King assures His Majesty that the United Church "is one with every other branch of the Christian church throughout the Empire in our desire and purpose to make supreme in the manifold life of the British commonwealth those principles of liberty, righteousness and justice on which your throne has always securely rested."

Lack of space hampers the international expansion of Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto. It is a queer world, and the few men who have the true look of greatness don't amount to much. It is said a burnt child dreads the fire. At least a newly-married man avoids his old flames. Another very good intelligence test is the effort to entertain yourself.
