"Honest advertising is news which the public must have to supply its wants to the best advantage." A good definition and one that fits our store publicity as closely as its skin fits a peach.

GREAT WINTER CLEARANCE SALE NOW GOING ON!

Get the good habit of trading here—it is here that you are positive of a saving on every item you purchase.

We do not run sales every other week—only at the close of each season to make room for the incoming season's merchandise, as our space will positively not permit us to carry goods over from one season to another. Our Mid-Winter CLEARANCE SALE is now in full swing, where you can be assured of good BARGAINS from our REGULAR STOCK. We do not buy job lots or seconds for sale purposes, but you have the choice of our own HIGH GRADE STOCK of Men's Clothing to choose from. Our space being limited, forces us to clear our stock out, at the close of each season. If you have never attended one of these sales, attend this one and learn what one of OUR SALES MEAN. Take your purchase home—look it over—if you are not satisfied, BRING BACK THE GOODS, and we will promptly and pleasantly refund your purchase price.

THE WELLINGTON I.O.F. INSTALLATION

Women's Institute Holds Tea to Raise Money for Public Library.

Wellington, Jan. 15.—I.O.F. Lodge, No. 412, met at the lodge room, which is over the town hall, on Thursday evening, Jan. 7th. D. D.G.M. James Duckworth and Grant Way, W. Ransom and W. Rolles, of Belleville, were the installing officers. Those installed were: N.G., Royce Wiltse; V.G., Percy Archard; recording secretary, E. L. Hubbs; treasurer, W. D. Bedell; financial secretary, S. Christie; warden, Alexander Tait; conductor, Barten Cronk; R.S.N.G., Charles Peters; L.S.N.G. Joseph Tesky; R.S.V.G., Arthur Archard; L.S.V.G., H. E. McPaul; R.S.S., W. Managhan; L.S.S., T. H. Carter.

After the installation, the members of the lodge and visiting brethren went to the Lake View hotel, where a grand banquet was enjoyed. Speeches were made by W. Managhan, W. W. Fitzgerald and E. H. Hubbs. A hearty vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Parliament, for the excellent feast she provided, which included turkey, duck and lots of other good things, the company singing, "She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

The fifth Division Court was held at Wellington town hall on Monday, Jan. 11th, presided over by Judge McLean, of Picton. The only case on the docket was a suit of Manly S. Daband, plaintiff, and Marshall F. Trumppour, defendant. Action was taken for an accounting between the parties. Judgment was given the plaintiff for $15.85 and costs, F. L. Ward was solicitor for plaintiff and E. M. Young for defendant.

When the Wellington Women's Institute takes a matter in hand, the women give both time and material things toward that object. The Institute has been holding a tea each month to raise funds for a public library in Wellington. There is already a box of books on loan from the Department of Education, Toronto, and Mr. Moore has kindly offered a room over his store, to be used as a library, and as soon as a sufficient amount of money is collected to warrant it, books will be purchased and a library started.

The monthly Library tea was held in the domestic science room on Thursday, 7th, and this was most successful.

The room was unusually attractive as the Christmas decorations used for the high school lunch were in evidence. Mrs. (Dr.) McCulloch and Mrs. George Green were conveners of the tea committee, and credit is due them and their committee for the delicious sandwiches and cakes that were served. The collection from the tea amounted to $13.50, and one of the ladies interested in the work gave a substantial donation.

A number of books have already been donated and others will be gratefully received at any time. These may be left with the president or secretary, or brought to a tea or regular meeting.

Mrs. David Thorn died at her residence on Main street on Thursday, Jan. 7th. Deceased was eighty-four years and eight months old. The funeral service, conducted by Rev. Mr. Smyth, was held in the United Church on Saturday afternoon, Jan. 9th. Interment took place in Wellington cemetery.

Mrs. Thorn was born at Huntingdon, and until coming to Wellington, twelve years ago, lived at Mount Pleasant after her marriage. Her husband predeceased her about nine years. An adopted daughter, Mrs. David Hubbs, survives. The late Mrs. Thorn was a Methodist all her life, and was a devoted church worker. She was president of the Wellington W.M.S. one year.

The bearers at the funeral were, Sylvester Thomas, Ralph Garratt, James McDonald, William Fox, H. E. McPaul and Joe Stephenson.

Mr. Samuel Trumppour visited at Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bonter's over the week-end. Mrs. Mary Gainsforth, of the Faith Mission, Trenton, conducted a prayer meeting at Charles Frits's home on Thursday evening. James Wild visited Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jinks on Thursday. Mr. Jinks is in ill health. Miss Alma Sager spent the week-end with relations in Belleville. Mr. and Mrs. Heber Sager, of Ameliasburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. Austin Reddick on Sunday. Miss Audra Brickman, of Victoria, visited her grandmother, Mrs. Vandevoort, during the week-end.

Mrs. Benjamin Burley, after an illness of several months, passed away about 5.30 on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 10th. She was in her seventy-second year. The funeral service will be held at her late residence on Thursday, 2.30 p.m. Deceased, whose maiden name was Sarah Jane Eccles, was born in Murray township. Mr. and Mrs. Burley moved into the neighborhood of Wellington thirty-five years ago, then came to live in the village 13 years ago. Mrs. Burley was highly esteemed by her neighbors in Wellington and had many good friends in the county. She was a member of the Methodist church, and loved to attend the services as long as she was able. Last winter she attended regular cottage prayer meetings and thoroughly enjoyed the spiritual fellowship realized in these. She enjoyed very good health throughout life until last March, and she was in failing health since then.

Mr. and Mrs. Burley were delighted to have a family reunion at their home in June, 1925, their five sons and three daughters all being present.

besides a number of their twenty-seven grandchildren. The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. Burley and family in their bereavement. The survivors are her husband, five sons and three daughters, Mrs. Ketheson, LeVallee; Fred, Belleville; Edith (Mrs. Chapman), California; Ellwood, Belleville; Harry, Wellington; Earle, Gerow Gore; Ray, Winnipeg; Lucy (Mrs. Church), Toronto.

Mrs. Church was with her parents from the holiday until her mother's death.

The death occurred in Brockville on Tuesday of David H. Blair in his forty-third year. The remains were taken to his former home at Mount Pleasant for interment.

Smoke and Water Damage Done to Brockville Stores

Brockville, Jan. 15.—Smoke and water caused damage to the fur department of the Robert Craig Company Limited, to the ladies' wear shop of the J. A. McNabb Company, and to the contents of residential flats of Francis Craig and R. W. Williams as the result of an outbreak of fire under the roof of the King street building of which they are the occupants. Its cause is unknown. The loss is covered by insurance.

Mrs. Benjamin Foote, aged sixty-five, died at her home near Violet, after a year's illness. Deceased was a daughter of the late William Daly, and was born near Morven.

The Maid's Room.

An interesting letter just received from a Reader Friend runs as follows: "For years I have done all my own housework. When I was first married my husband was a mechanic. But now he owns his own business and we can afford more. He thinks I ought to have a maid so that I shall be able to take a little more leisure. We have a nice heated room in our attic which is unfurnished at present, except for curtains, but don't you think this would do for a maid's room? And how should it be furnished? Also please tell me if I should add any more furniture to my large kitchen, which at present holds these pieces: range, kitchen cabinet, and stool, porcelain-topped table, straight chair and one large linoleum rug and pretty curtains."

To begin with the kitchen, I think that a second straight chair is very necessary. A maid will, of course, have her friends drop in on her and the visitor must have a place to sit as well as the maid. Indeed, many maids like to give their guests a cup of tea, and for this purpose two small chairs, at least, which may be drawn up to the table, are essential. If the room's size permits, it is also nice to provide a small kitchen rocker. Another point: Don't forget the kitchen mirror!

As to the maid's bedroom, six pieces are absolutely indispensable: a comfortable three-foot-wide bed with warm blankets and a cotton or wool comforter; a bureau which has a generous-sized mirror and preferably a lock drawer; a wash stand outfitted with large enamelware basin, pitcher, and soap-dish (this ware is lighter to carry up and down stairs than china); a large rag-rag or several small ones; a small table to hold her sewing basket, her Bible, etcetera, and, last—but perhaps most important—an electric drop-light lamp for her to read by. Only the most inhuman, or the most thoughtless housekeeper in the world, will expect her maid to strain her eyes by trying to read in the light of an electric bulb placed high on the wall somewhere. The rationing of a maid's eyesight should not be included in the wage.

The above-named furnishings are only the barest essentials. There are many other things which will make a maid comfortable, which any woman can think of. Ask yourself how you would like to live in a room furnished as you have furnished it for a maid, if you would discover what little comforts it lacks. For instance, a bedroom scrap basket is a great convenience. Pictures on the walls will make a room less bleak. A six-tray on the bureau, dress hangers in the closet, and blotter-pad with pen and ink, are all blessings to a room's occupant.

The backbone is that part of man slowly eliminated by a paternal government.

A Severe Illness Caused Constipation

Mrs. Wm. Hill, Wapella, Sask., writes: "Three years ago I had a very severe illness, and ever since I have suffered with constipation. A few months ago a friend advised me to use which I did, although not expecting any results, but I am pleased to say that since using them I have had perfect use of my bowels without any trouble or pain, and have never had bleeding piles since. Now, I never fail to recommend 'Laxa-Liver Pills' to all my friends."
