SACRED HEART LADIES HOLD SOCIAL EVENT

Euchre and Dance on Wolfe Island Proved to Be a Great Success.

Wolfe Island, Jan. 16.—A euchre and dance was held in the C.M.B.A. hall on Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Club of the Sacred Heart church, there were about 150 couples present, including a number from Kingston. Sandy Hogan's orchestra furnished music for dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Craig Russell played a few selections on the piano and violin and had to respond to many encores. About fifteen tables were at play. Mrs. Ezra LaRush secured the ladies' first prize. The gentlemen's first prize was won by Gordon Rooney. The ladies served supper at midnight. Dancing continued till three o'clock in the morning.

Born unto Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kane, a daughter. Mrs. E. Prinyer has returned home from Watertown, N.Y., after spending three weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Karl Conkey. Mrs. John Laughlin, who was slightly indisposed is improving and will be around again shortly.

James Casey underwent a successful operation for appendicitis in the Hotel Dieu hospital, Kingston. James Kehoe's fourteen-year-old daughter is confined to her home suffering with pneumonia.

Isabel Gerow has returned home from Peterboro after a brief visit with her parents. Mr. Joseph Groenwood has returned home from Kitchener after a brief visit with his daughter, Mrs. E. Rittel.

George Russell has returned home after a successful season sailing on the Upper Lakes. He has secured his certificate for captain. His many friends are congratulating him on his promotions. The stage has started on its route between Kingston and Cape Vincent. The measles and grippe are quite prevalent here.

REEVE DREW'S JOY.

Will Be Manifest by a Dance at Sharbot Lake.

Scott's Corners, Jan. 14.—Owing to the recent snow storms the sleighing has greatly improved and the farmers are busy getting ready for their winters hauling. Melville Drew who has secured the reevehip, of Oso, in the past election will give a dance in the Community Hall, Sharbot Lake, on Friday night, 15th, in honor of his election. A number from here intend going.

Mrs. John Rutherford, Manville, Alta., who attended the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Robert McDonnell, has returned to her home. Mrs. W. E. Donnelly has gone to Toronto to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. H. H. McLean, Englehart, who is convalescent in the hospital in Toronto. Miss V. G. Bertreau, Riverside, spent a few days visiting friends here and has gone to Kingston where she has secured a position. Mr. and Mrs. John McDonnell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Harry McDonnell and family spent Sunday evening here. Mr. and Mrs. Robert McVeigh, Zealand, spent Tuesday evening at Robert McDonnell's. Robert McDonnell and family spent one evening last week at W. E. Connelly's.

Mr. Joseph and Miss Jean McDonnell spent one day last week guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomson, Sharbot Lake. Miss Gwendoline McDonnell intends returning to Manville, Alberta, some day next week. Measles have become quite an epidemic in the community and several families are confined. The funeral of the late Miss Ruby Larmon, Oso, who died in Kingston General Hospital, following an operation for appendicitis, was held in St. Paul's church, Zealand, on Wednesday morning, interment being made in St. Paul's cemetery there. Rev. Mr. Coleman officiated. W. C. Donnelly has purchased Thomas Scott's farm and will move out in the spring. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Scott are undecided where they will go yet.

2 Years' Backache Subdued by "Nerviline"

"Backache was the bane of my life, and for two years I was so lame as to be unfit for work," writes E. S. Sloane, from Georgetown. "While in Smith Bros.' Drug Store, I heard of Nerviline being a wonderful pain-destroyer, so I decided to try Nerviline. Thanks to Nerviline, my two-years' backache was rubbed away, and to-day I am perfectly well." All those who suffer from weak, aching backs, those whose muscles are stiff, whose joints are swollen, let them try Nerviline—the liniment that never fails. 35c. at all dealers.

I NEVER SAW SUCH WONDERFUL COAL

Said the Furnace to the Stove; "Judging by the looks of it, We are going to have a hot time this winter." "You've said a shrewd thing," said the Furnace. "I have heard that MITCHELL'S WELSH COAL is the cleanest thing coming to Canada. If you try it you will join the great line of buyers."
