DOUG MACLEAN'S FIRST PARAMOUNT STAR COMEDY

In "Seven Keys to Baldpate," the famous George M. Cohan comedy in which Douglas MacLean opened last night at the Capitol Theatre, the comedian plays the role of a young novelist who seeks the solitude of Baldpate Inn to write a novel in twenty-four hours.

And through it all Doug MacLean, in the character of the writer, persistently does the opposite of the right thing at every opportunity.

Once established at the Inn, he mistakes the real crooks for paid accomplices of his rival for the hand of the girl.

The climax of this inverted course of procedure occurs when one of the crooks apparently kills the girl accomplice. MacLean rushes in, seizes the gun—and is promptly arrested for murder and accused by the entire band of crooks!

"PHANTOM OF THE OPERA" TO OPEN ON MONDAY

That much vaunted thriller de luxe, "The Phantom of the Opera," which Carl Laemmle, the producer, has so vociferously pronounced "the greatest mystery thriller of the age," will open Monday at the Grand Theatre, and the people of Kingston will at last have an opportunity to see Lon Chaney play what is said to be his latest and greatest role.

It is claimed that twenty acres were covered with seventy massive sets for the gigantic production, which is adapted from the French mystery romance by Gaston Leroux, sometimes alluded to as France's successor to De Maupassant.

Lon Chaney, who plays the "Phantom," is supported by a cast numbering thousands. Many noted principals head the great cast of players. Among them are Mary Philbin, Norman Kerry, Snitz Edwards, Gibson Gowland, John Satchell, Virginia Pearson, Arthur Edmund Carew and Edith Yorke. A special musical score will be played by the orchestra for the local presentation.

ILL IN HOSPITAL; SEARCH FOR RELATIVES

Melvin James Grey Served in the World's Great War.

Lying ill in a hospital at Moline, Ill., Melvin James Grey, has written to friends in Kingston, asking them to take steps to assist in the locating of his relatives, supposed to be residing near Kingston.

Grey left this district in 1914, to serve in the Great War, and he states that from that time on, he lost all trace of his relatives. His condition is not believed to be serious, but the young man had another party write the letter for him.

Grey states that his aunt, Mrs. Lizzie Moon, whose maiden name was Miller, was living on a farm just outside of Kingston in 1914.

OPERATORS REFUSE

KINGSTON TEAM HAS PLENTY OF SPEED

Belleville Admit Locals Were Too Fast for Them Wednesday Night.

Of the Kingston-Belleville game here on Wednesday night, C. D. Tice, writing in the Belleville Ontario news:

"Kingston showed a team that was uniformly good with plenty of speed on the front line. In fact they had the ice smoking many times with their bursts of skating. They poured into the defence of the Maroons two and three abreast and the Belleville defence were trying to stop them with the stick instead of using their weight of which they have plenty. Lloyd Brown was rocked a couple of times by Green and he was not quite so anxious after that.

"Rooney and Bellringer with Brown as a sub, played a useful game on the defence and gave very nice protection to Mandell. Bellringer's high class. He marked the puck. It seems that he likes to put salt and pepper on the little black disc and eat it. Dozens of chances were missed by the Kingston team through the player's lapse. Bellringer can carry a puck and his rushes were dangerous to a certain point. The forward line of Lawlor, Legon and Smith were the best combination that Kingston had to offer and they skated miles. Legon is a ghost on skates and his work was always high class. He marked his perfect performance by dirty tactics and it is to be hoped he is not learning them at the school of learning in Kingston. Smith was the same evergreen boy and he improves with age. He was here, there and everywhere and was rewarded with a goal for his effort. At times he checked the whole Belleville team single handed. The sub of the forward line, Muchmore was as good as the regulars and was used often."

NO RULING YET.

Montreal, Jan. 22.—No definite ruling has been made by President Calder regarding the various difficulties placed before him on his return to Montreal yesterday. The National Hockey League head is seeking further information before making statements regarding the case of Bill Coups, Canadian captain, who was given a match penalty for deliberately upsetting Referee Laflamme in the Canadian-Ottawa game at the Arena last Tuesday night. He is also waiting the report of Referee Mike Rodden regarding the difficulties that official had with certain spectators during the same game, which eventually led to the arbitrator striking a spectator, who claims he had done nothing to annoy the official, though Rodden insists he hit the party, who had been bothering him.

WHY DISCRIMINATE?

While University of Toronto's Athletic Directorate is struggling with the problem of professional coaching in football, University of Montreal follows the lead of McGill and Queen's by engaging a professional coach for its intercollegiate hockey union team. Montreal adopts no half measures, having announced the acquisition of the well-known Joe Malone, who played for years in the pro. hockey league as a member of the Canadian and Quebec teams. Malone, who was regarded as one of the trickiest and most finished centre players in the game, is the type of man who will do credit to the pro. hockey league and to the coaching profession. Coach Shaughnessy of McGill is a professional baseball player, and is now in his tenth year with the Red and White, a sufficient recommendation, indeed. University of Toronto has had "instructors," in other words, professional coaches, in various other athletic activities than football. Why discriminate?—Toronto Globe.

In Hampden Park Group.

Oshawa, Jan. 22.—Although application has not yet been made, it is understood that the Oshawa Amateur Athletic Association will apply for a franchise in the Hampden Park Senior Baseball League, Toronto. Oshawa has been connected with the Central Ontario Baseball League since its inception in 1919.

It is likely a deputation of Oshawa baseball officials will attend the O. B.A.A. executive meeting in Toronto tonight.

MIKE RODDEN'S SIDE.

The following is the statement issued by Mike Rodden for the Montreal Star, giving his side of the case in the trouble at the Canadian-Ottawa game on Tuesday night at Montreal:

Toronto, Jan. 22.—While skating close to the fence, in the first and second periods, I was shoved and jostled several times, about the centre of the rink. Finally in the third period I had occasion to stop in that vicinity and back away from a close play. I was immediately struck by a spectator, and curved around and asked him if he was the man who struck me, because in that case I would have demanded that the spectator be ejected. He struck me again, and another spectator sitting with him also struck me. This

BOY MISSING FROM FARM FOR FOUR DAYS

A Search Is Being Made for Seventeen-Year-Old Jack Frank.

Jack Frank, a seventeen-year-old boy, employed by a Pittsburgh farmer, has been missing since Tuesday morning. He was last seen by his employer about 9:30 in the morning, and as far as can be learned, had not been seen since by anyone in this vicinity. About two hours elapsed between the time Frank was last seen by his employer and when his disappearance was discovered.

The boy, who had been with his present employer for the past year, came from an institution in Kitchener, and his family also resides in that city. He has run away before, but has never stayed away for more than a day.

When he left the farm, the boy was dressed in overalls, a sweater, long rubber boots, a cap and mitts. He did not take any of the spare clothing which he owned or any of his other possessions, which leads his employer to believe that the intention to run away was not premeditated.

ARDEEN MAN REMANDED

caused me to protest myself. The spectators in question, after a few brief exchanges, finally decided that they had made a mistake. Other fans climbed over the fence but quickly retreated when Ottawa and Canadian players gathered around. Not a player of either team attempted to molest me in any way.

BANKERS DEFEATED 4-3.

The Druggists defeated the Bankers in an exhibition game at the Arena Thursday night by a score of 4-3 after ten minutes of overtime. The game was very fast with the money handlers having the better of the argument in the first stanza and scoring their three goals. In the last two periods however the Druggists opened up and slipped three by McDonald, trying the count. The winning score was made in the last few minutes of the overtime.

The teams were: Druggists—Goal, Lee; defence, McLeod, Frederick; centre, Donnelly; wings, Thompson, Mitchell; spares, Mine, Doonan, Crutchley.

Bankers—Goal, McDonald; defence, Patman, Gow; centre, McGrath; wings, Brophy, Fortier; spares, Connelly, Orr.

GAMES TO BE PLAYED.

The turn to cold weather has made the games in the Frontenac County League certain for Saturday and the Sunbury team will play Verona at Verona and Cataract will meet Batterses at the latter place. Joe Smith, Kingston, will referee the game at Verona, and "Pete" Devlin, Kingston, will handle the Cataract-Batterses game.

GAME ENDED A TIE.

A large crowd turned out to see one of the finest exhibition games this season, when Lyndhurst met Sunbury in Lyndhurst last night and held them to a tie, the final score being 5-5. The play was fast all the way through neither team having an edge on the play until late in the game, when Lyndhurst lagged slightly.

WITH THE CURLERS.

The ice was in very fine shape for the curling at the Kingston rink on Thursday night. The games resulted as follows: M. Manahan, skip, 12; R. N. F. McFarlane, skip, 11. G. Hanson, skip, 13; A. Turcotte, skip, 12. J. Elliott, skip, 16; P. Du Moulin, skip, 3. H. Travers, skip, 13; L. C. Lockett, skip, 11.
