City and District

Local Bank Clearings.
The figures of the Kingston Bankers' Clearing House are as follows: For week ending January 21st, 1926, $700,973; corresponding week, 1925, $601,818.

Good Roads Again.
Owing to the frost of Thursday night the roads in the vicinity of Kingston are exceptionally good. The bus drivers made record time in coming to the city this morning.

Don't Miss This Gigantic Clothing Sale.
Now going on. Our entire winter stock must go. Here's your chance to get a real bargain. The Lion Clothing Co.

St. John's Church, Portsmouth.
The Bishop of Ontario will be present at St. John's Church, Portsmouth, on Sunday evening, Jan. 24th, at 7 o'clock, to induct the Rev. A. E. Smart as rector of St. John's parish. You are cordially invited to the service.

Underwent an Operation.
Frank Quinn, messenger at the Bank of Toronto, underwent a very critical operation at the Hotel Dieu on January 4th. He was removed to his home on Sunday last, and his many friends will be glad to learn that he is doing as well as can be expected.

Here's Your Chance to Get an Overcoat Cheap.

We are clearing every overcoat in the store at cost price as we positively must make room for our spring goods, as our space is limited. Buy that overcoat and put it by until next year. It will more than pay you. The Lion Clothing Co.

Late Mrs. McMillan.
The funeral of the late Mrs. James McMillan took place on Thursday afternoon from the residence of her niece, Mrs. G. Boyd, 89 Earl street, to Cataragui cemetery. The service, which was conducted at the house by Rev. J. W. Stephen, was attended by a large number of friends of the deceased.

Mayor Locates Relatives.
A few days ago, Mayor Angrove received a letter from Daniel Hickey, of Callamork, Oregon, asking for information regarding relatives residing near Kingston. Mayor Angrove has succeeded in locating the relatives asked for, one family residing at Bob's Lake and another at Burridge.

Born in Sydenham.
William Truesdale, aged sixty-two years, died at his home in Barneveld, N.Y., on Tuesday. He was born in Sydenham, Ont., a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Truesdale. He was a baker. A wife, one son and two daughters survive. James T. Truesdale, Harrowsmith, is a brother.

The Dispute Settled.
Regarding ownership of two steers, alleged to have been sold by Larkin to Dunn & Lovock, Toronto, and afterwards purchased by John G. Graham, now deceased, Glenora, Ont., the trial judge has decided that Goodfellow of Tyendinaga, owned the steers. Graham got judgment against Larkin for $320. Costs of trials and appeals against Goodfellow are assessed on Graham.

Nurses' Alumnae Association.
The annual meeting of the Nurses' Alumnae Association of the Kingston General Hospital was held on January 15th, in the nurses' residence. The officers elected were as follows: President, Mrs. G. H. Leggett; secretary, Miss Bertram; treasurer, Mrs. C. W. Mallory; registry nurse, Mrs. J. E. Spence; Canadian Nurse and press representative, Miss A. Gibson; flower committee, Mrs. George Nicol.

20% discount on shoes. This is the last week of the 20% discount sale at Lockett's. This is a good opportunity to secure your oxfords or evening shoes at a great saving. A bundle of bonds worth more than three million dollars was stolen while enroute to London.

DAILY MEMORANDUM.
Band at Palace Rink to-night. Euchre and dance in Catholic Assembly Hall to-night at 8.00 o'clock.
